Strike Will Come If Railroads Balk

Teutonic Warships Sunk in an Attack

LEE MAKES FACT CLEAR

Says Roads Must Live Up to Spirit and Intent of Adamson Law.

STRIKE VOTE STILL IN EFFECT, HE SAYS

Announcement Comes in Connection With New York Conference.

New York, Nov. 13.—Failure of the railroads of the country to live up to the spirit and intent of the Adamson eight-hour law will result in the strike vote of the big four railroad brotherhoods being put into effect, it was announced here today by Wm. G. Lee, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, after a three-hour conference between brotherhood and railway representatives.

The conference was called to discuss and if possible reach some arrangement or conclusion as to working out the provisions of the law which goes into effect January 1.

The strike vote referred to by Mr. Lee is that taken prior to the conferences between the brotherhood heads and President Wilson which was followed by the passage of the Adamson law, after the brotherhods had threatened to put the vote into effect at that time.

Nothing Yet Accomplished.

When the conference adjourned today for luncheon it was stated by brotherhood representatives that so far nothing had been accomplished. They said they had worked out an interpretation of the eight hour law, but they had refused to divulge it for the reason that the railroads, or some of them, had announced their decision to fight it through injunction.

"A strike vote is still in effect," said Mr. Lee, "and if the railroads do not live up to the very spirit and intent of the law there is no reason why the brotherhoods should not take advantage of their strong card. This time there is nothing that can stop them."

Mr. Lee added that any attempt at subterfuge by the railroads in placing in effect the eight hour law will be met with instant action by the brotherhoods.

It was announced that the conference would resume its deliberations at 2 o'clock.

THE CONFERENCE OPENS.

New York, Nov. 13.—Representatives oft he railroads and their trainmen, who will benefit under the Adamson eight-hour law, gathered here today for the first of a series of conferences to discuss ways and means for the application of the statute.

The meeting was described by representatives of the roads as one for formal discussion only, with the purpose of determining whether both sides view the law in the same light. Neither side understood the legislation or how it was to be applied, it was stated, and an effort was to be made to reach some common ground for application if the supreme court decides the law is constitutional in the suits brought by several roads to determine this fact.

Elisha Lee heads the conference committee of managers, which represents the roads in the discussions, beginning today. W. G. Lee, A. B. Garretson, W. E. Stone and W. S. Carter, heads of the four trainmen's brotherhoods, were among the men's representatives.

U. S. MARINES FIGHT FIRE.

Sixty Men Sent Ashore From Gunboat Wheeling in Mexico.

Puerto, Mex., Nov. 13.—Sixty men from the United States gunboat Wheeling were sent ashore yesterday to fight a fire caused by lightning which struck two tanks of crude oil, with a capacity of 55,000 barrels each. Five adjoining oil tanks were threatened but eventually the fire was checked.

PROSECUTOR, BEATEN AT POLLS, ON TRIAL

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 13.—Trial of Oscar D. McDaniel, prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county, charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Harriet Moss McDaniel, was resumed today. The trial was halted three weeks ago by allegations that the jury venire had been prejudiced. John T. Barker, attorney general of Missouri, has charge of the prosecution.

The indicted prosecutor was beaten by a large vote last Tuesday after a heated campaign for re-election, in the course of which he discussed the charge against hi min virtually every precinct of the county.

COLD WAVE ON ITS WAY

26 BELOW ZERO AT SHERIDAN, WYOMING

Entire Country is Due to Get Effect of Stiff Cold Snap.

Washington, Nov. 13.—A cold wave with temperatures at various places lower than ever before recorded in November overspreads the region west of the Mississippi river today and will move eastward to the Atlantic coast.

Sheridan, Wyo., reported the lowest temperature with 26 degrees below zero; Lander, Wyo., 24 degrees zero, and Cheyenne, Wyo., Yellow Stone National Park and Havre, Mont., 20 degrees below zero. The intense cold reaches southward into the interior of Texas.

Weather bureau officials today said the cold wave would diminish in intensity as it moved eastward. Its movement and intensity was dependent somewhat, they pointed out, upon the West Indian disturbance which was reported this morning in the Caribbean sea in the vicinity of Swan islands.

Rain and snow probably will precede

TWO AUTO COLLISION VICTIMS NOW BETTER

Young Murdock Held for Inquest When Miss McGowan is Killed.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 13.—Miss Catherine Mayer, of Indianapolis, and James Gordon Murdock, a Yale freshman, of Lafayette, Ind., who were injured in the accident to Murdock's automobile near Milford late Saturday night in which Miss Marjorie McGowan, also of Indianapolis, was killed, were reported today as recovering. Coroner Eli Mix today continued his investigation of the accident.

James Gordon Murdock was driving the car, which he had purchased the day before. He has a broken thigh and internal injuries. His brother, Alexander G. Murdock, suffered a scalp wound and minor injuries. The young men are sons of Samuel T. Murdock, now of Indianapolis.

The accident was a collision of automobiles on Saturday night when the big Murdock car and a smaller machine crashed together. James Gordon Murdock is being held for the coroner's inquest.

FEEDS 1,000 POOR; KEEPS VOW HE MADE 20 YEARS AGO

New York, Nov. 13.—Twenty years ago Max Gootschneider, with his wife and baby girl arrived in New York penniless from Volna, Russia. He begged help from charitable organizations and was given a job as a fur dyer. In return he made a vow that when his daughter was married all men who were hungry, as he was then, should be fed.

The immigrant became a prosperous fur dealer and yesterday announced the coming marriage of his daughter. He drove to the Hebrew society's headquarters in his limousine and explained that he was ready to keep the vow made a score of years ago.

"How many immigrants have you here now?" he asked. He was told about 200.

"Not enough," he declared. "Go out into the neighborhood. I want to feed any number up to 1,000; perhaps more if you can get them."

Nearly 1,000 poor were fed at his expense between 1 p. m. and midnight.

U.S.S ARIZONA

©UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

The U. S. S. Arizona, mightiest battleship in the world, is shown here passing the world's tallest building, the Woolworth tower, in New York. The Arizona is passing under the Brooklyn bridge to enter the U. S. service for the first time. The ship is a superdreadnaught, fitted with 12 fourteen-inch guns and can go 21 knots an our. The contract price for hull and machinery was $7,425,000, which would make its entire cost about $12,000,000.

FOREMAN IS INJURED WHEN CABLE SLIPS

Drops Ten Feet With Elevator at New Mulholland Building.

Rain, which fell Monday morning, wet the steel cable that runs through the several pulleys of the temporary elevator used in construction of the new Mulholland building to be occupied by the gas company, on East Wayne street. The cable slipped and allowed the freight elevator to drop ten feet down the shaft to the ground.

Lee Harner, sixty-one years old, 125 East Washington street, foreman of the construction job, was standing on the elevator when the platform went down. Harner fell in a heap as the elevator struck the ground. Four fellow workmen gathered him up and carried him more than a square to his home.

Both his ankles were badly sprained and his back strained, the physician who was summoned, found. Harner will be bed fast for some time, because of his advanced age and wracking shock of the fall. For a time it was feared that he was critically injured. His wife was prostrated when her husband was carired into their apartments in a helpless condition.

POSTAL CLERKS HAVE ENTERED A PROTEST

Object to Working More Than Eight Hours in Any One Day.

Washington, Nov. 13.—In a letter to President Wilson, made public today, Thomas F. Flaherty, secretary and treasurer of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, entered a protest against working postoffice clerks more than eight hours a day. The letter calls the attention of the president to the fact that a law passed by congress provided that clerks shall not be required to work more than eight hours a day within ten hours and for working in excess of this are to be paid overtime in proportion to their salaries.

"This law contemplated that only in emergencies should more than eight hours be required," Mr. Flaherty said in his letter. "Yet in many of the large postoffices, notably New York, Chicago, Boston and Cleveland, the clerks are forced daily and nightly to work ten, eleven and even twelve hours."

FORCES PILOT TO DESCEND.

Leak in Gasoline Line Prevents Flight to Indianapolis.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 13.—A leak in the gasoline line of his big 150-horsepower biplane tractor airplane prevented Aviator Castory, of Chicago, in the plane built at the American Aircraft company, from flying to Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. The machine was 2,500 feet in the air when the gasoline line burst and the pilot was forced to descend. The flight to Indianapolis, where several stockholders of the company reside, will be made this week.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS CAUSES BABY'S DEATH

Elkhart Child, Taken to Kendallville for Treatment, is Dead.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mary Louise Glowson, the 18-months-old child of Leona Hibbs, 20, of Elkhart, which was brought here Sunday by the mother for treatment at the Co-operative hospital for infantile paralysis and refused admission there after the nature of the babe's ailment was learned, died this morning. After the child was refused admission in the hospital and after the mother and babe were detained for several hours in the baggage room at the union station, A. R. Cole, of the Gospel Mission on Oak street, threw open the doors, admitting both the mother and babe.

Much excitement prevails here and health officers are taking every known precaution in an effort to prevent a spread of the disease. It is feared several have been exposed. The babe was in a dying condition when brought here and nothing that medical science could do could save its life.

Dr. H. O. Williams, secretary of the city board of health, has taken charge of the situation. He states that the mother told him that physicians in Elkhart had been suspicious of the case for days and that it was upon their advice that she brought the child to the local hospital.

SYRIAN RELIEF FUND IS SENT TO NEW YORK

In a meeting on Sunday, Syrians of Fort Wayne decided to give of their savings each month for the cause of Syrian relief. They expect to collect their savings from time to time and offer theim to their starving countrymen

The $703 gathered in Fort Wayne for the first ship load of provisions to be sent abroad was mailed to New York on Saturday by Cusma T. David, treasurer of the local Syrian society. One of the late contributions to the cause was E. F. Yarnell, who gave $5.

STRIKE CUTS HEAVILY INTO RAIL REVENUES

New York, Nov. 13.—During September and October the strike of street railway employes caused the passenger revenue of the New York Railways company, operators of surface trolley lines, to drop $1,407,420 below the amount derived from this source in the same period of 1915, according to a statement published by the company today.

There were 23,589,959 fewer fares carried during that period than during the same two months of a year ago. A large proportion of this volume reached the subway and elevated lines which showed an increase in receipts of nearly one million dollars.

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN IN CORN SHOW

Twenty-Eight Farmers Already Announce They Will Take Part.

Twenty-eight farmers of Allen county at this early date have notified A. J. Hutchins, county agent, that they will take part in the county corn show to be held in the assembly room of the court house during the month of December. This number, the county agent states, is unusually large, for a first call for competition which was only issued Saturday.

The county agent will enlist the aid of farmers in all sections of the county and the show will be one of the largest of its kind ever held. Blanks are to be sent out asking farmers to attach their signatures under an agreement to exhibit corn at the show. Mr. Hutchins is now considering decorations for the assembly hall, judges for the show and other details.

Attend Hog Sale.

CENTRAL BOARD TO NAME FOUR MEMBERS

Central board of the Young Men's Christian association will hold a meeting tonight, starting at 7:30, at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. building, to elect four members of the board, to hear reports on the city and railroad departments of the Y. M. C. A., to receive reports of the treasurer and to elect a ninth member of the central board and any advisory members thought necessary.

It is necessary to select four members of the board because of the death of one member and the expiration of terms of three other members.

MINNESOTA SOLDIERS VOTING FOR WILSON

St. Paul, Nov. 13.—Two more county soldiers' votes reported today, cut the Hughes' lead in Minnesota to 229. Troops from Brown county voted 27 to 16 in Wilson's favor and Martin county's soldiery voted 21 for Wilson and 11 for Hughes, a net gain of 21 for Wilson. The total now stands Wilson 178617, Hughes 178,846.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 13.—The vote of Minnesota's soldiers on the border has trimmed the plurality for Charles E. Hughes to 250, according to latest returns available. Today the figures stand 178,569 for Wilson to 178,819 for Hughes in the state.

The latest guardsmen vote heard from was that of Fairmount county, whose troops of the second regiment voted 21 for Wilson to 11 for Hughes. This gain of ten for Wilson cut the Hughes lead to 250. It is likely that the work of tabulating returns will begin at the state capital today, when the reports of county officials are expected to arrive.

NO MORE NATURAL GAS CONNECTIONS

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 13.—Notice that no more connections for gas can be made has been given through advertisements in newspapers by theCentral Indiana Gas company. The company supplies the gas used in Muncie, Alexandria, Elwood, Marion and other eastern Indiana cities. It also supplies cities in Ohio. The gas is piped from West Virginia.

The reason for making no new connections is said to be an expected increased demand on the supply when severe cold weather starts. The calls for gas have been heavier because of the high price of coal, the company says.

EVIDENCE IS YET LACKING

Washington Withholds Its Judgment in Submarine Situation.

ALL RECENT CASES TAKEN UP AS WHOLE

President Faces Mass of Work Piled Up After the Election.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Secretary Lansing laid before President Wilson today a summary of information regarding submarine attacks on vessels carrying Americans, but reported that sufficient evidence was not yet at hand on which to base action. He said no information had been received from the Berlin government in response to an inquiry sent through the American embassy there concerning the sinking of the Marina, when six American lives were lost.

While state department officials consider the submarine situation as serious, no decision had been reached today as to whether Germany has violated pledges given to the American government after the attack on the channel steamer Sussex.

All recent submarine activities, including the raid of the U-53 off the New England coast, are being considered at the state department together in an effort to determine whether a new submarine policy has been adopted by Germany.

No new developments of vital importance in the Mexican situation were reported to the president by Mr. Lansing. While it is understood Mexican relations are not in a satisfactory state from the standpoint of the administration, the commission at Atlantic City will be given further opportunity to reach an agreement.

FOREIGN PROBLEMS FIRST.

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson was back at his desk at the white house today after an absence of two months, prepared to take up important foreign problems, which have been held in abeyance pending the election, as well as domestic questions. These included the German submarine situation, the Mexican problem and a number of federal appointments.

The president was expected to consider first the submarine situation, which is admittedly serious. A summary of recent developments in German submarine warfare, prepared by the state department, was ready to be laid before him and in addition will probably confer with Ambassador Gerard on the situation.

As to Cabinet Changes.

The president has not even considered the question of changes in his cabinet, according to administration officials, who characterize as premature reports that he had decided on such changes. It is possible, however, that one or two cabinet officers may not remain after March 4.

Although Mr. Wilson was tired out when he returned to the white house last night, he was up early today and had breakfast before 8 o'clock. Immediately afterward he began reading a huge stack of mail accumulated during his trip to Williamstown, Mass.

Asked As to House.

The president asked first for the latest information on the political makeup of the house of representatives in the sixty-fifth congress. He was told indications from present returns were that the republicans would have 217 members and the democrats 212, with six members of other parties. The president was understood to be concerned over the make-up of the next house chiefly because of its effect on the selection of the speaker and chairmanships of committees, which he is anxious to see in the hands of democrats. As far as legislation is concerned, it was said today Mr. Wilson is confident that most measures to be proposed by him would gain the

ALLIES LAUNCH NEW OFFENSIVE

Strike at German Hosts on Both Sides of Ancre River in France.

Today's War News Given in Summary

Today's announcement by London that the British have opened an attack on both sides of the Ancre river in northern France indicates the possibility that an important new offensive has begun.

Reports from Petrograd, so far unconfirmed by official advices, declare that Field Marshal von Mackensen is continuing his retreat in Dobrudja under disastrous conditions. It is even said that the Russians have succeeded in crossing the Danube at two points south of Tchernavoda.

The Black sea port of Constanza is reported again under fire of the Russian fleet. The recent Serbian victory in Macedonia seems to have been a brilliant one. Germans and Bulgarians were pushed back nearly two miles in the Cerna river southeast of Monastir in a two-day battle and that they lost 1,000 men in prisoners.

Official Berlin today reports that entente artillery was yesterday shelling Tchernavoda in Dobrudja from across the Danube. Teutonic progress continues on the Transylvania border of Rumania, the German statement declares. Three towns were captured, numerous attacks by the Rumanians were repulsed and more than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

The French, according to Berlin, opened an offensive yesterday in Upper Alsace but were defeated in their attempts to advance. German artillery, it is declared, broke up entente efforts to gain ground in the Somme area.

Today's German official statement besides indicating that Field Marshal von Mackensen is still in possession of the Tchernavoda-Constanza railway line, declares that hostile forces advancing down the Danube in Dobrudja were driven back.

Regarding the fighting along the Transylvanian border, Bucharest reports the Rumanians as holding their own in an all day battle northeast of Campulung, but being compelled to retire under pressure on the right bank of the river Alt.

Petrograd, Nov. 13.—(Via London, 3 p. m.)—An official statement issued here today says that a majority of German vessels which took part Friday in a bombardment in the Gulf of Finland were sunk.

The German warships, the statement says, were 36-knot torpedo craft.

ON BOTH SIDES OF ANCRE.

Reports Indicate Important New Allied Offensive in France.

London, Nov. 13.—(4:45 p. m.)—The British troops in their new offensive north of the Ancre river have advanced to a maximum depth of one mile, capturing from the Germans the towns of Beaumont-Hamel and Saint Pierre, according to the correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company at British headquarters.

Fighting is still going on between the German and British troops around the line of Serre about two miles north of Beaumont-Hamel. Two thousand prisoners have been taken by the British.

The British opened an attack this morning on both sides of the Ancre river, on the northern part of the Somme front. The war office reports the capture of a considerable number of prisoners.

Russians Cross Danube.

The Russians have crossed the Danube into Dobrudja at two points south of Tcharnavoda and the Russian fleet has renewed the bombardment of Constanza, according to Petrograd advices received today by wireless by way of Rome.

Field Marshal von Makensen is reported continuing his retreat with demoralized forces and with one-third of his effectives lost.

The ravages of disease the military sustained are declared in the Petrograd advices to have seriously affected the morale of von Makensen's army while the reinforcements he requested to make good his losses are said not to have been provided, his retreat therefore being conducted under disastrous conditions.

GEORGE SPECK KILLED FIGHTING FOR ALLIES

Fort Wayne Boy Dies on the Field of Action in France.

While on the field of action in France, George Speck, aged 19 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Speck, 709 St. Mary's avenue, this city, was killed on October 21 while fighting for the allies. This word was received by the parents from the British war department, Saturday. The Fort Wayne youth was a member of the Seventy-seventh Canadian battalion. No details of how he lost his life were given.

A brother, Arbold Speck, aged 17 years, is also fighting with the Canadian troops in France, presumably near Verdun. The two brothers left Fort Wayne more than a year ago and enlisted at Ottawa. George sailed with his troops on June 17, about a month after his younger brother had gone. The father of the deceased made a trip to Canada to bid his son farewell when he sailed.

The family moved to this city six years ago from Cornwall, Ontario. The young man was employed at the Hoffman lumber yards and had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Besides the parents he is survived by eleven brothers and sisters.

Burial was made in France with military honors. The father states that it will be impossible to bring the body to this city.

NEWSBOYS TO MEET ONCE EACH MONTH

Newsboys of Fort Wayne, those who sell papers on the streets, and who were guests at a banquet and entertainment given by the Rotary club recently, will be organized to meet monthly under direction of Charles A. Phelps, known in this city as "daddy of the newsies."

It is the plan, Mr. Phelps says, to bring a speaker each month before the boys who can lay the present day achievements before them in a way of suggestion but not preaching. It is the idea of the Rotarians, and Mr. Phelps particularly, to make the "newsies" independent citizens. Circulation managers of the Fort Wayne papers have entered heartily into the plan of monthly meetings.

ZAPATISTAS SLAY 100 IN MASSACRE

Mexico City Papers Report Attack on Train by Bandits.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 13.—An indiscriminate massacre of nearly 100 women, children and Carranza soldiers, who were traveling on a train near Contreras, state of Morelos, which was attacked by Zapata followers, is reported in Mexico City newspapers received here yesterday. After the attack on the train the dead lay in piles beside the cars, the papers state.

Only one person, so far as known, escaped death at the hands of the bandits. He was Capt. Antonio Priegos.

The attack occurred on Nov. 7. The passenger train, convoyed by a military train five miles in advance, was halted in a mountain wilderness after the military train had been allowed to pass unmolested. For fifteen minutes the Zapatistas kept up the slaughter, slaying men and women, who prayed for mercy, and killing the babies who accompanied their mothers, the papers declare. Soldiers aboard the passenger train were without their accoutrements and unable to offer any assistance. Among the list of dead given in the Mexico City papers is the name of Col. Garido Alfaro, two majors and three captains.

When a relief train reached the scene of the attack, several hours after it occurred, the Zapatistas had scattered into the hills. They had looted the express car of its valuables before departing.

CHURCH OF GOD OPENS ANNUAL FALL ASSEMBLY

Five States Represented at Religious Gathering at Anderson.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 13.—The annual fall assembly of the Church of God opened Sunday at Gospel Trumpet camp. The sessions will be continued until next Sunday evening with three meetings held each day. The states of Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan and Indiana are represented at the meetings. Rev. L. H. Morgan of Herrin, Ill., and Rev. E. A. Reardon of Chicago will be among the main speakers during the sessions. Sunday's program included morning, afternoon and evening meetings, with the services conducted by Rev. Orville Line of Wilmot, Ind., Rev. J. T. Wilson of Anderson and Rev. F. G. Smith, editor of the Gospel Trumpet.

One of the features of the assembly will be the ordinance or feet washing service on Saturday afternoon. Because of the large crowds which have been attending the fall assembly and the general assembly in June, a new auditorium to seat 5,000 persons and a church with a capacity of 10,000 persons are being erected on the camp grounds.

LEWIS SNYDER DIES WHILE DRIVING AUTO

New Haven, Ind., Nov. 13.—Lewis Snyder, aged 43 years, a lifelong resident of Allen county, was a victim of apoplexy Sunday evening while driving his automobile home from Fort Wayne. He suffered the stroke at a point just one mile from this city near the Brudi farm, and died before he could be removed from the machine.

In the car at the time were Joseph Brudi, his wife and daughter. The car was traveling at a fair rate of speed when Mr. Brudi noticed that the auto was headed for the ditch. He glanced at Mr. Snyder and saw that the man was ghastly pale. He succeeded in stopping the car and then attended Mr. Snyder, who died, however, a few seconds afterward.

Mr. Snyder was a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters and was a member of St. John's Catholic church, of New Haven. Besides the widow he is survived by the parents and five children.

WILL BOOST FORT WAYNE AT MEETING

Local Realty Operators Are Going to Evansville With Enthusiasm.

Thirty members of the Fort Wayne Real Estate Exchange, accompanied in many cases by their wives, will leave the city at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon over the Lake Erie railroad for Indianapolis, where they will be entertained by the real estate board in that city prior to leaving the capital at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday, arriving in Evansville Wednesday morning at 6:30 o'clock to attend sessions of the Indiana Real Estate association which will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

At Indianapolis various realty boards of the state will be entertained by the Indianapolis real estate board and Hector Fuller, dramatic editor of the Indianapolis Star, will entertain with a lecture on his travels abroad. Full program for the real estate men's convention has been announced and one of the most profitable meetings ever held is anticipated.

Louis L. Bart is chairman of the booster committee for the trip of the Fort Wayne delegation and he says Fort Wayne is going to be on the map at the convention.

Anthony Wayne Court of Honor, No. 948, will give a pedro party in App's hall, on South Calhoun street, Tuesday afternoon. The public is invited.

SENT DOWN BY RUSIAN GUNS

The Russian Statement.

The statement reads: "Baltic sea: On Friday night a flotilla of the enemy's thirty-six knto torpedo craft entered the bay of Finland. A dense fog hid the vessels and the enemy succeeded in bombarding the Baltic coast for several minutes.

"About one hundred shells, mostly shrapnel, were fired. Seven civilians, including five children and two rank-and-file, were killed. One woman and four soldiers were wounded. Several houses were damaged and twelve horses were willed.

"The enemy retired hurriedly, but we sank a majority of the torpedo craft. Further pursuit of hostile units was abandoned in consequence of a dense fog and the timely discovery of the enemy's traps."

The Gulf of Finland is an arm of the Baltic sea between Finland and the Russian Baltic provinces. At the eastern end of the bay is Kronstadt, the outer port of Petrograd. The entrance to the gulf is guarded by the fortresses of Helsingfors, Hango and Revel.

Most of the German naval activity in the war with Russia has been in the vicinty of the Gulf of Riga and on one occasion the Germans effected a landing in the rear of the Russian line. The fact that only light German warships were employed on Friday, however, indicates that the purpose of the German admiralty was merely to make a quick raid.

SERBIANS WIN VICTORY.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The Serbians have won a brilliant victory over the Germans and Bulgarians in the Cerna district southeast of Monastir, the war office announced today. The Serbians supported by French artillery forced the Teutonic allies to retreat a distance of nearly two miles and captured about 1,000 prisoners.

The retreat of the German-Bulgarian force was compelled after a battle lasting two days. The prisoners taken raise the total captures since Sept. 12, says the statement, to 6,000 men, together with 72 cannon and 53 machine guns taken during this period.

There was only the usual cannonading during the night along the front in France, says today's announcement by the war office.

FORCED TO YIELD GROUND.

Bucharest, Nov. 13.—In an all day battle in the region of Dragoslavsle, northeast of Campulung, south of the Transylvania border, the Rumanians maintained their positions, the war office announced today. On the right baik of the river Alt, however, the Rumanian forces were compelled to yield ground.

BULGARS ADMIT LOSS.

BROKEN BY GERMAN FIRE.

Berlin Reports Check to Allies and Gain in Transylvania.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—(By Wireless to Sayville.)—Attempts of entente troops to advance between the Ancre and the Somme yesterday were broken up by German artillery fire, the war office announced today. In upper Tlsace the French took the offensive but their efforts to advance failed completely.

In the town of Sailly-Saillisel, according to the statement, the German forces continue to hold the east edge of the town. The statement reads:

"Western theater:—Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht: Between the Ancre river and the Somme river there was intermittent strong artillery firing. Our fire dispersed hostile infantry on the Terrain before our position south of Warlencourt and it was effective against troops assembling in the British trenches west of Eaucourt L'Abbaye.

"In Sailly-Saillisel we hold the edge of the town. On both sides of the village attacked in the afternoon with strong forces. They were repulsed.

"Army group of German crown prince: A French advance north of Doller, in upper Alsace, launched after artillery preparations completely failed."

Three Towns Captured.

On the Transylvanian front yesterday Austro-German troops captured three towns and repulsed numerous Rumanian attacks, the war office announces. More than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

The town captured are Dicta and Arsuriler in the Gyergyo mountains on the northern part of the front and Candesti in Rumania, northwest of Campulung.

In Dobrudja Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces repelled troops which were advancing down the west bank of the Danube.

Refuses Comment on Election.

Mr. Wilson continued to refuse to make any comment on the election pending the receipt of formal word from Mr. Hughes and the republican national committee conceding his re-election. After a brief stay in Washington the president may go away for a rest before congress convenes. Hot Springs, Va., was mentioned as the place he might visit. He will make no definite plans, however, until he has got in thorough touch with official business here and learned whether the submarine or Mexican situations require his presence.

Secretary Lansing planned to confer with the president today on recent submarine attacks on vessels carrying Americans and the Mexican situation. While officials admit that the submarine situation is filled with grave possibilities no action will be taken until further reports have been received. It was said today that no evidence so far has been received by the state department that Germany's pledges have been violated.

Changes in Cabinet.

In case there are any changes in President Wilson's cabinet it was understood today that among those who may be seriously considered are Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams college and a son of former President James A. Garfield; Samuel L. Seabury, the defeated democrat for governor of New York, and Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee.

There have been many reports circulated regarding changes in the cabinet, but officials in close touch with the president declared today that it is almost certain that he will urge all present members of the cabinet to remain at their posts and changes are not expected unless members themselves desire to quit the official family. It is considered possible, however, that one or more members of the cabinet may resign for personal reasons.

Case of Mr. McAdoo.

Secretary McAdoo has been frequently mentioned as one member likely to chairman of the house banking and currency committee, has been suggested for this post. It was stated officially today that Mr. McAdoo can remain in the president's cabinet as long as he desires, and it was denied he had offered his resignation.

In case there is a vacancy on the supreme court bench, Attorney General Gregory, Senators Lane or Walsh (Mont.) would be considered first for the appointment. Secretary Redfield, Secretary Baker and Secretary Daniels have been mentioned as members of the cabinet who might desire to quit public life, but it was stated definitely today that not one of them had signified any such intention.

Secretary Tumulty is also expected to remain in his present post, although he could be appointed as a member of the board of general appraisers in New York if he desired. Reports have connected Mr. Tumulty's name with a cabinet position, but it was stated authoritatively today that he will not become a cabinet officer.

the cold wave in the Great Lakes region, Ohio valley and Tennessee. The cold will strike in the Ohio valley, Tennessee and the gulf states tonight.

Cold wave warnings have been issued for Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana and southwestern Ohio.

USE A "MILK IMPROVER."

London, Nov. 13.—To avoid hardships arising out of the higher price of milk, the Housewives War league has put on the market a so-called "milk improver." It is a white powder, with the correct combination of bone and flesh-forming constituents. A penny's worth, mixed with a pint of water, is added to a pint of cow's milk, and the housewife has a quart of "just-as-good."

WILL JOLLIFY TUESDAY.

The democrats of Monroeville and vicinity will jollify Tuesday evening of this week. There will be a speaker and a big parade headed by a band. There will also be much redfire and no end of enthusiasm.

WILL SELECT OWN HOME.

Indianapolis, Nov. 13.—James F. Goodrich, governor-elect, probably will not occupy the house here given to the state as a governor's mansion by the Indianapolis park commissioners. The gift was offered with the understanding that it was to be by an act of the legislature. Mr. Goodrich when here yesterday said he was opposed to the acceptance of the property as he is also opposed to the state buying a home for the governor. He based his opposition on the fact that the expense of upkeep would be so great that a poor man, if elected governor, would be unable to maintain the place.

C. Scott, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, and his wife were guests of friends in Chicago over Sunday.

AT THE LYRIC.

Chaplin and Florence Turner on the Lyric Program Today.

The program at the Lyric for today and tomorrow consists of "Doorsteps," a screen version of the noted English comedy, featuring Florence Turner, which is in five acts, and the latest Chaplin comedy. "Behind the Screen" is the title of the new Mutual-Chaplin special feature. This date is two weeks later than the scheduled date, but the coming production is so stupendous and required so many special sets, that it was deemed best to postpone the release date and make the production one which will be talked about for months to come. It deals with life in a motion picture studio. Never before did he depict for the screen so many absurd and ridiculous adventures. In times gone by various comedians have attempted to enact a comedy of studio life. The public has been given a peep behind the scenes and shown how certain types of production are staged by motion picture directors. But never before has anybody played horse with the serious business of film-making in the fashion that Charlie Chaplin does. The mere thought of Charlie, turned loose in a big motion picture plant to do as he wills brings smiles to the lips. "Behind the Screen" is the seventh of the Mutual-Chaplin specials.

AT THE TEMPLE.

"Arizona" Will Delight Temple Audiences This Week.

With Jack Doty in the role of the dashing, handsome Lieutenant Denton, U. S. A., in "Arizona," that splendid dramatic offering is certain to please big audiences at the Temple this week.

"Arizona" is a four act drama by Augustus Thomas, and many critics believe the great playwright reached his highest accomplishment in the production of a drama which has thrilled millions of people. It is essentially a story of the great southwest, in which Arizona is made the action of the play. The scenes are largely military, and one is staged as the army post of the Eleventh U. S. cavalry. Owen Coll as Col. Bonham, commanding officer, makes an ideal officer. His staff officers, Capt. Hodgeman and Dr. Fenlon, the regimental surgeon of the Eleventh, as well as Sergeant Keller, of the same outfit, impart a military atmosphere to "Arizona." Walter Turner is Capt. Hodgeman and Manager Louis Wolford is Surgeon Fenlon. The feminine roles are admirably portrayed by Miss Ann Burt, as Bonita Canby, Miss Claire Maslin as Mrs. Estrella Bonham, wife of Col. Bonham, Miss Maude Crafton as Mrs. Canby, wife of the rancher, and Miss May Tipton as Lena Kellar. Maurice Jenkins is a Mexican Vaquero, Tony Mostano, and Charles K. Franklyn gives a splendid impersonation of Henry Canby, owner of the Araviapa ranch and an old-time westerner, whom wealth and fortune has not changed. The stage and scenic effects are excellent. Tonight there will be a reception and dancing on the stage at the close of the performance. Matinees of "Arizona" will be played on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Will Give a Tea.

Mad Anthony review, Women's Benefit Association of Maccabees, will give a tea Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Heller, 1202 Lambert drive.

MRS. EMILY DILLS DIES IN WEST.

Mrs. Emily J. Dills, a former resident of Fort Wayne, died Friday morning at her home in Pacific Grove, Cal., according to word received by relatives in this city. Death was due to senility. She was a sister of Mrs. Willias Case and aunt of Mrs. S. M. Morris. The remains will be brought to Fort Wayne for burial.

Curls and Waves

Moisten hair with atalpa water if you want curls and waves to last and look natural.

Girls! Try this! Before curling or waving your hair with pins, papers or a heated iron, just moisten each strand with atalpa water and you will be delighted how natural the curls and waves appear and how long they last in spite of wind, dampness or perspiration. A few ounces of atalpa water will cost very little at any drug store and there is nothing better to help retain the curls and waves or to soften, gloss or fluff the hair and to make it look thick and abundant.—Advertisement.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

LOCKED IN CAR OF BEANS.

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 13.—Securely locked in a car loaded with beans, traveling for parts unknown, was the plight of John Aman, of Lisbon, manager of the Noble County Canning company, Saturday afternoon. Aman was loading a car of beans at the Lisbon side track, when the northbound G. R. & I. local bumped into the car and brought it to the "Y" at this city to be transferred to the New York Central lines. When the train struck the car the door closed and Aman could not get out, or attract the attention of railroad men on the job at the time. When Aman came up missing so suddenly, it dawned upon W. L. Baughman that he had been locked in the car, and telephoning to Agent Weber of the G. R. & I. at this city, a hurried investigation was made. Fortunately the car was still on the side track or Manager Aman would now be on his way to New York, the destination of the car of beans. Agent Weber went to the "Y" and upon opening the car door found Mr. Aman thoroughly frightened and somewhat excited, anxiously waiting for his deliverer.

HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 13.—While bound for Albion Friday evening, A. R. Cole, agent for the Noble County Board of Children's Guardians, was painfully bruised about the hip and shoulder and may be suffering with internal injuries, the result of an automobile collision near Albion. He is now confined to his bed at his home on Oak street. Mr. Cole was riding in the Charles Westphal taxicab, driven by Ralph Zimmerman, when the car collided with an automobile driven by a Mr. Eshelman, of Wolcottville. There were several other occupants in the car, including some of the boys who were brought in the city court Friday on a charge of robbing the Sellers & Treesh store, but they escaped with a few slight bruises. Mr. Cole was thrown clear from the car.

WILL SOON MIGRATE.

Laud, Ind., Nov. 13.—A colony comprising Elisha Swan and wife, Dr. S. R. White and wife, Dale White and family, Eli Simmons and wife and two others in the Simmons family are preparing to spend the winter at Smyrna, Fla., as several of the members of the party have done for the last several winters. On next Wednesday Dale White will start on the trip to drive through in his touring car going by way of Indianapolis and will follow the Dixie highway. He will be accompanied by Mr. Swan. In about two or three weeks the remainder of the party will make the trip by train, and all will be together in a sort of colony for the winter expecting to remain in Florida until about the first of next April.

HIGHWAYS ARE SOLD.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 13.—Bids for the construction of the Cornelius roads, bordering on Thorncreek, Richland, Etna and Troy townships, have been received by the county commissioners and the contract for both awarded to Eles E. Lehner & Company. The Cornelius road, of which the estimated cost of construction was $26,800, was sold for $25,686, with Melvin Blain bidding also at $26,795.75. The Wise road, with its estimated cost of construction placed at $11,977.60, was sold for $11,647.80. Other bidders on this job were Melvin Blain, at $11,967.25, and Ed Scott at $11,976. The road bonds will be sold later.

MYSTERIOUS MESSAGE RECEIVED.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 13.—Marshal Henry Fritz Saturday afternoon received a message from Chicago, informing him that Benjamin F. Allen, of that city, had received a message from Bluffton informing him that his Ford automobile, license No. 22,371, Ill., was being held here. Mr. Allen was unable to secure the name of the party furnishing the information and Marshal Fritz was asked to investigate. No trace of any call to Mr. Allen from Bluffton could be found in the records at the telephone office and Marshal Fritz thinks that the call probably came from Bluffton, Ohio. The machine was stolen November 4.

ROBBED IN HARTFORD CITY.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 13.—John E. Swaim was the victim of a petty theft Friday evening at Hartford City, when someone went through his clothing while he was acting as referee at the Tipton-Hartford City basketball game and lifted a pocketbook containing $4 or $5. Mr. Swaim left his pocketbook in his trousers pocket in his dressing-room while he was on the playing floor. He discovered the loss when his pocketbook was returned to him, empty. It had been picked up on the sidewalk outside the school building and identified by some papers left in it. Mr. Swaim is a clerk in the Bluffton postoffice.

MARRIED IN HILLSDALE.

Portland, Ind., Nov. 13.—The marriage of Mrs. Flora Lyons, formerly of Pike township and widow of the late Thomas Lyons, to H. O. Davidson, of Pleasant Lake, Ind., occurred last week at Hillsdale, Mich. The bride left here on Monday, going to Michigan, presumably to visit with relatives, and had said nothing to local relatives of her intention to be married. The newly wedded couple are now visiting relatives at Mackinaw City and Grand Rapids, Mich. They expect to reside in Portland.

DITCH IS ORDERED.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 13.—The hearing on the Borum Run drain before the board of county commissioners has been concluded, when there was a finding for the petitioners and the drain was ordered established. P. L. Macklin was appointed superintendent of construction. The fight over the improvement has raged for several months, following the filing of numerous remonstrances to the petition. The future course to be pursued is of course not definitely known at this time, but an appeal to the circuit court is said to be probable.

FUNERAL OF MRS. METZLER.

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 13.—The funeral of Mrs. John Metzler was held Saturday at St. Peter's and Paul's Catholic church. The deceased was 57 years of age and leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter.—Mrs. William Boren entertained the telephone girls Saturday evening. She was an employe in the office of the local telephone company before her marriage.—Rollo Hollopeter is recovering after an illness of two weeks' duration.

ELECTION COST $1,425.

Montpelier, Ind., Nov. 13.—The Tuesday election in this county cost a total of approximately $1,425, according to an estimate given out in the office of Auditor McGeath Friday morning. All of the costs have been reported with the exception of that in No. 2 precinct in Harrison township of about $60. The cost of the canvassing board alone amounted to $128.65, while the costs of the trip to Indianapolis for the state ballots were approximately $12.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 13.—A double wedding took place in the office of 'Squire J. K. Rinehart at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Joseph L. Jamison was united in marriage to Miss Lillie Merkle Jackson and Hugh V. Cossart was married to Miss Alma Anna Jackson. The brides are sisters and daughters of Mrs. Joseph L. Jackson. The grooms are Liberty township farmers and like their brides they are well known and highly respected.

GIRL REGAINING REASON.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 13.—After her mind had remained a blank for six weeks during which time her life hung by a thread as the result of injuries received from being run down by an automobile, Ilene Littlefield, daughter of Mrs. Dora Littlefield, of Detroit, and well known to residents of the eastern part of Kosciusko, is recovering and has regained her lost memory.

DIES AT ELKHART.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 13.—William Rouch, for several years a resident of this county, died at the home of his son, E. E. Rouch, in Elkhart after an illness of several months' duration, following an operation which was performed upon him last May. He was 88 years old at the time of his death. He became seriously ill about a week ago.

WILL OPEN NEW THEATER.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 13.—The Widaman-McDonald theater will open next Wednesday. This should be a distinctive day not only to the show-going public in Warsaw, but to all the citizens. When completed it will be one of the finest and best equipped opera houses in northern Indiana.

CONVENTION AT AVILLA.

Avilla, Ind., Nov. 13.—Arrangements have been completed for the holding of the Noble county Sunday school convention on Nov. 17 in the Evangelical church in this city. John Chance, of this place, is president of the association. A splendid program has been arranged.

WILL SET DEFINITE DATE.

Van Wert, Ohio, Nov. 13.—Definite selection of the date for opening of the new Van Wert County hospital is being held up pending word as to whether Dr. Criel, head of the Western Reserve Medical School at Cleveland can be present on November 28, the date tentatively picked by the committee.

ILL ONLY THREE DAYS.

Hartford City, Ind., Nov. 13.—Ross Vernie Lennon, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lennon, living on the Robert Stewart farm, east of town, is dead at his home on West Franklin street after a three-day illness with appendicitis.

WILL CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Eli Walker, of Smithfield township, two of DeKalb county's well-known and highly respected residents, will celebrate their golden anniversary on Thanksgiving day.

BIG CELEBRATION WEDNESDAY.

Lagrange, Ind., Nov. 13.—Plans have been completed here for the celebration of the re-election of Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall. There will be a torchlight parade, automobile parade and festivities of various kinds.

MIZPAH CEREMONIAL TO BE HELD NOV. 24

Calendar Issued Gives the Order of Events for Members and Families.

November 24 is the date for the ceremonial session of the Mizpah temple, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. In a program which appears like a 1917 calendar, the order of events is announced. The place of the ceremonials is the Scottish Rite cathedral, where all the sessions will be held. The day of the home-coming sessions, to the anointed, is Moharrum, first month, twenty-eighth day, 1335. The program announced is a very interesting one.

Will Initiate Big Class.

Two hundred candidates will be given the Scottish Rite degrees of Masonry at the fall convocation of the Fort Wayne Lodge of Perfection to be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. This event has been planned as a tribute to William Geake, sr., who has served as thrice potent master for thirty years. A reception committee has been named to meet the hundreds of Masons who will visit here this week.

Odd Fellows Celebrate.

With only a few more details to work out, all preparations for the big event of Friday night by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows have been completed. A class of seventy-five will be initiated by the four Fort Wayne lodges. This celebration is state-wide and is being observed as an honor to Attorney Jesse MacBeth, grand master of Indiana.

State Officers to Speak.

State officers of the Modern Woodmen of America will speak at a meeting of the local lodge, No. 4761, which will be held Monday evening at the hall at 219 East Berry street. A smoker will precede the program. The officers who are to be present are Head Banker John D. Volz and State Deputy W. A. McGrath.

K. of P's. at Warsaw.

The district meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodges in Fort Wayne and vicinity will be held at Warsaw Tuesday afternoon and evening. Fifty applicants are to be given the rank of page at this gathering. A large representation from Fort Wayne will attend this gathering.

Moose Opens Alleys Soon.

The bowling alleys at the Moose home will be opened next Saturday and already keen interest in this sport has been aroused among the members. A league will be formed in the near future.

Maccabees Take in Fifty.

The Maccabees took in a class of fifty candidates at a meeting held Saturday evening in the Knights of Pythias hall, on West Washington street. The new members were from all the lodges in the district. A banquet followed the initiatory work.

Eagles Honor the Dead.

Members of the Fort Wayne aerie, No. 248, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and their friends paid tribute to eighteen deceased members of the order Sunday afternoon. The annual memorial services were held in the hall, on West Berry street, and were very impressive, the flower ceremonial being used. Rev. Arthur J. Folsom and Avery M. Groves were the speakers.

CONVOY NEWS.

Convoy, O., Nov. 13.—Mrs. George Black has returned from Sidney, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Belch, and family.

Mrs. E. V. Hover was hostess to the Laffalot club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. William Butler, of Van Wert, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Stuckey, and family Thursday.

Ed Moore and family have moved from their home north of town to their property on North Main street.

W. E. Brushwiller, who has been clerking for Hoelle & Son for several months, has resigned his position and with his family will move to their former home in Decatur.

Harry Snyder, who is attending Wittenberg college at Springfield, O., is visiting his parents, J. E. Snyder and wife.

John Bowen has gone to Maysville, Ky., where he will spend a few weeks visiting friends and hunting.

Mrs. C. Terrel, of Fort Wayne, spent Saturday with Convoy friends.

Will Imler returned to his home in Fort Wayne after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Imler, west of Convoy.

Thursday evening at the home of Fred Bauer, a surprise party was given in honor of Elsie's 14th birthday anniversary. Games were played and a delicious lunch was served to Misses Fern Campbell, Margery Rader, Esther Dowler, Garnet Kever, Alma Van Horn, Mary Pancake, Florence Maurer, Ruby Lutes, Ivalu Kreischbaum, Erma Miller, Hazel Miller, Hazel Stevenson, Suvilla Giessler, Elenore McClymonds and Flossie Ingmire.

Miss Bertha Giessler, of Wren, is spending the week with Mary Campbell, east of Convoy.

NATIONAL HOUSE DIVISION CLOSE

Democrats Constrained to Admit Republicans Will Control.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Democratic leaders in Washington have already privately conceded the control of the next house to the republicans. Although they are announcing to the publi cthat the result is yet in doubt, they are well satisfied within their own minds that the republicans will have a majority.

The 1,500 or so employes of the house whose jobs depend on democratic control are already casting about for other positions, and the republican congressmen are already at work pulling wires for prominent committee places.

Out of the 435 congressmen, the best figures now obtainable give the republicans 217 and the democrats 210. There are five independents who will be aligned with one side or the other and three districts are yet in doubt.

If the democrats gained alll three of these districts they would still have to get the votes of all the independent members in order to control. This, they admit, they cannot do.

The five independents are Schall, of Minnesota (prog.); Martin, of Louisiana (protectionist); Fuller, of Massachusetts (ind.); Randall, of California (prohi.); London, of New York (soc.). Of this number, Schall and Martin are almost certain to vote with the republicans. London and Fuller would probably vote with the democrats, while Randall, who will be a new member, is not known to be affiliated with either party.

Republican congressmen who are now in Washington admit that with their slender working majority in the next house they will be able to do little. They anticipate that the administration will be able to put through most of its projects, although they feel certain that they will be able to block any purely partisan measures.

They figure that they will be able to cause a lot of trouble when the democrats attempt to pass their revenue bill and they feel that they may be able to take out many of the present items of this bill and insert protective tariff items in their places. They expect to have support from a number of southern congressmen on certain tariff items.

The republicans also feel that they will be able to block an appropriation for the shipping board and may be able to put this board out of existence. They also think they may be able to block an attempt to start work on a government armor plate plant, although they admit that some of their members might rebel against this plan.

CAR RELIEF PLAN SHOWING RESULTS

Roads Will Hurry All Foreign Cars to Home Lines at Once.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner McChord has started checking up the first results of his preliminary orders, after a ten-day investigation of the railroad car market that is choking the industries and rail movements of the west.

Definite word has already reached Louisville that the railroads will observe the proclamation to hurry all foreign coal cars to their home lines, regardless of the technical power of the commission to enforce it. An authority close to the commission is responsible for the statement.

Steps have been taken to make a daily check on the situation, beginning Monday, partly from reports to be submitted by the railroads themselves and also from the government's agents that have been scattered throughout the field.

Shippers Well Pleased.

Shippers representing the grain, coal, perishable freights and various lines of manufacture that have been suffering from the congestion are pleased with the order and predict that the results will begin to show shortly. While there is but little disposition to quarrel with the railroad view that is being taken in some quarters, to the effect that there are actually not enough railroad cars to handle the country's business at the present high tide and that there is a shortage, the outstanding result of the hearing from the shippers' viewpoint has been to emphasize the breakdown of the car service rules and the inability of the railroads to reach an understanding without the aid of the commission.

For more than a year now 60 per cent of the cars have been going east and only 40 per cent returning, with the eastern lines holding the extra 20 per cent for their own uses instead of returning them, it is pointed out.

An intolerable situation, described as a "feast for the east and a famine for the west," has resulted. Under the premises, the commission and the shippers and several of the railroad witnesses have concluded that the trouble is more lack of circulation than technical shortage.

The remedy only applies to coal cars, but similar action will probably be forthcoming as regards refrgerator cars, the shortage seriously threatening the harvesting of the fruit crop in the northwest. With the coal cars redistributed the western railroads will be in a position to furnish the mines and the mines in turn to meet the demands of their contracts. Incidentally, the restoration of circulation is a solar plexus blow at the coal speculator, who has been represented as one of the principals behind the higher and higher coal prices.

Campbell Has Plan.

Herbert C. Campbell, attorney for the Chicago board of trade, where 15,000,000 bushels of grain are being held back by the boxcar shortage, is urging the commission to adopt the rather startling suggestion that boxcars, as an emergency measure, be considered as common property, regardless of initials, from now on.

TUMULTY FOR CABINET PLACE LATEST GOSSIP

President Wilson May Put Secretary Into His Official Family.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Joseph Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, is slated for postmaster general in the new Wilson cabinet, according to the gossip that reached Chicago yesterday.

Mr. Burleson, the present postmaster general, it was rumored, will retire to his home in Texas when the new cabinet is made up.

Senator Lewis, at the University club last night, admitted he had heard considerable talk along that line.

"Tumulty would make a great postmaster general," he said. "Should the president elevate him to this position he would have many precedents to follow. It will be remembered that Mr. Cleveland took his secretary, Mr. Lamont, and made him secretary of war. Mr. Roosevelt also put McKinley's secretary, Mr. Cortelyou, in the cabinet as secretary of the treasury.

"Should Mr. Burleson retire I have no doubt the president would be glad to place Mr. Tumulty in his cabinet. He would be both a good postmaster general and an invaluable aid to the president in the cabinet meetings."

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Matthew 7: 2-12.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Ditching the Old Guard

Once more from the maelstrom of post-election gossip that emanates from the big political centers comes the declaration that the defeat of Mr. Hughes spells doom for the old guard leaders of the republican party; that they are to be ruthlessly kicked out and summarily deposited on the political scrap heap to make way for progressives in the future direction of republican party affairs. But are they? Somehow, we doubt it.

Similar prophecies have been made before. Like programs have been formulated for party rehabilitation after stinging defeat, but they seldom, if ever, eventuate. In the early chagrin and disappointment that ensues after defeat there is always a frantic hunting for cause—a seeking of backs upon which to heap the burden of responsibility for disaster. The old guard is nearest at hand, and it always gets the blame. The I-told-you-so fellows who were never any too keen for the old guard anyway are prompt to point the accusing finger at the old generalissimos and declare that with another crowd in control of the management of party affairs, results would have been different. And it will be noted that the old guard at this juncture never strikes back. It offers no defense. It permits the other fellows to exhaust their store of invective, to theorize until they grow tired, to deduce until their voices fail, and to bombastically announce that the result means oblivion for the old leaders who have led the cause down to defeat. What the old guard themselves are saying at this juncture constitutes a silence so profound that it amounts to a thunderous reverberation of quietude.

And then what happens? Finally the party insurrectos grow tired of talking to themselves. Then comes the interim between political campaigns when everybody but the old guard forgets politics in other demands upon their attention. Finally there comes the first peep of preparation for a new campaign. And to whom does the party turn—to whom do the masses look for leadership? The answer is easy—and inevitable. It turns to the self-same old guard—and such insurrectos who may still be disposed to insurge presently discover that party machinery is still in the hands of the self-same crowd, and the self-same crowd continues to retain it because, with all its selfishness, its shortcoming and its reactionary tendency it still constitutes the bulk of the executive brains of party direction. Plenty of others may talk, but it is the old guard which does things. It may even announce its own regeneration—its conversion to the progressive view of things, but it never releases its hold, and it intends and the public knows that its progressive pronunciamento is to be subjected to the usual heavy discount to the political trade. Just now it may seem that Mr. Crane, and Mr. Smoot, and Mr. Penrose and others of their political kidney in republican ranks are headed for the ditch, but that is merely apparent, not real. You will discover four years hence that they are still the dominant force in the direction of republican affairs as they were in the campaign just closed. One licking—or half a dozen of them, for the matter of that—does not put the old guard out of the running.

The one thing to be kept steadily in mind in all serious consideration of a site for Fort Wayne's new municipal auditorium is that the location must be central and that it must be easily accessible. In no other way can it be made to serve in largest measure the people for whom it is to be constructed, and who must foot the bill for its creation. It is altogether probable, of course, that the desirable locations are going to be found pretty high in price, but it would be unspeakable folly for the saving of a few thousands of dollars to choose any location that is distant from the actual center of the city's activities, where the approach is bad or inconvenient, or where the very best possible transportation facilities are not at once available. An error of that sort could not be corrected. It would remain an error so long as the convention hall stands. Let's get started right on this important undertaking.

Maybe Chairman Willcox and Mr. Hughes figure that in delaying admission that President Wilson has been re-elected until the official count is in they can perform that reluctant duty more quietly and slip out the back door without attracting so much attention as just now. Yet somehow we cannot dismiss the conviction that the sooner they get it over with the better they will feel about it.

Reports of violation of election laws on Tuesday are now said to be flowing in to Special Assistant United States Attorney Frank Dailey, at Indianapolis—and those who know Frank Dailey need not be assured that if any guilty ones escape, it will not be because the former Bluffton man fails to put worth every effort to land them behind prison bars.

Screams at last appear to have a marketable value. At least the lady book-keeper of a bank at Covington, whose shrill outcry when she discovered a bank robber at work led to his capture has just been rewarded with a check for $100 as a slight testimonial of the efficacy of her vocal exertions at the psychological moment.

VACUUM STREET CLEANING.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

St. Louis comes forward with a claim to being the first city in the world to use vacuum street cleaners. Startling as the idea may at first be from the novelty of it, why not? The vacuum cleaner has displaced the ancient broom in big buildings and in many homes. If it has not been tried on streets before this it has been because it was not thought of. New York is now said to be awaiting the results of the St. Louis experiment.

Of course, there are drawbacks. The vacuum street cleaner can not be used in rainy weather, but as a dust remover it is pronounced a success by Director C. M. Talbert, the St. Louis experimenter. During an experimental run of sixty days there were but six nights when the weather conditions prevented the vacuum being operated. Among the advantages are claimed to be less cost, the removal of debris, which under the ordinary method is swept into the sewer inlets and catch basins, blocking sewers, and the practical solution of the dust problem. Sprinkling is no longer necessary, thus avoiding the likelihood of accidents through skidding, and sprinkling at best merely laying, not removing the dust.

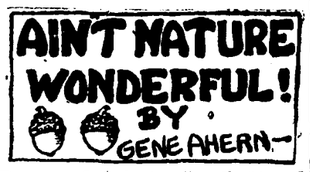
Fair Warning for Tom

(Columbia City Post.)

The next time Tom Marshall goes to Fort Wayne to make the closing speech of the campaign, he must cut out that guff about being a former resident of "Whitley township, Allen county." Whitley county democrats want it distinctly understood that it is not attached to Allen county in any respect whatever, and they are ashamed of the conduct of the Allen county democrats. Whitley county is a county by itself. It has a fine county seat, two thriving towns in Churubusco and South Whitley, some smaller towns and a whole lot of the best and most reliable democrats in the world, and right here is where some of the best men and women in the nation are reared. There are also a lot of good respectable republicans in this county, and if Tom Marshall persists in calling Whitley county "Whitley township of Allen county" he can go to thunder for all we care.



Because of their peculiar shape and scarcity, is perhaps the reason the inhabitants of Garo, Bengal, don't wear piano boxes in their ears.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Hay is selling at $8 a ton in market.

Judge Chapin will soon move his office to the Bass block, where he will be associated with W. P. Denny.

Attorney Wilmer Leonard returned from Cleveland yesterday, where he was engaged in legal business.

Next year is going to be a bad one for contractors if the words of a prominent builder are foundation for such prediction. Architects, however, say that the season of 1892 will be a busy one.

Charles Grannemann, who was struck by the Wabash fast line, is on the road to recovery. Although the improvement is slow it is encouraging as no symptoms of blood poison are apparent.

Michael Woulfe, a well known and highly respected citizen, died at 8:30 o'clock this morning at his residence, corner of Melita and Webster streets, of typhoid pneumonia. His sickness covered a period of only five days.

The inaugural reception of the Morton club last evening was a brilliant affair. The guests were received by President W. D. Page, assisted by the reception committee, Messrs. Frank Morse, Gustave Detzer and B. F. Harper. The master of ceremonies was Win S. Bash.

Four young ladies created considerable excitement in the neighborhood of Lafayette street last night by parading in man's attire. It was lots of fun, but the police threaten to take a hand in the performance, if repeated, when the fun will all be on the other side.

Professor Roeger was last evening surrounded by a large party of friends at his home, 104 East Lewis street, upon the occasion of his birthday. During the evening members of the Saengerbund and Maennerchor societies rendered several beautiful selections, after which Captain Hettler presented to the professor, on behalf of the societies, an elegant golden-headed cane, suitably engraved.

UNCLE SAM'S BRAIN

Uric Acid-Poisoning!

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles, or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called Anuric—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you can obtain Anuric at any drugstore and get relief from the pains and ills brought about by uric acid.

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists, or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

It is just as necessary to keep the kidneys acting properly as to keep the bowels active.

The very best possible way to take care of yourself is to take a glass of hot water before meals and an Anuric tablet. In this way it is readily dissolved with the food, picked up by the blood and finally reaches the kidneys, where it has a tonic effect in rebuilding those organs.

Step into the drugstore and ask for a 50-cent package of Anuric, or send Dr. Pierce 10c. for trial pckg. Anuric—many times more potent than lithia, eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you. —Advertisement.

JAPANESE LABOR LEADER IS HEARD

Oriental Pleads for International Fellowship of Toilers.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 13.—"The labor movement must be international. It must not know national, racial, color or religious prejudice. In the hands of the workers of the world lies the peace of the world. We must be staunch defenders of peace."

So declares Bunji Suzuki, president of the Laborers' Friendly Society of Japan, an organization similar to the American Federation of Labor in the United States.

Bunji Suzuki, Japanese Labor Leader.

He will attend the American labor convention in Baltimore this month as a fraternal delegate. When he returns to Japan he will be accompanied by Samuel Gompers, president of the A. F. of L., and other prominent labor men.

"All classes of my country will welcome the American labor leaders who will attend the convention of labor unionists in Tokyo next April," said Suzuki. "Capitalist and statesman, as well as worker, will herald this first step toward complete co-operation between the toilers of your country and of mine as a great achievement for all humanity."

Four years ago Suzuki was secretary of a Tokyo Unitarian association. His work brought him in contact with the employes of the big industrial establishments. They had heard of American labor unions; they were casting about for a way toward better conditions and better pay. Suzuki, graduate of the economics department of the Imperial university and a deep student of foreign labor movements, told them his theories.

He led Japan's first strike, by which Tokyo electrical workers won a 20 per cent wage increase. He founded the Friendly Society after that victory, and in four years won it a membership of 25,000. He says that it is now adding 3,000 a month to its rolls.

"In 1918," he said, "we will have 100,000 members."

Though organized on craft lines, the Japanese labor movement is yet too young to have given birth to unions of highly specialized workers, divided from allied crafts by fine distinctions. All branches of machine workers are in one union, as are miners, shoe workers and other craftsmen.

FLOWER SHOW

Will Be Staged at Anthony Hotel Next Thursday.

Florists of Fort Wayne and New Haven, who recently formed a florists' association, will hold their first annual flower show Thursday afternoon and night in the ballroom of the Hotel Anthony. The association was only recently formed and already it has started activities assuring the public it will be a live organization.

Each member of the association will offer individual displays at the show, according to present arrangements. Competition will thus be keener, it is predicted. There will be no admission to the show and no flowers sold.

BAD COLD? TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

They're fine! Liven your liver and bowels and clear your head.

No headache, sour stomach, bad cold or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets tonight and you will wake up with a clear head and your cold will be gone. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this Candy Cathartic and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.—Advertisement.

New York Sensation Most Striking Since Noted Becker Case.

New York, Nov. 13.—Michael A. Rofrano, an attorney and former deputy street cleaning commissioner of this city, was acquitted of the charge of complicity in the murder of Michael Gaimari, a political rival, by a jury late yesterday after it had deliberated twenty-two hours. Rofrano was accused of having ordered Gaimari's death as the result of a political feud.

The trial, estimated to have cost Rofrano and the state $100,000, was locally one of the most sensational held here since the Becker case. It involved city officials, political leaders and denizens of the underworld, and lasted nearly five weeks.

WAR CAUSES DOLL FAMINE AND PRICES MAY BE TOO HIGH FOR POOR KIDDIES THIS CHRISTMAS.

Left, the German Kaethe Kruse dolls that seem almost human and which cannot be secured by Santa Claus on account of the war. At right, the Uncle Sam doll being made by American concerns in an effort to supply the big Christmas demand.

(By Idah McGlone Gibson.)

New York, Nov. 13.—Santa Claus has been unable to combat successfully with the God of War and as a result the poor little rich girl and the poor little poor girl are victims this year as Christmas nears, of a doll famine accompanied by famine prices!

Many little "kiddies" will have to go without dolls, according to present indications, partly because there will not be enough to go around and partly because the shortage will boost prices out of reach of the poor!

Many toys of the American child and most of the dolls have been made in foreign countries. More came from Germany than any other country. Some came from France. War has stopped importation from Germany; French factories are making few shipments.

American factories are working overtime trying to supply the demand of the poor little rich girls who do not get expensive imported dolls and all the poor little poor girls.

No more beautiful doll has ever been made than the famous Kaethe Kruse, "chubby youngster"—hand-made, practically indestrutible, dressed in quaint clothes, retailing in America at prices ranging from $14 to $25.

Only the remarkably lucky little girl will receive a Kaethe Kruse baby this year and the same is true of the bisque head, jointed body, conventional doll of German make.

In this type of doll also Germany takes the lead. With hair that can be combed, mouth open, showing teeth and a movable tongue, "flirting" eyes, with eyelashes and almost human facial expression, these dolls are most appealing.

The mechanically clever doll is made in France. But because the French doll that walks and says "mamma" and "papa" must also have a life-like face, German heads are often used. And so again the child for whom Santa might plan an accomplished French doll will be disappointed.

"The great big doll" that, before the war, could be had for $1 and the small doll that would go to sleep, that could be had for 50 cents, will be as scarce as leaves on the trees this Christmas. With the scarcity goes a 50 per cent. increase in price.

American manufacturers have met the problem of supplying the demand for dolls to some extent.

But with raw materials at almost prohibitive prices, the American manufacturer is having his troubles.

HUGHES WILL SHUN ALL VOTE CONTESTS

New York, Nov. 13.—In view of the fact that President Wilson obtained a substantial majority of the popular vote, republican managers today found little consolation in the vague hope that the official count in California this week might place a majority of the votes in the electoral college in the Hughes column.

Officially National Chairman Willcox refused to concede the re-election of the president, but there was a pretty definite feeling abroad that none of the republicans expected any change favorable to their cause.

Mr. Willcox, after a conference with Mr. Hughes this afternoon, said that he wanted it understood that the republicans were not crying over the result. He looked greatly rested and Mr. Hughes also apparently was in good spirits.

See Sting Removed.

It has been said that the fact that Mr. Wilson obtained the popular vote as well as the electoral vote had served to remove much of the sting from the eleventh-hour defeat. At first it was supposed that Mr. Hughes was the popular choice, and defeat under such a situation was a bitter pill to swallow.

The chances are that the republican managers and Mr. Hughes may be willing to concede the re-election of President Wilson by the end of the week. The official count in California begins Monday and may end by Thursday or Friday.

As to the chances of contests in California, Mr. Willcox said today that he could make no statement at this time of a definite nature. Messages had been sent to him, he said, alleging that there had been fraud, but no definite proof. When the official count was received, he said, the situation would be thoroughly canvassed.

Official Count Final.

His words, however, gave the impression that only absolute evidence of corruption would lead to contests and that the present indications were that the official count would be received as final. This attitude was reflected by others, who had little heart for contests of a more or less technical nature when President Wilson was apparently the choice of the voters of the country by perhaps half a million votes.

Mr. Hughes went for an automobile ride this morning and remained at his suite at the Hotel Astor for the remainder of the day. He appeared in better health and spirits than during the last two days. He made no statement of any kind concerning the situation or his personal plans.

All Akron (O.) factories give annual picnics for employes.

Here's Speedy Relief from Kidney Troubles

"Foley Kidney Pills have done me a heap of good." A. T. Bartlett, Brockton, Mass.

Some days it seems as if you can no longer bear the pain and misery you suffer from kidney and bladder trouble. The ache across your back grows worse with every move you make, and with every step you take. It not only robs you of all your strength and energy, but it affects the other important organs of the body as well. Nervousness, headache, disordered stomach, liver trouble, bad eyesight, are only some of the conditions that follow kidney trouble.

Foley Kidney Pills help the sick weak kidneys to regain their normal healthy state and activity. When they are again able to do their work effectively, your system is no longer choked and blocked with poisonous waste matter. Your symptoms clear up, your weariness, pain, misery and weakness go away. Foley Kidney Pills can do you also "a heap of good."

LEAGUE OF NEUTRALS TRADE PROTECTION

Brazil Has Evolved Plan to Resist Restriction in Commercial War.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Full details of the recent proposal to the Brazilian parliament by the Brazilian Society of International Law for the formation of a league of neutrals to resist trade restrictions and other encroachments by belligerents were made public here yesterday through the official gazette of the Brazilian parliament.

The proposed league would consist of all present neutrals and would spring automatically into effect whenever another war broke out.

The society, in an exhaustive report, reviews the constant encroachments by belligerents on neutral trade and urges the government to take immediate steps to secure the co-operation of all neutrals for the declaration of a uniform series of neutral rights and for their enforcement of the same.

The rights suggested are the immunity of enemy goods under a neutral flag, complete liberty of trade between neutral nations regardless of ultimate destination, freedom from any extra-territorial actions such as blacklisting, and the forbidding of any alien to inform a foreign government of matters which might lead to belligerent restrictions.

Violations of these rights would be met under the plan first by the withdrawal by the neutral league of the privilege of friendly treatment for the offending nation, including the trade rights.

In case a consular or diplomatic official should be concerned, his credentials would be handed him at once. If this proved unavailing, hostilities might follow.

The report, while directed at both belligerents, is more concerned with British trade violations. The efforts of the United States are recognized, but are declared ineffective. The allied blockade is particulary criticised.

EMPTY HOUSES IN BERLIN.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—For every thousand houses, with or without attached stores, in Berlin, no less than sixty-six stand empty as a result of the war, according to statistics compiled by the statistical bureau of Greater Berlin.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

The great majority of the empty houses are flats with one and two rooms in addition to kitchen and bath. The majority lie in the north, east and south sections of Berlin, where the poorer portion of the population lives.

The total number of empty buildings now has reached 39,863, in 1916, as against 27,809 in December, 1913.

WOULD HELP DUTCH GUIANA.

The Hague, Netherlands, Nov. 13.—It is announced that a number of Holland's colonial merchant princes have formed a syndicate to inquire into the question of what fresh plantation enterprises can be founded in Dutch Guiana, with a view to helping raise it from its present weak condition, and applying to this struggling South American colony the expert knowledge, energy and capital which have attained such good results in the Dutch East Indies.

Her Son Subject to Croup.

"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

FALLS UNDER HORSE'S HOOFS.

Constant Gaffer, 15, son of Mike Gaffer, 1305 Maud street, sustained a broken right thigh, Saturday, when he followed a bouncing football under the hoofs of a galloping horse. Constant was playing with several boys on a vacant lot on Holton avenue when the ball went out of bounds. Robert Gerding, 1242 Wall street, was driving the approaching horse. The boy ran up directly in front of the speeding animal. Constant was rendered unconscious. Dr. E. M. VanBuskirk was summoned. The boy was removed to his home, where his injury will keep him in doors for several weeks.

U. S. JACKIE TOUCHES LAMP OF ALADIN AND COMES UP THROUGH COAL.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 13.—From coal passer on a United States warship to owner of a Chinese coal mine, husband of a rich Chinese and partner of twelve Chinese women is the history of John T. Allen, lately arrived from the orient.

When Allen stepped from the Maru liner he had a letter of credit for $100,000 in his pocket as president of one of the most unique companies in the world.

Twenty-four years ago Allen reached New York from Florida. He was poor. He took passage on a bark for Australia. After a varied sailing career this man who has found a fairyland in China enlisted as a coal passer in the United States navy in 1903.

For thirteen years he maintained a good record and rose to the rank of a petty officer. He saved some money each month and always asked to be kept on the Asiatic station. At Shanghai he met his "destiny" in the daughter of a rich Chinese family. After a two years' courtship they were married. He was with the United States ship Galveston as a petty officer at the time.

Allen's fine record secured for him a honeymoon. Seven miles back of Nanking, the newlyweds visited property owned by the bride. There it appears that Allen one day kicked up a piece of soft coal. Having shoveled it for years on the cruisers he recognized it.

Before the honeymoon was ended gangs of coolies were working the coal deposits. Allen then bought himself out of the navy and left with best wishes of his superiors.

Preliminary work indicates that a thirty years' supply of coal is assured. With his wife and eleven other Chinese women Allen established the Nanking Railway company. He pays his coolies from 7 to 10 cents "Mex money" a day. He has 110 working.

"Our mine has proved profitable ever since we began operations," says Allen. "So far all work is done by hand, but the time has arrived when we need modern machinery. I do not know how much I shall put into equipment, but have brought $100,000. We have as much money as we require. I am the only man in the company and can find no occasion to disagree with the [illegible] methods of my women partners."

After two years they were married.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"Broadway After Dark" Comes to Majestic on Thursday.

"Broadway After Dark" plays an engagement Thursday matinee and night at the Majestic, on which occasion it will be presented with an elaborate production and by a carefully selected company. The theme has to do with the unequal struggle of the sexes, and the argument is advanced that the same moral code should prevail for the man as for the woman. The scenic production is one especially prepared for this play, and the sets are of a decidedly attractive character. The scenes are all interiors, the first act shows a modern apartment in a hotel, the second a bungalow in the subrbs of New York, the third the Fox Trot club in New York city and the fourth the reception room in a fashionable family hotel. The story is intensely dramatic and contains an excellent vein of comedy.

AT THE PALACE

A GINGERY BILL.

Bison City Four, Robbie Gordone and Others at New Palace.

Featured by the Bison City Four, Robbie Gordone, the Martha Washington Girls and Pipifax and Panlo, the New Palace bill for the first portion of the week is an unusual one. It is a nifty, snappy program with variety sufficient to insure that every type of vaudeville goer will find something to his liking in it. The Bison City Four are a quartet of harmonious voices with a good grist of comedy antics interspersed. Robbie Gordone, the statuesque beauty in her reproductions of the famous classics in ivory and oil, is a startling act that appeals because of its sheer artistry and because of the extreme beauty of the poseur. A charming arrangement of song hits are being sung by the Martha Washington Girls, a quintet of five lassies with pleasing voices and an attractively staged act. Pipifax and Panlo's tumbling is a riot. These two gracefully clumsy fellows take some terrific falls only to bound up smiling again; the Ramber Sisters and Pinaud in dainty dances and songs and Lewis and Feiber, the smart comedians, complete this bill which will run the first four days of the week, closing Wednesday evening.

YOU don't have to be a great musician with an expert ear to appreciate the musical superiority of Pathe Discs and the remarkable

Pathé Pathephone

Because—the difference in its music is so pronounced that anyone who compares it with that of other "talking machines" will be positively CONVINCED that ONLY the Pathephone CAN and DOES maintain the realistic effect of the ORIGINAL music.

The Pathe Disc Repertoire is the largest in the world, furnishing Americans not only with marvelous Pathe records, from the classics to the latest popular "hits," by their own well known artists, but also giving them, for the first time, the opportunity to hear Europe's famous players and singers, who, because of contract reasons, can never be heard in person in the United States.

NO NEEDLES TO CHANGE,

but, instead, a smooth, polished sapphire ball, which transmits the tones with a richness and volume absolutely true to the artist's original rendition.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Adele Frankel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis rFankel, of Chicago, and a niece of Dr. Maurice Rosenthal and Mrs. Joseph Lohman, of this city, and of Mrs. Arnold, of Detroit, to Mr. Harold Davidson Wile, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Wile, of Chicago, was made public on Sunday in Chicago and Fort Wayne papers. This engagement is of particular interest in this city because Miss Frankel lived here until within a few years and her visits have been of such frequency as to keep her in touch with the movements of the social affairs in the west end where she was best known. Miss Frankel has unusual charm personally and intellect of high order which has been a factor in her work in the University of Chicago recently completed and following her graduation from a Chicago high school Mr. Wile is an electrical engineer with the University of Wisconsin, his alma mater, an institution ranking at the top in educational circles. A reception will be given in honor of their daughter by Mr. and Mrs. Frankel on Sunday, Nov. 19. Fort Wayne relatives expect to attend the reception.

Miss Elizabeth Porter invited about thirty young women to her home this afternoon to meet Miss Virginia Olds over their sewing. Miss Porter employed the bluebird emblem to signify the happiness which Miss Olds' numerous friends are wishing for her bright future and everyone's pleasure was centered in visiting and in the significance of the gathering. Miss Parsis Bond's luncheon of very love appointment on Saturday was another of recent parties for Miss Olds.

Mrs. Robert Lowry, Miss Anna Lowry and Mrs. H. B. Sale had as their guest over Sunday Prof. Melvin A. Brannon, president of Idaho university. Prof. Brannon was on his way to Washington, D. C. He is a son-in-law to Mrs. Lowry.

The members of the T. T. P. club gave Mrs. Charles Rabus, of Hoagland avenue, a surprise supper party on Sunday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. A merry time was enjoyed. The regular meeting of the same clb will be held on a week from Tuesday, with Mrs. M. G. Beaver.

Misses Madge and Helen Magee and Mary Evans have returned from Dixon, Ill., where they were guests of a former Fort Wayne young lady, Miss Olga Rice. Miss Rice had a house party of Fort Wayne firends, of whom Mrs. W. W. Schofield, now of Chicago, was one, and Miss Margaret Fisher, of this city, who was called home before the party was over, was another.

Miss Helen Kelly, of Leith street, celebrated her birthday anniversary on Saturday afternoon with a number of her schoolmates to help along in the good time. There were twenty in the company and Mrs. Kelly served them a good supper with pretty decorations in yellow and white and a big birthday cake that was divided between them. The guests were Margaret Phillips, Margaret Greany, Eileen Klingenberger, Frances Behan, Constance Logan, Frances Effinger, Catherine Miller, Georgiana Getz, Julia Didion, Marcella Kinny, Elizabeth Shives, Beatrice Ernest, Eleanor Druhot, Bernadette Hausbach, Janet Trainer, Evelyn Cox, Catherine Gorman, Florence Federspeil and Helen Carroll.

Miss Mildred Schiefer, of East Taber street, entertained a doze nof her schoolmates on Saturday afternoon in celebration of her ninth anniversary. A number of merry games were enjoyed and the prize was won by Jeannette Schlink. A luncheon was served in the diningroom and the birthday cake was decorated with nine candles and occupied the center of the table until time for its eating, when much of it disappeared quickly. The colors of the decorations were red and white. Little red baskets of candy were favors. The children at this happy time were Dorothy Banet, Catherine Walsh, Rosella Hausbach, Mary Catherine McDonald, Jeannette Schlink, Virginia and Josephine McLaughlin, Marcella Conners, Helen Cull, Lucille Miller and Genevieve Federspiel.

Miss Teresa Quinn was hostess for a meeting of the R. O. O. N. club at her home, 615 Green street, recently and the club spent a pleasant time playing games, dancing to gay music and in enjoying Miss Quinn's hospitality generally. Prize winners were Gladys Davis and Maude Wimer. Later the company was invited to the dining-room that had been decorated in red, white and blue. Yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the table. An elaborate luncheon was served the guests, who were Misses Carrie Knyoth, Goldie Bissel, Anna Hengstler, Mary Oswald, Laura Katherine Odding, Clara Kramer, Emma Vogel, Teresa and Katherine Koorsen, Helen Heiny, Maude Wimer, Gladys Davis, Vivian Oberwitte, Russel Wimer and Miss Dora Campbell, from Ohio. The hostess surprised the club by having their picture taken during the evening.

Miss Elva Shook, of Convoy, has arrived for a week's visit with Miss Agnes Junk, of 2723 Lillie street.

Praise for Mrs. de Ventura.

Mrs. Anna M. F. de Ventura, of West Palm Beach, Fla., who has friends in this city always interested in her success, is now teaching Spanish, a language which she writes is to be "the" language of the future because of South American opportunities. Mrs. de Ventura is a soprano singer quite popular in the city in which she lives and its vicinity and recent complimentary notices in the Palm Beach Post of Nov. 5 are given here:

"Special music of a high order was provided by Mrs. Anna de Ventura, of West Palm Beach, and by Stuart A. Noble and the Aeolian quartet, of Stuart.—Stuart Times."

"One of the most popular features of the entire convention was the singing of Mrs. Anna M. F. de Ventura, of West Palm Beach, who sang solos from time to time. She is a lady of extensive travel in many lands and of rare culture, with a power and pathos of voice that is far out of the ordinary, carrying its gospel message to every heart with persuasive sweetness and irresistible force.—Stuart Messenger."

WOMAN'S CLUB LEAGUE EVENT.

Beautiful Program on Saturday Enjoyed by Large Audience.

Mrs. Clark Fairbank, president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, received a flattering notice of her re-election to that office from the Fort Wayne Woman's Club league, when the regular monthly meeting of the latter organization was held on Saturday afternoon in the Anthony hotel. There was a large attendance of members and their friends and the usual and very entertaining musical program given, was thoroughly enjoyed. The program was in charge of the Art and Music department of the league. The president of the league, Mrs. A. E. Fauve received with Mrs. Fairbank, and Mrs. I. N. Taylor, also a prominent worker in the state federation, presented Mrs. Fairbank with a large basket filled with chrysanthemum blossoms as a gift from the league. Another gift to Mrs. Fairbank was a personal one also of flowers, from Mrs. M. B. Fisher. The musical program was given by Miss Emel Verweire, Miss Corinne Straus, Miss Irene Apfelbaum, Earl Thompson, Wilbur Pickett and Mr. Gregg. The business part of the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Fauve and Mrs. Walter Kent, secretary, who read minutes of an executive board meeting, stating among other things that Mrs. W. E. Griffiths was appointed parliamentarian for the league; that the league is to support the bill for federal inspection of dairies, per request by the Daily Food Alliance, and that the Indiana Federation is to be invited to meet in Fort Wayne in October, 1917. A comprehensive report of the recent annual meeting of the state organization was read by Dr. Carrie Banning. An exhibition of recent paintings by Homer G. Davisson in charge of the Art members of the league received high praise and much individual comment.

Parallel Cases of Rauch and Todd

(Bluffton News.)

The election this week of Levi Todd as prosecuting attorney of Allen county, in a county ordinarily strongly democratic, calls attention to the similarity between his case and that of his former law partner, George W. Rauch, of Marion, also to the fact that he is now about to enter upon a very lucrative office just as Mr. Rauch is about to give up his seat in congress, following his defeat Tuesday by only a few hundred votes.

When Rauch was nominated for congress in the Eleventh district, the same year that J. A. M. Adair was elected for congress in this district, it was on a forlorn hope, with the prospect of a democratic victory so remote that there were no active candidates for the nomination. He was elected and has won each successive campaign up to the present. When he accepted the first nomination he was partially induced to accept through the urgings of his law partner, Mr. Todd. Now the latter, in the election last Tuesday, after having accepted a nomination that seemed almost hopeless of bringing him an office, entered with a substantial plurality, and has a six-year office that is good for several thousand dollars annually.

Chief Clerk H. A. Philley, of Road Foreman of Engines J. H. Hanna's office, received a card this morning from Engineer George Nulf, who is at Flaffstaff, Arizona, on account of his health. Mr. Nulf writes that he is doing well and will soon be as well as ever.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

As the first of the Jefferson's splendid fall festival attractions is presented the magnificent production of "Romeo and Juliet." Critics and press throughout the universe unanimously acclaim this production as the topmost pinnacle in photo classics by far surpassing the romance in grandeur as elaborated in book form, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne being featured. The Metro Producing company expended a sum exceeding $200,000, engaged a superb cast consisting of the strongest stellar talent obtainable and spent over three months in photographing this colossal production. Not even in the stage settings, as lavish as they were employed by such wizards of stagecraft as Sir Henry Irving and Richard Mansfield, was such glittering magnificence dreamed of, much less attempted. Full advantage has been taken of the fact that Romeo and Juliet belonged to noble and wealthy families. The appointments of the two households are excellent, the furnishings gorgeous beyond any in the history of the stage. Fidelity to the greatest dramatic poet of the stage has been carried out to the last degree. Every member of the cast was obliged to learn the words of the play and repeat them, with the proper action, before the camera. If a word was forgotten the camera was stopped and the scene done over again, bringing the soul of Shakespeare to the heart of the spectator.

It must be remembered that this attraction is a special de luxe Metro release booked at several times the rental of the average release. There are ight reels, 2,000 scenes and over 600 people in the cast. The genius of the stars, Mr. Bushman and Miss Bayne, has never been so well exemplified as in the roles of the immortal lovers. Those who can conveniently do so are advised to attend the matinee shows and avoid the night crush which will be in evidence. Performances begin at 1, 2, 5, 7 and 9 o'clock. As this is the fall festival week the greatest amusement value ever offered will be available. E. H. Sothern, famous American star, assisted by the English beauty, Peggy Hyland, will appear at the Jefferson theater Thursday and Friday.

Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—Police today were holding Luther Kincade, 31, colored, for the alleged murder of his white wife, Emma Kincade, who was found beaten to death in their home yesterday. George Hardin, a brother of the dead woman, is said to be president of a bank at Delray, Fla.

Two of My Seven (7) Farms in Allen County for Sale
(BY HENRY M. WILLIAMS.)
814 Shoaff Building

The European war (nine nations fighting each other) is making high prices for United States farm products, wheat $1.70 a bushel; corn, $1.00 per bushel.

Long before the war started farmers in Illinois were selling out their farm lands at $250 an acre and coming to northeastern Indiana and northwestern Ohio, from New Haven, Allen county, Ind., east into Paulding county, Ohio, and paying $150 an acre for those lands which now they hold at $250 per acre.

MY SUMMIT FARMS

One mile west of station No. 23 adjoining Huntertown, Allen county, Indiana, 9 miles north of Fort Wayne, on the "Interurban," 300 acres of the richest soil, with good improvements, good house, good barn and other buildings. I will now sell at $100 per acre, small cash payment down, long time, 6 per cent interest on the unpaid balance, payable on or before due.

This land extends south one mile to the road running west from station No. 22, formerly called "Evergreen station," adjoining there the new "Allen County Industrial Farm" of 500 acres, on which the county is now expending large sums of money for improvements.

MY CLOVER LEAF FARM

187 acres adjoining on the north my "Lake Everett Thousand Acre Park," (the handsomest park in the state). I am now offering also at $100.00 per acre, on same terms and conditions.

Apply to me, or to any real estate agent in Fort Wayne or elsewhere; commission five (5) per cent.

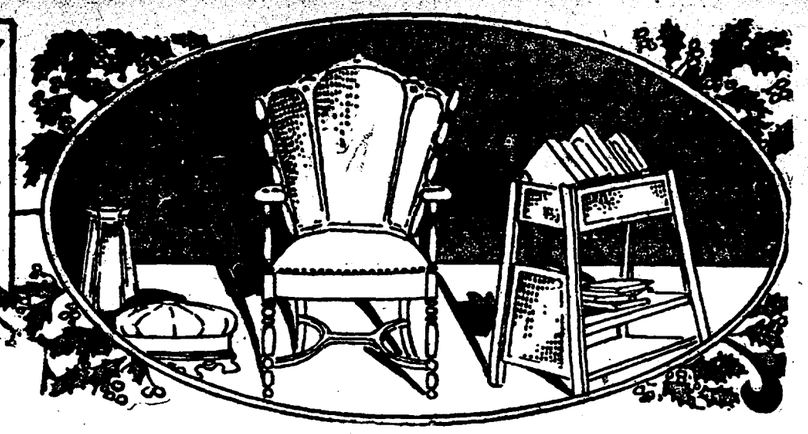
FURNITURE FOR GIFTS



Don't put off until the week before Christmas the shopping that can be done today, might be a good axiom for the great American buying public to observe this year. In fact, difficulties will be met in shopping this Christmas that have never been encountered before. Merchants who have not seen the handwriting on the wall will be caught with short stocks which cannot be replenished, due to an enormous and concerted demand by other short-sighted late comers. Higher prices will prevail, and consequently the consumer will have to "pay the piper." This store has anticipated these conditions and as a result has stocked heavily with the proper merchandise long before the war prices went into effect. This means that the price you will pay here will be lower; the quality of goods higher.

The Articles Listed Below

We list below a variety of articles sold here which will make splendid Christmas presents. Why not come in today and make a selection. We will lay aside any article you may choose and you can pay a little bit down on it and pay the balance Christmas.

Early Christmas Shopping

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the house
Excitement was rampant, while Pa and his Spouse
Were arranging the trees, in advance of the call
Of jolly old Santa, who soon was to fall.
Down the chimney, and into our radiant group,
Like the bird in the story which fell in the soup.

Bought in a hurry—without proper thought.
'Tis a very long story and can't be told here,
How chagrin took hold where there should have been cheer.

But let us take heed and do better this time,
And make Santa cheerful, so this is my rhyme:
Shop Early...Shop Wisely... Shop Now...Don't Delay.
The Surest...The Safest...The Sensible Way.

—J. Sigmund.

The very liberal concessions of our Credit System ought to interest early Christmas buyers. We suggest this plan for those who would like to buy some gifts now, but will not have the necessary money to pay for them until the Christmas savings accounts are issued. Come in, select any article in the store that you may fancy, and upon receipt of a few dollars we will hold it until Christmas. Then you can either take this article or exchange it for something else.

Suggestions for Christmas

This page of suggestive presents gives you a good idea of the variety of articles sold here which would make splendid Christmas gifts. How about a big comfortable Leather Rocker for dad? Or a Sewing Machine for mother, or a dining room or Library Table? Give that brother of yours a Bookcase. For the youngster there are a marvelous array of things which will make him a very much over-joyed person Christmas morning. Most of the things that you purchase here as gifts are intensely useful—the person who receives them appreciates that.

Massive Imitation Leather Rocker 10.85

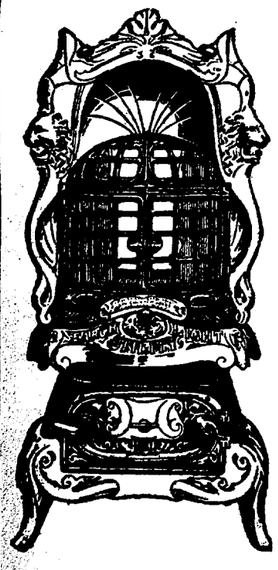
The Searchlight---the Last Word in Stove Efficiency

The SEARCHLIGHT marks the highest development of the Base Burner Stove by an inventor whose genius is acknowledged all over the world. Mr. Howard has incorporated in this stove features and various perfections which place it head and shoulders above the average Base Burner, which, in many instances, is just a stove patterned after the SEARCHLIGHT but boasting none of the wonderful SEARCHLIGHT devices, which are patented and therefore cannot be used without infringing upon the Howard patents.



The Searchlight Will Heat 8 Rooms

The SEARCHLIGHT will heat any eight rooms in an ordinary house far better than a furnace or hot water boiler. Just set the combustion damper of the SEARCHLIGHT when you go to bed, and whether the weather is zero or even twenty below you will find no variation in the temperature of the house when you arise in the morning. In zero weather you fill the magazine of the SEARCHLIGHT once in twenty-four hours—in fair weather once in three or four days.

The Bitter Test of Comparison

The SEARCHLIGHT will heat three times the space that can be heated by any of these so-called base burners and do it with the same amount of fuel. The Carbon Monoxide is utilized the same as fuel by the J. B. HOWARD COMBUSTION DEVICE, which is built into the SEARCHLIGHT.

The Howard Method of Combustion

The J. B. HOWARD COMBUSTION is the secret of device installed in the base of the stove which burns every particle of Carbon Monoxide (commonly known as poison gas) and which is wasted in all the so-called base burners and in fact has never before been utilized since anthracite coal was first burned. It is without a doubt the greatest heating device ever invented and you will find it only on the SEARCHLIGHT.

A Searchlight On Terms

Remember, you can buy one of these marvelous SEARCHLIGHT BASE BURNERS on easy terms. We urge that you come in tomorrow and have us explain our Credit System to you.

Colonial Oak Heater $4.85

Just the Thing for These Chilly Evenings

We have about a car load of these heaters on hand, and in order to clear our stove department of them in a hurry we are going to mark them down to this ridiculously low price. They are really worth about twice as much.

The Colonial Oak is a good heater; a fuel saver and has an unusually large heating capacity. Just the thing to take the chill off the room these brisk evenings. Better place your order for one early as they are not likely to last long at this price.

The Florence: Nemesis of Jack Frost

With wintry days coming on at a rapid pace, the thoughts naturally turn to warmth and comfort in the home. No need to worry about your heating troubles further, however, if you own a FLORENCE HOT BLAST HEATER. The Florence ends stove troubles forever and besides insuring you a warm "comfy" house during wintry weather it cuts a generous slice off your coal bills.

The Florence Idea Eliminates Puffing

The FLORENCE eliminates the "puffing" nuisance. If you have ever used Hot Blast Heaters of certain makes you will know that it was no uncommon experience to come home and find that the door of the stove has been "puffed open" and dirty black soot blown all over the house.

Holds Fire Perfectly Over Night

The FLORENCE will positively hold fire over night. Just fill the firepot of the stove when you go to bed and in the morning you will discover the same even temperature that existed when you retired.

The Florence Means More Heat and Less Fuel

You can heat a five or six-room house all winter long for $10.00 with the FLORENCE and use a very cheap grade of coal. And furthermore, no matter how cheap the grade of fuel used, the FLORENCE keeps clean. This is because it can burn hard or soft coal siftings, dust, slack, coke, sawdust or rubbish.

A Florence on Easy Terms

Kindly keep in mind that you can buy the FLORENCE (or any other stove sold here) on the easy payment plan. Our liberal credit concessions makes it possible for you to have your stove installed right away if you want to.

CHIROPRACTORS ARE ASKING STATE BOARD

J. O. Grove has returned from Indianapolis, where he attended the Indiana Chiropractors' convention. This was the greatest convention ever held in the state, with about one hundred and forty chiropractors in good standing, and members of the association and many others present.

A state chiropractic board for the registration and examination of chiropractors was favored by the Indiana Chiropractors' association as favoring a bill creating such a board, which would be self-sustaining through fees paid by chiropractors. It is held by the chiropractors that they have no bill regulating their sicence and they intend to make a fight to have their profession recognized as distinct from the medical profession, as they do not practice medicine or osteopathy.

Officers were elected as follows: L. E. Fuller, of Indianapolis, president; J. H. Denlinger, of Elkhart, vice president; E. F. Cunningham, of Crawfordsville, secretary, and W. O. Beaver, of Indianapolis, treasurer. J. O. Grove, of Fort Wayne, and Frank J. Wright, of Indianapolis, directors.

Ex-Governor Morris, of Iowa, gave a general talk on legislation and Lee Edwards, of Omaha, Neb., lectured in the afternoon on "Extraordinary Cases of Chiropractic." W. C. Schulze, of Chicago, said that "most of the medical profession to this day do not understand the chiropractic principle of spinal subluxation. They do not realize that one of the vulnerable points in the human body lies in the movable certebrae of the spinal column."

"Don't compromise with the tstate board of medical registration and examination," was the gist of the talk by W. Bush, of Columbus, Ohio, and E. V. Fitzpatrick, counsel for the association, delivered several good talks.

The meeting was closed by a clinic by Dr. B. J. Palmer, president of the Palmer School of Chiropractors.

Other members of this association present from this city were Fred Wolf, Anna Thies and C. Goebel.

After the meeting closed there was a large banquet served in the Riley room.

ASKS DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Miss Zulah Thumma, of Ft. Wayne, Seeks $10,000 from Garrett Man.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 13.—Suit for $10,000 damages for alleged breach of promise to marry her was filed in the DeKalb circuit court here today by Miss Zulah Thumma, daughter of Emanuel B. Thumma, deputy revenue collector, Fort Wayne, and former mayor of Garrett, against Frank Delhausen, general foreman in the B. & O. shops at Garrett. The Thummas live at 2926 South Wayne avenue in Fort Wayne.

Miss Thumma and Delhausen have gone together for the past eight or ten years. About a week ago Delhausen went to Virginia on a vacation. While there he renewed a friendship with Miss Virginia Redmond and with her went to Washington, D. C., where they were married. Miss Redmond is a sister of Bernard Redmond, of Garrett.

The complaint in the case alleges that up to the day before Delhausen left for his vacation he was very attentive to Miss Thumma. She alleges that they were to have been married in the near future and that she had completed all arrangements for the wedding. Miss Thumma is an accomplished music teacher, with pupils in Garrett, Kendallville and Fort Wayne.

Says Wife Left Him.

Evans L. Watson has filed suit in the superior court for a divorce from Eliza V. Watson. They were married Jan. 2, 1892, and separated in 1906. Abandonment is charged. F. B. Shoaff is attorney for the plaintiff.

Divorce is Granted.

INDIANA COUNTIES SLOW.

More Than Score Have Failed to Forward Official Returns.

Indianapolis, Ind., Ind., Nov. 13.—Between twenty and thirty counties had not sent in their official return on the presidential elections and other candidates to the office of the secretary of state, it was said today. A large force of clerks is at work tabulating the vote in the counties which have reported. No commissions have been issued to any successful candidates, as yet, it is said, and probably none will be until the official tabulation is completed.

MRS. GEORGE MILLER DIES.

Mrs. George Miller, formerly Miss Clara Jamey, 908 West Main street, died at 10 o'clock Sunday evening at her home in Kenosha, Wis., following an illness of three years due to complication of diseases. The remains will be shipped to this city for burial. Besides the husband she is survived by a son, Herbert, and the following sisters: Mrs. Herbert Griffin, of Cleveland; Mrs. Floyd Mosher, Mrs. Theodore Perreguey, and the mother, Mrs. Mary Jamey.

JURORS ARE DRAWN FOR NOVEMBER TERM

Commisioners Make Drawing in the Office of County Clerk Monday.

T. P. Otto and Oliver Ripp, jury commissioners, Monday drew the grand and petit jurors to serve for the November term of circuit court which convenes Monday, November 20.

The members of the grand jury are Joseph Pepe and Isidore Badiac, Washington; Edward Johnson, Monroe; Peter Henkenius, city; P. S. Amstutz, Cedar Creek; Percy Rinehold, Perry.

Members of the petit jury are Charles Feigel, Adams; John Lang, city; Robert Denger, Jefferson; Jacob Nabb, Madison; Charles Hassard, Washington; Melvin Frye, Adams; C. P. Roy, Perry; A. C. Baker, city; William Erwin, Monroe; Jacob Ladd, Jackson; Jules Truhin, Lake; Frank Guiff, Perry; Fred Hisner, Jefferson; Henry Braun, city; Edward Kinsey, Springfield; August Laurer, Lake; Ben Schlatter, city; Frank Girardot, Adams; Will Thiele, Pleasant; O. J. Frayer, Monroe; Daniel Sowers, Scipio; Jacob Haueisen, Eel River; Frank Hacber, Pleasant, and A. H. Amstutz, Springfield.

Wladyslaw Rysana has filed suit against the Pennsylvania railroad asking $2,975 and alleging a piece of steel from a bolt which he was directed to chisel attaching a ladder to a box car by the foreman of the section gang struck him in the left eye blinding that eye on July 20, 1916. Ryan, Ryan & Aldrich are attorneys for the plaintiff.

To Quiet Title.

Christian Menzie has filed suit in superior court against Louis H. Friday to quiet title. Glenn A. Smiley is attorney for the plaintiff.

Desertion is Charged.

Irene Kieffer, in a suit for divorce from Jesse Kieffer, filed in the superior court, alleges they were married Nov. 25, 1913, and separated July 11, 1916. Kieffer is charged with going to Montana, deserting his wife and requiring her to work to support herself. She also charges Kieffer with associating. Hartzell & Todd are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Husband Charges Cruelty.

George C. McSweeney and Martha A. McSweeney were married Sept. 19, 1910, and separated Nov. 11, 1916. Monday McSweeney filed suit in the superior court for a divorce. He alleges he gave his wife money, but that she was cruel to him notwithstanding. In one scuttle he enumerates the defendant is charged with destroying his $40 gold watch when she pounced on him. Howard Hanthorn is attorney for the plaintiff.

Fined $25 and Costs.

George E. Salisbury was fined $25 and costs in the court of Justice A. C. Nierman Monday, charged with assault and battery on his wife. John R. Sunderland, a step-son, was the prosecuting witness. Mrs. Salisbury had two black eyes to prove that there had been some sort of domestic trouble. Salisbury, the court recalled, was up a year ago on a similar charge. At that time he signed the pledge to cut the booze and was discharged. Salisbury will serve thirty-five days in jail, being unable to pay his fine.

Notes of Court.

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the Ploeger Motorcar company, with a capital stock of $10,000. The directors are E. W. Ploeger, H. W. Ploeger and H. F. Ploeger.

The case of the state against Charles A. Adams, charged with a statutory offense, will be tried by a jury Dec. 13.

Marriage Licenses.

REV. FOX ACCEPTS CALL TO SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

The numerous friends in Fort Wayne of Rev. Frank Fox, pastor of the Fullerton Avenue Presbyterian church of Chicago, will learn with much interest of his acceptance as pastor to the historic old Second Presbyterian church of Springfield, O. This is the leading Presbyterian church of Springfield and its pastor, Dr. Edward Park Thomson, retired recently after twenty-five years of wonderful service. For weeks the men of the church have been making an effort to secure the services of Rev. Mr. Fox and he has finally accepted the work. The congregation consists of many of the leading business and professional men of Springfield and Mr. Fox feels after a visit there of two weeks' time that it is a splendid field for labor. Rev. Fox was former pastor of the Third Presbyterian church in this city. He preaches his first sermon in Springfield Dec. 24.

WOULD SUBPOENA DIRECTORS.

New York Central Wants Hearing on Equipment Trust Plan.

Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—Clarence H. Venner and James Pollits, representing minority stockholders of the New York Central railroad, requested the Ohio utilities commission today to issue subpoenas for all the directors of the New York Central lines to come here for the hearing on an application to create a $12,000,000 equipment trust. These directors include Wm. K. Vanderbilt, Chauncey M. Depew, Wm. Rockefeller, Alfred H. Smith, Horace E. Andrews and George F. Baker, of New York. The commission has heretofore declined to subpoena directors living outside the state in similar cases.

IN THE CHURCHES

FT. WAYNE GIDEONS NAME NEW OFFICERS

E. H. Lane Will Head Traveling Men's Organization Coming Year.

The Fort Wayne Camp of Gideons met at the Randall hotel Sunday afternoon and elected officers for the ensuing year. E. H. Lane will head the organization and Alvin P. Double is vice president. S. D. Smith was elected second vice president, J. I. Thompson, chaplain, and C. F. Lawrence, secretary-treasurer.

Much credit for fine work done during the past year is due to the retiring officers. They are George Crowe, president; J. I. Thompson, vice president; W. M. Plank, secretary-treasurer, and A. P. Double, chaplain, and Mrs. Crowe, president of the auxiliary. During the convention held here recently, money was raised for 217 Bibles. These were placed in the Y. W. C. A., the Hope hospital, and the Wayne sanitarium. Besides these Bibles paid for by the delegates to the convention and the Fort Wayne camp, fifty have been placed in Butler and sixty in Garrett.

Many fine meetings have been held during the term of office of Mr. Crowe and he is to be congratulated on his very successful presidency.

The counties of Allen, Adams, Whitley, Wells and Huntington were represented. A strenuous effort is to be made to carry out plans made by the state officers. A flying squadron campaign is to be launched during the winter months and an attempt will be made to get in personal touch with every society in the district.

THE DEATHS.

LOGAN.

Jacob Logan, a former resident of Fort Wayne, died Sunday in Chicago as the result of a fractured skull, which he suffered when he fell from a wagon a few days ago. He was forty-five years of age and was well known in this city. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Logan and was born in Zanesville. He was a man who loved travel and had visited nearly every country in the world. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters—Louis L., of North Dakota, and John F. Logan, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Katherine Robertson, of Gary, and Mrs. Adeline Waleck, of Sturgis, Mich.

The remains will be brought to Fort Wayne for burial. Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Klaehn and Melching's chapel and at 3 o'clock at Zanesville chapel.

EBEL.

Arthur Ebel, aged eight months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ebel, died Sunday at the family home, 2724 Weisser Park avenue, following an illness of a few days, due to brain fever.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, Rev. A. P. Meyer officiating. Interment at St. John's cemetery.

The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mundt, also survive.

NEW MANAGER NAMED.

H. Vern Schlosser has been appointed manager of the Maumee Dairy company to succeed Mr. Collins, who has gone to Chicago. The new manager took charge the latter part of last week. For the present there will be no change in the office of the company.

HAVE NO LETUP IN BAPTIST REVIVALS

Rev. Watkins and Fred Butler Conduct Services at South Wayne Church.

No service will be held by the evangelists who are conducting services in the Baptist churches of the city, as the First Baptist church this evening. Rev. Chas. Watkins and Fred Butler, who have been in charge of the First church meetings, will be heard at the South Wayne church. Regular meetings will be held at the Immanuel and Tabernacle churches.

The meetings Sunday were attended by crowds that filled the church. At the First church Rev. Watkins preached on the subjects, "The Lordship of Jesus" and "Knowing God." He had the largest and most attentive audiences since the meetings began. Fred Butler sang several solos. During the afternoon the every member campaign was held and luncheon was served the workers at 5 o'clock. At this time reports of the afternoon's work were given.

At the South Wayne church Sunday the same sort of attendance was reported as at the First church, Rev. Walfred Lindstrom has planned a week of big meetings for the church, starting with tonight, when Rev. Watkins has charge of the meetings. Among the things planned are a meeting for children, a luncheon for men and a young people's rally. The work is opening up splendidly at this church and prospects are very bright.

Rev. Alfred D. Merrell is conducting services at the Tabernacle church every evening. This is the infant church of the Baptist family in this city and it is doing surprisingly well. Powerful sermons are being delivered at that church by Rev. Merrell and the interest is growing daily. Special music is rendered at every meeting.

Immanuel church will have its regular meeting tonight with Rev. Roberts leading. He has enlarged the children's choir.

Tomorrow night at the First church Mr. Butler will again sing "Aloha Oe." Since the report that the Hawaiian princess, who write the anthem, is dying, came out, special interest has attached to it. He will sing it in the native tongue. He will also sing with sacred words written by Mrs. Butler, the "Anvil Song" from Robin Hood.

DEUTSCHLAND TAKES PROVISIONS ABOARD

New London, Conn., Nov. 13.—The approaching departure of the submarine Deutschland for Germany was believed to be indicated by the taking on board today of large quantities of provisions, including a liberal supply of fresh meats.

As no local dealers are understood, however, to have orders for delivery tomorrow, it is believed it may be Wednesday before the big undersea freighter turns her nose seaward. No clearance papers have been issued to Captain Paul Koenig yet, it was stated, this afternoon.

EASY WAY TO GET RABBIT FOR DINNER

Policemen who have been forming hunting parties since the first of October have related in the squad room the wily ways of hares this fall.

John Hoffman, prosecutor, who has been too busy to go hunting came in with a different story Monday morning. He tried to get away from a rabbit Saturday night, when driving his automobile along the Coldwater road and couldn't. The bunny leaped into the road ahead of the machine. It came towards the car. It was blinded by the lights.

Hoffman dodged the automobile this way and that and his wife, who accompanied him screamed. Bump! bump! went the pneumatic tires. Hoffman climbed from the car and walked back a few rods where he picked upthe dead hare. The Hoffmans had rabbit for dinner Sunday.

RAIN MAY CHANGE TO SNOW AT ANY TIME

Declaring that the extreme cold wave which is hovering over the western states is slowly moving eastward, the local weather man states that the rain which has been falling in Fort Wayne practically the entire day, may change to snow at any time. The temperature is to go lower until it may reach the twenty degree mark by Tuesday morning. A low, which is centered in the Ohio valley, is acting as a barrier to the cold wave in the west. However, it started to move Monday afternoon and in turn the high, which will bring with it the cold snap, has also started on its transcontinental trip. The lowest temperature in the country Monday morning was 26 degrees below zero at Sheridan, Wyoming.

WILSON CITES WORK OF LABOR'S BUREAU

Cabinet Member Principal Speaker at Federation Convention.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson delivered the principal address at the opening here today of the thirty-sixth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. He said he was present for the purpose of showing which side he was on.

"The greatest of all the functions of the department of labor," said the secretary, "is that of having the hopes, aspirations and philosophy of the wage workers of our country come into the councils of the president of the United States."

Of the 300 disputes between labor and capital that had come before his department Mr. Wilson said 275 had been settled in a manner satisfactory to both sides; and before a strike had been reached.

President Samuel Gompers in an address declared that in the relations between the United States and Mexico the American Federation of Labor had a part in counselling the Mexican workingmen so that they might exert a steadying influence upon the people and government of Mexico "and that the exploiters of Wall street should not drive us into passion and anger and compel a conflict with our much weaker sister republic of Mexico." This statement evoked long continueous applause. "The Lusitania situation was taken well in hand by the officials of our government," Mr. Gompers added, "and instead of declaring war with bluster, the aims and purposes of that diplomacy have accomplished all that a war could secure."

MAY MAKE AN APPEAL TO WIPE OUT SHORTAGE

Democrats Devising Means for Raising $300,000 for Campaign Bills.

New York, Nov. 13.—Plans for meeting by popular subscription the $300,000 deficit which it is said was incurred by the national democratic committee in its effort to elect President Wilson, were proposed today by Wilbur Marsh, treasurer of the committee. The proposal calls for an appeal to 2,000 cities, each to raise $100, leaving the rest to such individuals as may be willing and able to pay it off.

No concession of the election of President Wilson has come as yet from Chairman Willcox, of the republican national committee. He said today he is still waiting for the official counts in close states. While refusing to make a formal analysis of the vote, Mr. Willcox pointed to various facts as tending to refute statements that the women, farmer, railroad or labor vote in general was cast against the republican candidate. Charles Evans Hughes maintained silence at his hotel as to the election. He continues to receive a great mass of correspondence. He went for a short walk after breakfast.

RE-ARGUMENT ORDERED IN WORKMEN LAW CASES

Supreme Court Assigns No Reason for Action in Matter.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Re-argument was ordered today by the supreme court of cases testing the constitutionality of the Washington, New York, New Jersey and Iowa workmen's compensation laws. No date was set for rehearing.

No reason was given by the court for the hearing or order. The court also ordered the re-argument of the Ohio employes' liability law.

Counsel for the International Harvester company today asked the supreme court to set for re-argument on Feb. 26 the government's anti-trust dissolution suit against it. They suggested that the Harvester case should be heard about the same time as the dissolution suit against the United States steel corporation since like questions are involved.

Chief Justice White today announced that the supreme court would recess for two weeks from Nov. 20 to Dec. 4, over the Thanksgiving holiday with opinions and orders next Monday.

EMPEROR'S NAME MAY BE DRAWN INTO CASE

Swift Prosecution Planned for the Self-Styled "Master Spy."

Washington, Nov. 13.—Arrangements for the prosecution of Karl Armgaard Graves, self-styled "master spy" and magazine writer who was arrested here Saturday on a charge of attempting to extort $3,000 from Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the German ambassador, by the theft of letters, will be completed today at a conference between agents of the department of justice, representatives of the district attorney's office and Prince Hatzfeldt, counsellor of the German embassy.

The name of Emperor William of Germany may be brought into the case indirectly as a result of this conference. A diplomatic representative in a foreign country canont divest himself of his immunity from giving testimony without special permission from his sovereign. As Graves conversed solely with Prince Hatzfeldt, it may be that the district attorney's office will determine that his testimony is essential.

It is not expected that either Countess von Bernstorff or the German ambassador will be requested to appear against Graves.

The letter for which Graves is alleged to have asked $3,000, remained in the possession of agents of the department of justice today. The German embassy is familiar with their contents and is understood to have agreed that they be kept by the prosecution. The German embassy is most anxious to learn how Graves obtained the letters which he is alleged to have brought, that will embarrass "Countess von Bernstorff if made public." It is considered unlikely, however, that information on this point can be obtained until the steamship Oscar II, upon which Graves declares they were brought to the United States, returns to New York.

Graves was in New York today. He left Washington late Saturday night, after his release on $2,000 bail, saying he intended to secure counsel before returning for his preliminary hearing Wednesday.

HITS WOMAN ON HEAD WITH BEER BOTTLE

Mrs. Frank Boyana was a sorry sight when police arrived at her home near the corner of Taylor and Fairfield, Monday afternoon, in answer to a riot call. The woman's black hair was matted with blood and her dress streaked crimson by blood which had run from a deep wound in her scalp.

Frank Porilla, who works in the pool room at the corner of Taylor street and Fairfield avenue, and who boards at the woman's house, had struck her with a beer bottle, police were told. Porilla is locked up on a drunk charge. He has been causing a disturbance in the neighborhood for a week, police say.

NEW TIME EXTENSION GIVEN BY CARRANZA

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 13.—Louis Cabrera, chairman of the Mexican representation, advised the American members of the Mexican-American joint commission today that a further extension of sixty days, or until January 14, had been given owners of mines in Mexico to reopen their properties. Mr. Cabrera explained that in granting the second extension Gen. Carranza was manifesting a spirit of fairness inasmuch as he was admitting the justice of the assertions of the mine owners that conditions in many sections of the south where their properties are located are such that their operation is now impracticable.

MARRIED SATURDAY AT HILLSDALE, MICH.

In order to escape their friends but known to both of their families, Homer C. Schlaudroff, aged 28, and Miss Grace A. Smart, aged 25, both of Fort Wayne, were married Saturday at Hillsdale, Mich., by Rev. Louis De Lamarter at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. Schlaudroff is an electrician employed at P. B. Arnold & Co., and resided with his parents at 1616 St. Mary's avenue. Miss Smart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smart, 1159 West Main street.

The newly married couple have returned to Fort Wayne and are making their home with the groom's parents on St. Mary's avenue.

SCHOOL BOARD IN SESSION.

Teacher for Open Air School Is Question for Consideration.

The school board of the Fort Wayne city schools met in Supt. Justin N. Study's office Monday afternoon in regular session. One of the important questions for consideration was the selection of a teacher for the Perry A. Randall open air school. The building is being erected on the Plymouth Congregational church property on West Berry street. The board will dispose of the [illegible]

SAND IS JUST WHAT FORT WAYNE NEEDS

But Contractors Cannot Get It Beacuse of Freight Car Shortage.

More sand is what Fort Wayne needs right now.

Contractors say that sand is harder to procure than coal or even potatoes. Improvement work is being held up and in some cases it is feared that winter will stop concrete work because there is no sand at hand with which to push the job while fall lingers. Every contractor in town says he will use all the sand you can bring him.

Shortage of gondola cars, the low, flatcars used for transporting coal, rock and sand, is holding up shipment of the mineral, contractors say. Cars cannot be had at Wolcottville or Pleasant Lake, whence Fort Wayne draws her sand supply.

It is reported that the cars are being congested in the railroad yards. Railroad companies say they are unable to secure the cars for their trade. Sand which has been ordered for I several weeks has not yet arrived in the city. There is promise that a supply will be here soon. The shipment will be divided among contractors in an effort to get as much of the work, especially where concrete is used, finished before winter.

SCHOOL BEINB BEAUTIFIED.

Lawn at Rudisill School Being Decorated by Many Shrubs.

Nearly five hundred shrubs, of many different varieties, are being set in the front lawn before the Rudisill school on Spy Run avenue by city workmen under direction of Park Superintendent Getz. The bushy plants will line the lawn and form pretty designs in the center of the yard. Most of the plants are of blooming varieties and many shades of flowers will come and go with the seasons.

Jefferson school, on West Jefferson street, will be the next school yard to be decorated. The school board has decided to provide for landscaping all of the school lawns by completing two each year. The Harmar and James H. Smart schools have already been set out in shrubbery.

Improvement Work.

Laying of brick between the car tracks on South Calhoun street will be completed Tuesday.

Forms for holding concrete are being built in the trench for the St. Joe retaining wall. Concrete will be poured in the molds later in the week.

Paving of Swinney avenue from Phenie to Broadway will be completed by the Grace Construction company Wednesday.

St. Joe boulevard from Lake avenue to State street will be finished this week.

Birth Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nance, 2028 South Calhoun street, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creigh, 1023 Cochrane street, a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Oberholtzer, 345 Melita street, a girl.

THINKS TRAFFIC MAPS MIGHT HELP THE CASE

Louisville, Nov. 13.—To the various measures advocated by railroad operatives for the prevention of car shortages such as now exist in various parts of the country a suggestion for the issuance of traffic maps by the interstate commerce commission was made this morning by J. T. Bougher, chief clerk of the car record department of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad. Bougher, testifying in connection with an investigation by the interstate commerce commission into the problems suggested the exchange and return of freight cars by the railroads of the country.

Proposals made Saturday by railroad representatives present at the hearings and approved by Commissioner McChord that all railroads begin immediately the return of foreign coal cars to the owning lines it was indicated this morning would be complied with as rapidly as it was possible for the equipment to be moved. The return of coal car equipment to the owning roads is expected to result in the lifting of embargoes by roads on which much of the country's coal supply originates. Embargoes by such railroads against the movement of their coal cars beyond their own lines, witnesses at the hearing declared, has resulted in an acute shortage of fuel is many sections.

FRIARS WIN IN HANDY FASHION

Checkeye Delivers in Fine Style and Leads Locals to a Brilliant Win.

"You see, it was just like this"—that's the way we expected to begin this historical account when word came in late Saturday afternoon that Dorias was laid up and could not play. With all due apologies to Checkeye, it certainly did look gloomy for Friar fans when the dope came in. But the team didn't lose any nerve and Coony insisted that he could get by, and believe us, he did.

Because of the way in which the North Ends came up from behind and won at Wabash a few weeks ago that fourteen marker didn't look so big until the final whistle blew and then we were mighty proud of it. A pair of the most brilliant ends who ever played the game around these parts did a great deal in stopping Evanston's scoring plays. The defensive play of the entire team yesterday was the kind that makes you set up and take notice. If Elward and Hunter play any better when using their own names than when working under aliases we sure would like to see them do it. When Pliska punted yesterday, the Evanston back might as well have signaled for fair catches and saved themselves bumps, for they didn't have a chance to shake a foot. The two wing men were down under the kicks and had the man before he was sure he had the ball.

The backs delivered in faultless style as usual and the gains through the line which they ripped off were almost uncanny considering the class of team they were up against. Chris Chambers and Joe Pliska went through the line time and again for the full distance and Johnson was right there with his full line of long end runs. This boy Johnson did some brilliant work in breaking up passes, too.

That forward line played faultless football yesterday and were certainly whales. Butch Wilkins played the whole game and looked great. Edwards, Jones, Feeney and Daley, the big four, worked as they never worked before, and any fan will say that they have done some work this year. Feeney goes better in every game and the interference he forms after passing the ball makes him one of the most valuable men on the team.

The locals took the long end of the score early and after the backs had torn through the visitors' line till the ball was on the two yard line, Coony then ducked through the line for the first counter. Feeney kicked a pretty goal.

Johnson's toe came in for some good work during the afternoon and he made some pretty kicks. Checkeye made a feature run after receiving one of the punts, sprinting right up the side line to within ten yards of where the ball was kicked from. He was never easy to get and kept the visitors busy watching him. Not one North Ender had the honor of stopping him single-handed yesterday, and it generally took three or four of them.

At the beginning of the second period Pliska punted and Johnson of the visitors was downed in his tracks by the local end. When aerial football failed them at this point the visitors kicked, dropping Coony on the Friar twenty yard line. Four plays were necessary to get the ball in neutral territory. From there the local backs carried it to the shadow of Evanston's goal posts only to lose it on a penalty. Johnson soon punted out for the North Ends and Checkeye, receiving the ball, made a forty yard run back to the twenty yard line.

In this manner the game ran with the visitors never real dangerous. They would start down field with some brilliant plays and passes, making first down once or twice, then the locals would get next to the plays and stop them dead, many times for a loss. Only once did Johnson attempt a kick and this one was a bad miss.

Between halves, however, Friar stock dropped to below nothing. The fans were just beginning to realize the kind of game Checkeye was playing when the report came that the little quarter had broken his arm at the last of the second period. That sure was a scare and Coony was a welcome sight when he ran out for the last half. He did sprain his wrist but not enough to keep him from playing.

One more counter was made for the Friars late in the third when Pliska took the pill over on an end run. He made a pretty punt out and Al Feeney kicked the goal. By this time Chambers could hardly stand up any longer and he was taken out and Young went in. He played a hard game while he was in. Toward the end Smith was put in for Johnson. The tow-head got a poor start on his first run, but he made up for it before the end by intercepting a pass and taking it close to the center of the field.

Not until there were only about two minutes left to play did the fans breathe easy. By that time they figured that it would be hard for the visitors to come up from behind and they sat back and enjoyed the game. The final whistle left the ball in the center of the field and everybody happy.

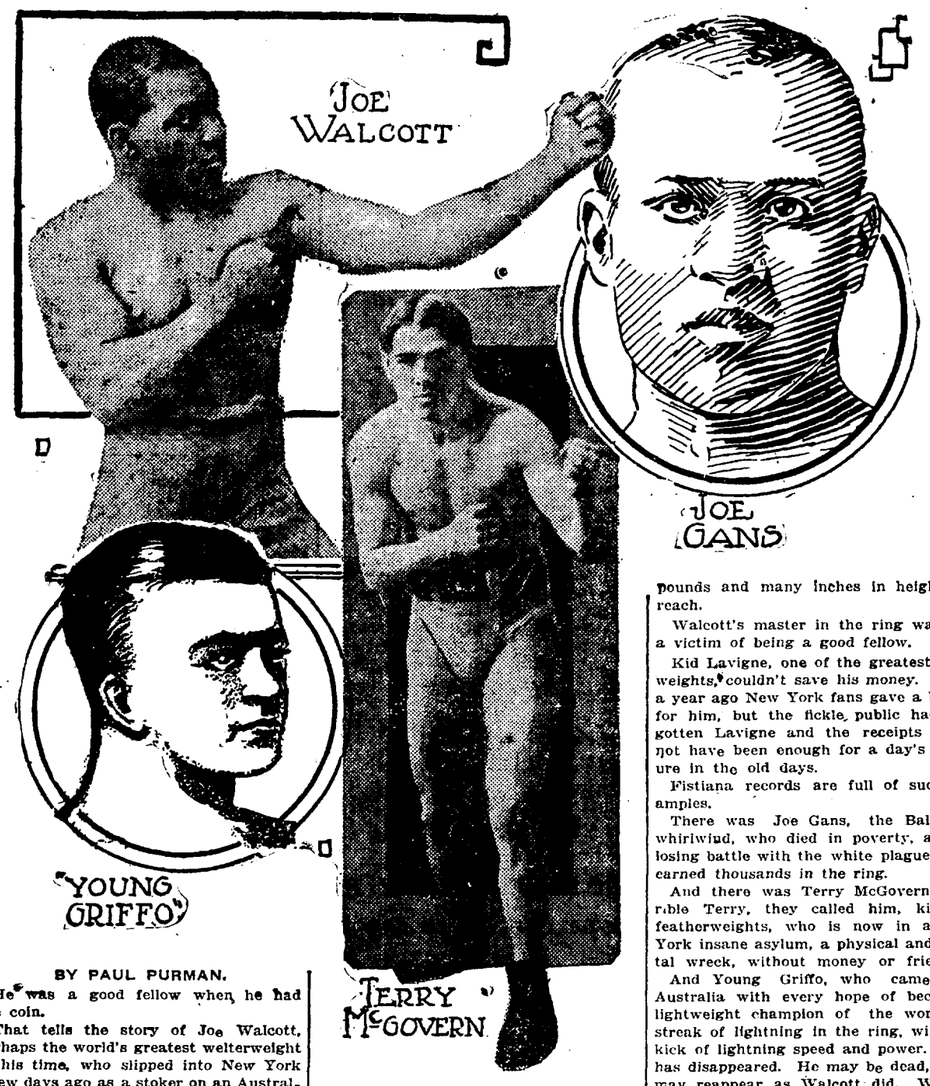
They Where Good Fellows When They Had The Coin!



BY PAUL PURMAN.

He was a good fellow when he had the coin.

That tells the story of Joe Walcott, perhaps the world's greatest welterweight in his time, who slipped into New York a few days ago as a stoker on an Australian liner.

Penniless, down and out, ragged, a pitiful figure he made as he crossed the gang plank and made his way to the places he used to haunt as a popular hero.

Walcott, the "Barbados Demon," made thousands of dollars in his years in the ring back in the nineties, but he couldn't stand prosperity.

Drink, women, dice—they draw the picture of his downfall. He had scores of friends, until his earning capacity was ended one night in a brawl when he accidentally shot himself in the hand.

Walcott's career in the ring was sensational. He reached the height of his prominence when he stopped Joe Choynski in seven rounds, giving away many pounds and many inches in height and reach.

Kid Lavigne, one of the greatest lightweights, couldn't save his money. About a year ago New York fans gave a benefit for him, but the fickle public had forgotten Lavigne and the receipts would not have been enough for a day's pleasure in the old days.

Fistiana records are full of such examples.

There was Joe Gans, the Baltimore whirlwind, who died in poverty, after a losing battle with the white plague. Gans earned thousands in the ring.

And there was Terry McGovern, Terrible Terry, they called him, king of featherweights, who is now in a New York insane asylum, a physical and mental wreck, without money or friends.

And Young Griffo, who came from Australia with every hope of becoming lightweight champion of the world, a streak of lightning in the ring, with the kick of lightning speed and power. Griffo has disappeared. He may be dead, or he may reappear as Walcott did. Walcott had been long thought dead.

And George Dixon, the greatest featherweight of them all, who died in poverty, and Stanley Ketchell and a score of others.

Joe Walcott and the others should be a moral to the young man who would be a good fellow.

They were the best fellows in the world—but look at them now.

WALSH HALL GAME NOW A CERTAINTY

Bachelors Secure League for November 26 and Will Stage Game.

The managers of the Bachelor football team have secured the use of League park for November 26, the date on which the Friars go to Wabash, and will play the Walsh hall team of Notre Dame. After considering the proposition made by the Bachelors, the Friar managers decided that a game played here on that date would in no way interfere with the Wabash contest and decided to let the Bachelors have the field.

The game should prove a great attraction to fans who are unable to attend the contest at Wabash. Notre Dame hall teams have always been popular here and the chances are that the Bachelors will have a good crowd. Two Fort Wayne men play on the Walsh hall team and it is possible that a crew of students will accompany the team to this city. Father Farley, who has always brought the teams here when they played the Friars, will probably be with them this year.

This game will mark a forward stride for the amateurs of this city, for although several of the teams have stacked up against high class performers in other cities, they have never tried it at home before. A great deal of interest is already being taken in the game, although it is still nearly two weeks away and the chances are that the interest will increase as the time shortens.

WABASH LOSES IN TIGHT GRID GAME

Pine Village Comes Back After Splitting Even in First Contest.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 13.—After losing two games in succession the Pine Village team defeated the Wabash A. A.'s at League park here yesterday by a score of 7 to 0. Five thousand people witnessed the game.

Pine Village made its touchdown near the close of the first quarter, and, although the Villagers repeatedly punctured the Wabash line for big gains, the latter aggregation always stiffened when its goal line was in danger.

King was the real star of the game. Once he plunged through center for twenty-five yards, leaving a string of would-be tacklers in his wake. Again he hit the line for seventeen yards and made many others of less denomination. Eli Fenters followed King closely and Wabash found him a slippery man. Milligan, Davis, Winter and Keefe starred in the line for Pine Village, and Ofstie, Krause and Helvie broke up interference. Kenneth Yarnelle was the only Wabash back who could do much on the offensive, while McHale and Routh were strongest in the line.

Wabash kicked off and Pine Village carried the ball steadily down the field to the thirteen-yard line, where Wabash held. G. Yarnelle punted and Pine Village plowed down the field, but again was halted, and Yarnelle punted to Wabash's forty-five-yard line. E. Fenters gained eight yards and King went through for twenty-five, then adding six yards. R. Fenters made two yards and King placed the ball an inch from the line. R. Fenters went over on the fourth down and E. Fenters kicked goal: Line-up:

BACK TO CENTRAL LEAGUE NEXT YEAR

According to the latest baseball gossip Fort Wayne will be represented in the Central circuit next season by Gibert and his Terre Haute team. In case this deal is put across the team will be the joint property of local and Terre Haute capital.

The down staters want to get in the Three-I league again because of the way in which the city is situated with reference to the other clubs. They plan for that reason to put the Central league team here and another team in the Three-I.

One of the plans of the baseball magnates of that city is to break into the major leagues. In case that is accomplished Fort Wayne and Terre Haute will furnish the farms for the big leaguers.

PINE VILLAGE AFTER MACOMBER.

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 13.—"Cap" Squier, assistant coach at Illinois, was offered $75 to play football yesterday with the Pine Village (Ind.) professional team, but refused the offer. Tempting offers were also made to Bart Macomber to play with the team after the regular college schedule is concluded.

Aztec corn 1,000 years old was recently planted in Kansas. It grows much faster than modern corn and the grains will be of great premium.

BACHELORS COP FROM BADGERS IN PRELIM

In a close and well played game the Bachelors won from the Badgers yesterday afternoon in a preliminary to the Friar game. The only count was made when Berghoff, playing right end for the ex-champs, scooped up a fumble made by the Badgers and sprinted seventy yards for a count. The try for goal was missed.

This leaves the Bachelors and the West Ends in the play for the 1916 title. The final game will be played Thanksgiving day as a preliminary to the Friar-Pan-Handle game. Several new men appeared in the Bachelor line-up yesterday and the coach, Baker, a former Butler star, may have a team which is almost entirely new to present on Turkey day. The line-up:

BACHELORS (6).		BADGERS (0).

DIES AT HOME OF HER DAUGHTER IN WYOMING

Mrs. G. M. Naylor, Well Known Ft. Wayne Woman, Expires in West.

Following a very brief illness due to cerebral hemorrhages, Mrs. George M. Naylor, a prominent former resident of Fort Wayne, died Sunday morning at Casper, Wyo., where she had gone a year ago to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Donald A. McQueen, a former society reporter of a local paper. Her death comes as a great shock to hundreds of Fort Wayne people who were personally acquainted with her.

The deceased was born in Logansport, where she resided until after marriage, when she moved to Minneapolis. Later she came to Fort Wayne and had resided here many years. She was president of the Fortnightly club and was a director of the Fort Wayne Art school, a member of the Women's Reading club, chairman of the state press committee of the Indiana State Federation of Women's Clubs and the women's suffrage movement in Indiana. She was very popular in social circles.

Besides her husband, George M. Naylor, of Santa Cruz, Cal., she is survived by four children—Mrs. Donald A. McQueen, at whose home she died; Mrs. H. W. Penniman, of Santa Cruz; Louise Hall Naylor, of San Francisco, and A. F. H. Naylor, of Fort Wayne; and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs Hannah Hall Ellison, of Fort Wayne; W. H and H. L. Hall, of Topeka, Kas., and Mrs. Walter L. Johnson, of Santa Cruz

WOULD HAVE PUPILS EXCHANGE LETTERS

Correspondence Between U. S. and Foreign School Children Urged.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Establishment of a system of exchanging letters between American and foreign school children earnestly advanced by Ambassador Naon and other diplomatists was submitted today by the American Peace society here in a letter to the school division.

Under the plan, high school pupils would be encouraged as part of their course to prepare a regular letter at stated intervals to another high school pupil in some South American or European country. The letters would be all co-ordinated and in some cases where essential, translated and then delivered through the schools of the foreign country. Correspondence would be between individuals so that the personal element would be encouraged as much as possible.

The proposition is believed to have very great possiblities in favoring international intercourse.

Ambassador Naon has written that he would be "most pleased to co-operate" and has agreed to translate as many letters as possible for transmission to Argentina. If the plan works out as expected the society will extend it just as far as possible. Co-operation of American teachers and foreign diplomats will be sought with possibly the creation of a central distributing and overseeing bureau. The results so far are said to be most satisfactory.

T. R. DECLINES TO TALK ON PIPE DREAM

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Put out by the political significance attached by various politicians and newspapers to the visit of George W. Perkins to Sagamore Hill yesterday, Col. Theodore Roosevelt today expressed himself definitely in regard to the 1920 sentiment. He characterized such talk as "pipe dreams."

"I want it clearly understood," he said, "that no amount of visits or talk can induce me to speak of the 1920 nomination. I won't discuss pipe dreams."

HYPNOTISM PLAYS LEAD IN GREAT MURDER MYSTERY—EITHER FAKE OR BRUTAL CRIME.

Santa Monica, Cal., Nov. 13.—Is Benton L. Barrett, retired Indian farmer, aged 65, a hypnotized dupe or perpetrator of a double murder hideous in its inception?

Did a plot to secure his $25,000 life insurance, coupled with a family wrangle over property, send him with deluded mind to confess a crime he had not committed?

The foregoing is involved in an amazing state of affairs centering on an alleged crime to which Barrett has "confessed." That conspirators, including two hypnotists, have endeavored to make a victim of Barrett is the theory of detectives working on the case.

Barrett walked into the district attorney's office recently and declared that he had murdered his wife and stepson in the back yard of their home, afterward burning their bodies in a brush fire. He said that in self-defense he had beat them to death with a club.

Investigation by the authorities left them suspicious as to the truthfulness of Barrett. No evidence was found in the yard of a scuffle. In the barn were found bloodstains. In a cesspool were found larger bones than the few discovered in the brush pile remains.

Confronted with this evidence, Barrett varied his former statements and said he must have killed them in the barn and put the bones in the cesspool About the time of the slaying a skeleton was stolen from a medical college. Anatomy experts say the bones found were not conformant with the age of the alleged victims.

Barrett asserted the crime was committed Wednesday, October 18. Three people testified that they saw the alleged victims after they were supposed to be dead.

Did Barrett commit any crime? Are his supposed victims dead? An attorney for the defense, Earl Rogers, says that there was much family dissension over the Barrett property. Barrett's $25,000 insurance also is deeply considered.

Clues are being followed which are expected to result in the arrest of at least one of the conspirators whom detectives claim include a physician, a medical student and two hypnotists.

Another interesting feature of the hypnotic theory is the assertion by psycho-pathologists that the "influence" is due to dispel itself in a few weeks.

The theory advanced as to the motive for the possible duping of Barrett is as follows:

Under the strain of accusation it was hoped Barrett would commit suicide, thus making it possible to collect insurance on his life, also to shield the real criminal if the crime confessed to by Barrett was actually committed.

HERO APPEARS FROM THE SEWERS OF PARIS

Underworld Being Responds to the Call of His Country.

London, Nov. 13.—A helmeted captain of sappers just back from the French front tells this story:

"The indispensable man is he who can do ONE thing superlatively well; school systems turn out mere jacks-of-all-trades. Gen. Gallieni (the saviour of Paris) said that first: how well HE could tell the story of 'The Rat!'

"Our division holds the grimmest sector of the Somme. Loopholes in the parapet show as in little framed pictures vistas of shot-torn villages held by the enemy. Five hundred feet away the Germans were building a bridge-like platform for quick firers and outposts. They were so near we could hear them cough.

"Day and night our snipers stood in the fire trench with their eyes fixed on the sights of their rifles; yet that gunbridge grew, threatening our strategic salient, silencing the 75's.

"One evening a stocky, smileless soldier came to me warily, the position being a hushed place of danger.

"'Captain,' he whispered, 'command me to blow up that erection!'

"I knew the lad—a gamin named by his comrades, 'The Rat,' called by the officers 'Mon Enfant!' There is 'swank' in the French army; we fellow-republicans are brothers-in-arms, neither shy nor ashamed to confess our love for France.

"'To destroy that gunbridge requires a picked man,' I told him.

"'Monsieur, I was mobilized by Gen. Gallieni for Les Morts' (the Dead Ones), he returned.

"Now France has not forgotten that suicide squad. When German armies swept through France, Gallieni, determined to defend Paris, called up a corps who knew the underground city. He asked from them no character reference; he confided to them an ultimate plan. When the tocsin tolled they—without further orders—must blow up certain subterranean salients. The plan might save the capital; but it afforded no escape for the sappers.

"'My post was beneath the Gare du Nord sector,' observed the Rat.

"Ten minutes later our commanding colonel gave him instructions for dynamiting the German outposts. Orders for the approach were minute; no arrangements were made for the Rat's return. To reach the enemy would be wonderful; to get away would be incredible.

"'You are my only friends,' he explained.

"Then, oiling his body with wheel grease, he belted on a bag of explosives and crawled through our wire entanglements like a thief in the night.

"Beyond lay a marsh saturated with rotten water. Noiseless as a weasel, the Rat and his heavy burden sank beneath the slime. Once we saw him hauling across a humoc; but two hours' progress was terribly slow; for he ran a gauntlet of mines and electrified wires and sunken man-traps.

"Ears trained to every acuteness, eyes able to see through the dark, the gamin from the sewers of Paris avoided squeaking vermin and swinging searchlights. Hawk-eyed comrades, bearded like cavemen, lined our parapet to listen. The colonel commanding stood beside them.

"'Poor Rat,' said he to me, 'Gallieni told me about him. Arrested at seven years old for a folly, locked up at ten for being an orphan, set aside for 'reformation'—at thirteen, made bitter, and desperate, and shameless, according to law. His every talent ignored; a citizen spoiled in the training; only Gallieni could have called out his best instinct.

"'The state has much to learn after the war!'

"Five hundred feet across the dark the furtive Rat, gauging distances to an inch, rose through the slime beneath the German gunbridge. Sentinels and star shells failed to find him, a shadow motionless amidst the shadows.

"A minute to clear his eyes of muck, to loose the sodden strap confining the explosive, to press a bomb knob which would explode the charge in 20 seconds—then drawing a deep breath, he dived and swam furiously under water.

"A thunderous roar as gunbridge and outpost sprayed skyward told that his work was done. The sharp, barking click! click! click; of French 75's gave response to that clangor.

"An hour later some of the grimmest fighters in Europe disputed which should wrap a shivering comrade in blue great coats. The gray colonel commanding greeted the daring sapper with grim satisfaction.

"'Bravo, mon enfant, I salute a soldier of France. Judgment and skill proved perfect. Your training before the war was——?'

"'That of an apache, mon colonel,' answered the Rat."

The sum of $15,000 is yet needed to pay for the two park sites and those making subscriptions are asked to pay them as quickly as possible.

RAPID PROGRESS MADE ON HUGE WORLD MAPS

Geological Survey is Engaged in Valuable Educational Work.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Rapid progress is being made by the United States in preparing its portion of the huge world map which was agreed upon in 1909 by nearly all the principal countries. By international agreement the authorities began preparing maps of the entire surface of the earth to be published on a scale one-millionth of actual size, or about one inch to every sixteen miles. All the maps are to be of uniform shape and general appearance and are to have the same conventional signs.

To meet the popular demand in this country for State maps, the United States Geological Survey, which has charge of the making of the American section of the world map, is preparing and publishing maps of each state on a larger scale than the world map sections. These state maps are twice the size or about one inch to every eight miles. A map of the entire United States on that scale would cover a sheet measuring twenty feet by thirty-one feet.

The survey already has issued such maps for thirty-three states, the latest being that of Florida, which is one of the largest of the series. In compiling the maps every available source of information has been ransacked for material, and many data never before available to the public in any form have been produced, so that the maps exceed in accuracy any heretofore published. The new Florida map measures 44½ inches by 61 inches.

RAILROADS PLAN FOR FAST TROOP MOVEMENT

Show How Work Could Be Speeded Up Greatly in Emergency.

New York, Nov. 13.—Recommendations calculated to facilitate the movement of troops throughout the United States in time of national emergency are given in a report made public here last night by the special committee of the American Railway association appointed to co-operate with the government in connection with the transportation of the national guard to the Mexican border. Chief among the recommendations are:

That at least semi-annually railways file with the general secretary of the American association a statement of their passenger equipment, subdivided into classes, particularly with relation to the character of the coaches available and their seating capacity.

That the committee on relations between railroads prepare a system of passing reports for movement of troop trains, which can be put in service upon short notice, ciphered, if possible, in order to save telegraphing.

Also that the committee on relations be directed to prepare a passing report for empty passenger equipment, ciphered, if possible.

That under similar conditions in the future the Pullman company and the American Railway association combine their offices, so that all information as to car and troop movements will be available to both.

That the railroads having shops to each mobilization camp designate a representative at each camp, whose name will be filed with the general secretary of the American Railway association, with any changes which may be necessary from time to time, in order that no time may be lost in such a representative undertaking his duties in case of emergency.

BARGE CANAL WILL BE HEARING TOPIC

Fort Wayne Men Going Before Board in Behalf of Waterway.

The thirteenth annual meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which will be held at the New Willard hotel, Washington, Dec. 6, 7 and 8, is announced in the official call received by S. F. Bowser, president of the Erie & Michigan Deep Waterways association. Invitation to Fort Wayne and Huntington to send delegates to the meeting has been extended by S. A. Thompson, the secretary.

Boosters for the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal are much interested in this meeting as the rivers and harbors board will hear the appeal taken from the report of the army engineers on the deep waterway. Hon. Thomas E. Ellison, of Fort Wayne, is preparing a brief to be presented to the board and favorable action, either in the time extension grant or reconsideration of the army board's report, may be obtained. Mr. Bowser, A. M. Groves, of Fort Wayne, and C. B. Williams, of Huntington, will attend the sessions of the rivers and harbors board.

NO FIGHT LIKELY IN CASE OF MISS RANKIN

Congress to Welcome Woman, Though It Could Be Forbidden.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Party leaders here do not believe Miss Jeanette Rankin, of Montana, will be barred from the house, to which she was duly elected by voters of her state, because of the word "he" in the constitution.

The house could arbitrarily throw her out, but that is not likely to happen. Miss Rankin is well known and liked by the members of the house.

She was a popular lobbyist for woman suffrage for the National Woman Suffrage association for two years, and while acting in that capacity she met many of the members of the present house.

Miss Rankin is a republican. She ran in the primaries of Montana and defeated a republican for the nomination. She came out boldly for prohibition and outdistanced her party opponent.

WOMAN IS HELD FOR KIDNAPING HER SON

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mrs. Estella Briggs, of this city, is being held in the St. Joseph county jail charged with kidnaping her 2-year-old son from the home of her former husband, J. H. Bellard, at Greencastle. The alleged kidnaping took place two weeks ago. Bellard, learning that his former wife was in South Bend, came here Friday and after the officers had located the woman swore out a warrant for her arrest. She will be taken to Greencastle to face trial. The custody of the child was awarded to the father when the couple was divorced. A daughter 4 years old was placed in the custody of the mother. Mrs. Briggs insisted that it was not proper to separate the two children.

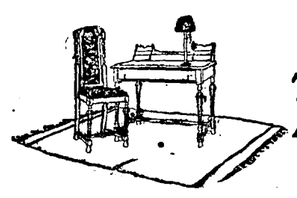
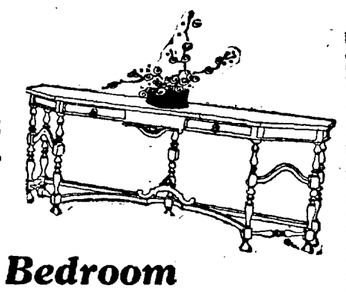
The Most Pretentious Array We Have Ever Assembled





Living Room

There has never been a showing here to equal our new line of davenports both in leather and tapestry; rockers and chairs of hundreds of designs; library tables galore in all finishes and woods; stand lamps, library lamps, stools, pedestals and a hundred and one furniture novelties which the new season has brought forth. Our floors are a veritable exposition of all that is new and stylish in living room furniture. It is advisable to make your holiday selections as early as possible.

Dining Room

The right up-to-the-last-minute in dining room furniture styles are Period Designs. We have all the new and artistic creations which American makers have copied from the old masters: Sheraton — William and Mary — Jacobean — Queen Ann, etc., etc., in a wealth of display seldom offered in a city of this size. Mahogany prevails in both rich dark finish and the natural finish. This line represents the final achievements of the finest makers of quality furniture. From it you are sure of pleasing satisfaction.

Bedroom

There was a day when almost any old furniture would do for the bed room. Nobody saw it but the occupants. Nowadays it is different. Style in bed room furniture has been carried to the highest attainments of the cabinet maker's art. Nothing is more convincing of this fact than the new lines we have to offer in all bed room articles. Quite the correct style of the moment is the dainty, yet sturdy Ivory finish bed room suites of which we have a beautiful line.

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Advertisement.

DEMAND THAT ENGLAND ASSUME MORE BURDEN

French Military Critic Believes France Entitled to Some Relief.

London, Nov. 13.—The Express features an article in today's issue by a French military writer, Captain Philippe Millet, calling on Great Britain to take over more of the western front and relieve the French.

Captain Millet says it is necessary to speak plainly that the alliance of Great Britain and France cannot be based on a mere exchange of compliments and that all Frenchmen are wondering whether the English fully realize what is happening in France. He says the French recognize gratefully what Great Britain has already done, but feels that the time has come for the British army to relieve the French more effectually. The writer quotes utterances of the French deputies to support his claim and remarks that the British are holding only 150 kilometers of the front compared to the French 580 kilometers. He adds: "There is not one village in France where the people do not expect our friends to enable us after twenty-seven months of hard struggle, to have some rest during the third winter and prepare for an advance next year without having to exhaust ourselves. This is what our people feel. They have put their trust in Great Britain and they all expect the relief of a good bit of the French line to be made soon."

NOTED ASTRONOMER DEAD.

Flagstaff, Ariz., Nov. 13.—Prof. Percival Lowell, founder and director of the Lowell observatory here and an astronomer of international reputation, died here last night from a stroke of apoplexy suffered yesterday morning.

GETS JAIL SENTENCE FOR CHICKEN DINNER

Fred Kline Gets Four Months for Stealing Four Fowls.

Mental status of Fred Kline, 40, 1022 Hayden street, refused to revert to his stealthy entrance into the wired cage of a chicken park Saturday night, when he was questioned in police court Monday morning. He could not remember carrying the fowls home and preparing them for a roast for his friends.

But Henry Lahmer, 1005 Hayden street, had reported loss of the four birds and suspicion fell on Kline. Detective Sergeants Junk and Spillner arrived at Kline's apartments Sunday just as the quartet of Kline and his three friends were ready to be seated at the festal board.

Kline was locked up. He pleaded guilty to having stolen the chickens on Sunday. Monday he could remember nothing about the affair, he said. He was fined $20 and sentenced to ninety days at the penal farm.

Collected No Damages.

Shimmering mirrors and polished barorom fixtures overwhelmed the senses of Benjamin Depew, Noble county farmer, who came to Fort Wayne on Saturday to collect damages. Every passing hour found Depew less of a business man. He was disturbing people on the street when arrested at nightfall.

The rig in which Depew was riding was wrecked and the mule attached to the buggy injured by collision with an automobile driven by Bert Spitler, Columbia street, during the Kendallville fair. Depew thinks his property was damaged to extent of $100. He came to collect the money Saturday. He will come back again some other day, as he promised Judge Kerr to go right home from police court Monday morning.

Charged with Coupon Theft.

Harry Leonard, employe of the Grand Union Tea company, 115 West Wayne street, will be tried Tuesday morning on a charge of petit larceny. He entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of stealing coupons from the tea company in police court. He will be represented by an attorney.

Leonard, who drove one of the wagons for the company, is charged with having used certificates placed in his keeping for obtaining gifts from the tea company. He is said to have procured several pieces of china and a handbag.

Stole Brass Fixtures.

John A. Pratt, 1445 Eureka street, pleaded guilty to theft of brass fixtures and small tools from the General Electric company, where he has been employed. He is held in jail under $200 bond for disposition of the case Tuesday morning.

Pratt is a married man. He said he left the articles in his pockets and then forgot and kept them at home, where Sergeant Detectives Spillner and Junk found them Sunday.

Will Take Out License.

Judge S. M. Hench, who appeared for the defendant, said he had known Manford Hensiel, farmer, living on the Huntington road, since the spring of 1866. Hensiel was charged with peddling milk in Fort Wayne without a license. If Hensiel takes out a license before Tuesday morning, and he says he will, the case will end.

Other Police Court Cases.

Huston Hines (colored), who hoisted a row in the rooming house at 119 Eureka street Saturday night, was fined $1 and costs on a disorderly charge.

Cases of public intoxication were: Brisco Holmes (colored), $20 and thirty days in jail; Edward Green, $5; George Boyer, $1; Fred Polte, Henry Sandford, Fred Roon, Cyrus Wright, James Davis, Frank Sullivan, Patrick Doyle, John Delvelin, Arthur Smith were released.

Following were released after pleading guilty to loitering charges: George Reick, Curtis Karoh, Edward Tracy, John Rollins (negro) and George Ward. Christ Seidell and John Keifer are held until Tuesday under $50 bond.

ROANOKE NEWS.

Roanoke, Ind., Nov. 13.—James Blee, who was injured while alighting from a street car at Fort Wayne, has so far recovered that he was able to be removed to the home of his daughter at the above place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hefner left Wednesday for near Danville, Ill., where they will attend the wedding of the latter's brother, Tunis Young.

J. H. York made a business trip to Huntington Monday.

The revival services, which were to begin at Wesley chapel this week, start on next Monday evening.

Mrs. Herald Broxen, of Fort Wayne, and daughter, are visiting relatives here.

D. A. McGinnis was the victim of paralysis last Saturday afternoon, while at his tie barn. He had been talking and joking with his wife and all of a sudden fell from his chair on which he was sitting. He was removed to his home, where his condition has been critical.

The Library club will meet in regular services on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Etha Eddingfield, with Mrs. Eva Chenneour and Misses Eva Roberts and Glenna Kemp hostesses. There will be an address on "State Laws With Which We Should Be Familiar," by S. M. Sayler, of Huntington, and an Indiana story by Mrs. Martha Olds. Every member is invited to attend.

Beulah Alice, the little seven months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raife Hummer, died Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, on Posey Hill. The funeral and interment were held Friday at Lancaster.

Samuel Grim has left for Muncie, where he will spend several weeks with his daughter, Mrs. M. L. Dague, of that place.

The North Main street road will in all probability be finished this week. The dirt covering over the concrete has been removed and if work is not retarded by inclement weather, the stone portion will be all in and rolled ready for traffic. This will be a great help for this vicinity, as the road has been closed practically all summer and it has been necessary to detour by Aboite or Seminary street, to get to Fort Wayne or north from here, but we can now have a good thoroughfare all the way through. Whitley county is also putting their roads in first class condition and this vicinity will not be an eyesore to the public any longer on the road question.

WILL MAKE REPORT TO LEGISLATURE

Governor Ralston Names Legislative Visiting Committee.

Indianapolis, Nov. 13.—Governor Ralston has named the three members of the legislative visiting committee, who will visit all state institutions, commissions, boards, offices, etc., between now and the time for the convening of the legislature, and make report on the needs of each institution, and recommendations to the legislature concerning these needs.

Two of the men appointed on the committee have had wide experience in this work. They are Representative Joseph M. Cravens, of Madison, democrat, and Representative Charles A. McGonagle, of Muncie, republican. The other man appointed, Senator Walter S. Chambers, of Newcastle, is a new member of the board. The financial needs of the state units are usually set out by the committee in a report, which is used by the ways and means committee of the house of representatives and the finance committee of the state senate, as a guide in drawing the appropriation bills.

The members of the visiting committee practically always are members of each of these financial committees in the general assembly. McGonagle served on the committee in the 1915 session, and Cravens has been a member of the committee four times prior to that session.

GARRETT NEWS.

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mrs. D. M. Landrith, of Gladstone, Mich., has arrived in this city and will make arrangements to conduct a piano contest.

Dr. Rodebaugh has lifted the diphtheria quarantine from several homes of this city and placed quarantine cards on the Ed Miller and Paul Seifert homes.

The Garrett football team won the bacon from the Central High School team of Fort Wayne in a game on the local grounds. The score was 33 to 3. The same teams played last Saturday and the Garrett boys won the game then.

Miss Alma Elam, who is attending school at Bryan, Ohio, is spending the week-end with her parents in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palmer were at Auburn attending the funeral of the former's brother.

The West Side Sewing circle of the Catholic church, gave a card party at the school hall. Mrs. Steimetz won the first prize for ladies and Miss Helen Loffl, second, while Frank Seifert won gentleman's first prize and Adam Trapp second.

Charles E. Fitzgerald went to Newark, Ohio, Saturday, for a few days' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ulery and daughter visited relatives in Chicago over Sunday.

Miss Loretta Mager was hostess to the Dolores Girls, Friday evening, at the Mager home on South Gowan street.

Mrs. Cris Sherman spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Cromwell.

Ray Tibbles, a private soldier who has been doing duty on the Mexican border, returned to his home in this city Saturday, owing to the expiration of his enlistment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop were over Sunday guests of the latter's parents in Auburn.

Henderson Ritchie spent the week-end with Miss Helen Holsinger. Mr. Ritchie is city reporter on a Munroe, Michigan, daily paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Cohn Metzler, of Chicago Junction, were called here by the death of the former's mother, Mrs. John Metzler, sr. The funeral of Mrs. Metzler was held Monday morning at Sts. Peter and Paul's Catholic church, the Rev. Father Young officiating, and burial was in Calvary.

The seniors of the Garrett high school enjoyed a delightful party Friday evening, when they were guests of Darewood Mitchell and Paul Grim at the former's home on Walsh street. Thirty members of the class were present.

Mrs. Lucy Van Curen went to Fort Madison, Iowa, Saturday, where she will spend several months with her son, C. H. Van Curen.

Mrs. D. Clouse, of Albion, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Summers, of East King street.

The telephone girls of the local office were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. William Boren. Mrs. Boren will be remembered as Miss Freda Zeek, and until her marriage a short time ago, was employed at the "hello" office.

MERCHANTS MEET TONIGHT.

James W. Fisk, of Associated Advertising Clubs, to Speak.

Much interest is being manifested in the meeting of the Retail Merchants' association of Fort Wayne, to be held Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Commercial club, at which time James W. Fisk, manager of the retail service and business system department of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, will be the principal speaker. To use Mr. Fisk's own expression, this department in brief is "to help the retailers of this country make more money; first, by showing them how to have the facts concerning their business at their fingers' ends, and then how to utilize these facts to the best advantage."

The meeting is an open one to which all retailers in the city are urged to attend. A fifty-cent luncheon will be served.

Holders of Fraternal Insurance

The new rates published by some of the fraternal insurance societies are surprisingly high and disappointing to many members who have heretofore been led to believe that they had good reliable life insurance. For twenty-five years I have been claiming that all fraternal rates were too low and inadequate. The new rates in some instances are higher than the cost of old-line, legal-reserve insurance.

In the interest of your wife and children are you sure that your fraternal membership will provide the absolute protection that you expected it to? If you are still in good health see me at once.

BOWSER INSTALLING PRODUCTION SYSTEM

Expert from Buffalo Has Taken Up the Work—Shop and Rail.

I. W. Young, recently from Buffalo, N. Y., has taken up the work of organizing and installing a production system department at the plant of S. F. Bowser & Co., a work which started some months ago and which Don Mungen would have carried to a consummation had he remained with the company. Mr. Young will work under the direction of H. J. Grosvenor, factory manager. Mr. Young was formerly connected in a responsible way with the Curtis Air Brake company, of Buffalo, and is said to be eminently fitted for the work he has in hand at the Bowser plant.

IS THE WHOLE THING.

Idaho Man Owns and Operates Alone a Railway.

A new use has been found for an abandoned railroad, the Idaho Southern railway, built between Gooding and Jerome a number of years ago for use while the great irrigating projects of the Twin Falls country were being constructed.

An enterprising Idaho man saw an opportunity, so he leased the track, ordered built for him a sixteen passenger high-power automobile, fitted with flange wheels, put it on the track with two light trailers for freight and express and announced that he was ready to do business. It is the only one-man railroad in existence, so far as known.

He is the conductor, engineer, fireman, brakeman, switchman, porter, flagman, station agent, president, vice-president, general manager, section boss and everything that there is on the whole road, including the ticket agent.

ESTABLISH NEW OFFICES.

Material Chaser is the Name of an Important Factory Agent.

Sherwood Hinds and H. M. Bowser have just returned from a successful "material chasing" trip in the interest of S. F. Bowser & Co. Their experience has demonstrated the fact that in these days of freight congestion and shipment delays it pays to send out "chasers" after material needed in building the various products of the Bowser plant. One of the officials of the company said that it was the intention of the company to maintain an office of this kind. "It is impossible to get material promptly unless some one gets out and follows up the shipments, pushing them along by personal appeal to the railway men over whose lines they are shipped," continued the official.

WILL HAVE CELEBRATION.

Grand Officers Coming to Visit the Painters.

Painters' union No. 469 will be honored by a visit from one of the grand officers Thanksgiving eve, when the union will give a banquet and a social. This announcement was made at the last meeting of the local by E. T. Drew. The union is in a most prosperous condition and is growing rapidly. At the last meeting three applicants were initiated and three new applications were received.

FIXED HOELTJE'S CELLAR.

As an expression of gratitude to H. C. Hoeltje for the work he did for them, the Cement Workers union sent a delegation to the Hoeltje residence to install a cement floor in the cellar, and right well they did the work. The delegation was composed of President Wm. Meltz, Secretary Wm. Stapleton, Business Agent O. A. Hoover, Sergeant-at-arms George Japp and James Hoover. Mr. Hoeltje resides at 1220 Michigan avenue and he had assembled the material for the cellar floor when the cement workers heard of it and sent the committee to do the work. Recently Mr. Hoeltje organized the cement workers at considerable expense of time and work on his part, and the incident mentioned was a fitting expression of appreciation for the services.

TO RUN MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.

The Building Trades council, affiliated with which are the carpenters, painters, sheet metal workers, cement finishers, plumbers and steam fitters, electrical workers, lathers and plasterers, building laborers, hod carriers and hoisting engineers, will inaugurate a membership campaign Nov. 20. By a concerted movement it is expected to bring into the order all eligible men not already members of the unions. Invitations have been extended to the national heads of the various unions to come or send representatives to assist in the campaign and some will accept. W. J. Spencer, national secretary of the building trades department of the Federation of Labor, will be here sure.

TO WINTER IN CALIFORNIA.

G. R. Schultz, a draftsman at the General Electric works, has obtained a three months' leave of absence from Foreman William Crighton, and will leave next Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal. It is possible that he may accept employment there and remain permanently. Mr. Schultz has been employed at the General Electric works about six months. He formerly worked at the trade in the Pennsylvania drafting department, being employed there three and a half years. He is regarded as a most capable draftsman. He spent a winter in California five or six years ago.

GETTING MORE MEN.

The situation affecting laborers and helpers at the Pennsylvania shops is beginning to improve and Master Mechanic E. E. Griest is hoping the improvement will continue until the shortage of labor has disappeared. New men at the shops this morning were H. F. Hess, late of Avilla, assigned to the blacksmith shop; V. G. Piepenbrink, R. H. Meehan and C. L. Moushey, in the machine shop, and Ed Sterling, W. Thompson, Thomas Jackson and Harry A. Taylor, in the erecting shop. The four last named are colored men.

NEW FACTORY LUNCH ROOM.

The employes of S. F. Bowser & Co., who do not carry their lunch nor go home to dinner, now find a recently established lunch room in the brick building north of the offices, in charge of Mrs. Viola Zirkle, quite a convenience. Provisions have been made for 125 people, but at present only about sixty are taking their noon-day lunch there. This is a new feature at the Bowser plant, which is destined to be quite popular with the employes.

IMPROVING IN THE WEST.

Chief Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania, received a letter from R. G. Diemer, one of his clerks, who is temporarily located in Wyoming, on account of poor health. He went into the mountainous regions of that state three months ago and in his letter to Mr. Hobrock, he says he is gaining strength and weight, and is feeling first rate. "I will be back at the desk in your office January 1 in good shape," said Mr. Diemer.

AUXILIARY MEETS EARLY.

Because the work to be handled will consume considerable time, Friendship division, No. 18, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive engineers, will open the Wednesday afternoon meeting at 1:30 o'clock instead of 2:30. Mrs. Castle, of Cleveland, one of the grand officers, will be here and will inspect the ritual work of the division. All members are requested to be present.

HAD WRIST BONE BROKEN.

Engineer H. L. Kennedy, of the Van Wert work train of the Pennsylvania, sustained a most painful injury Saturday when he stuck his right hand out of the window of the cab as the locomotive was moving along rapidly, his arm came in contact with a mail crane and some of the bones of the wrist were broken. The accident will put Engineer Kennedy out of commission for several weeks.

MINISTERS TO LAFAYETTE.

Tomorrow the Northern Indiana Lutheran conference opens at Lafayette and the greater portion of the ministers of the territory are assembling there to take part in the three days' session. No. 5 on the Wabash carried a party of thirty-five ministers today and it is likely the early morning train will have another party. A special coach was provided for the Fort Wayne party.

BEN HOSTETLER AT WORK.

After an absence of over three months, Benjamin F. Hostetler resumed work at the Pennsylvania round house this morning. He is foreman of the labor department at that place and three months ago, while at work one day, a wheel rolled over one of his feet and broke some of the ankle bones. The injury has nearly fully recovered and Mr. Hostetler gets around quite actively again.

Y. M. C. A. ANNUAL ELECTION.

The central board of the city and Railroad Y. M. C. A. will hold its annual meeting and election tonight. Four representatives of the city and railroad department each will be elected. According to precedent, a railroad man will be elected president this year to succeed A. H. Perfect, who belongs to the city department.

LEAVES ON BIG TRIP.

R. J. Fisher, of the Bass Foundry and Machine works, left today on a business trip which will take him to Indianapolis, Richmond, Va.; Cleveland, New York, Baltimore, and other eastern cities. He will not return until the early part of next week. Mr. Fisher just returned from a business trip to Pittsburg yesterday.

REPAIRS COMPLETED TONIGHT.

The men engaged in repairing the air compressor at the Bass foundry did not complete the work last night as expected and are still at it. They will finish tonight, however, and foundry rooms 1 and 7, which have been closed on account of the compressor being out of commission, will resume operations tomorrow morning.

IN A NEW OFFICE.

Ed S. Hurlbut, who had headquarters in the factory office at S. F. Bowser & Co., for some time, is now working out of offices in the new store house building. Mr. Hurlbut is the "order chaser" at the plant and his duties are to keep tab on orders and see that they are not unavoidably delayed.

SHOPMEN BACK AT WORK.

Henry Dieckmann, the doormaker at the Pennsylvania planing mills, who had a finger crushed a month ago; H. H. Hoppe, a cabbuilder who was taken ill September 22, and H. Gumbert, an upholsterer who was sick a week, were able to resume their duties this morning.

PUSHING CONCOURSE WORK.

The men engaged in the improvements in the concourse at the Pennsylvania passenger station will complete the west end of the concourse the latter part of the week and will probably complete the eastern portion next week. The work has been delayed by late and irregular receipts of material.

BACK FROM WESTERN TRIP.

Operator L. C. Foster and Chief Clerk Ralph Marker, of the Pennsylvania division operator's office, resumed their respective duties this morning, after a two weeks' trip in the west. They visited Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City and other points and had a most pleasant time.

VISITED SON IN DETROIT.

Gang Foreman E. W. Koehn, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, and Mrs. Koehn have returned from Detroit, where they spent two days with their son, Marvin Koehn. The young man is employed as lost shipment tracer by the New York Central road.

TO ENTERTAIN DIVISION 513.

Mrs. H. L. Reed, of 715 West Superior street, will entertain Nickel Plate division, No. 513, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Tuesday.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pennsylvania Engineers M. O'Brien and M. H. Durnell are off duty on account of sickness.

It is difficult finding 9x15 foot Rugs for the across-the-front rooms in New Fort Wayne houses. They have them at Foster's.

Because of heavy travel, Nickel Plate train No. 1 was split here Sunday, the first section, with through passengers, making the trip to Chicago, without many stops. It carried a number of passengers who were destined to points west and were anxious to make connections in Chicago.

RAINY WEATHER PUTS CRIMP IN THE MARKETS

Receipts Very Light in Every Department—Prices Unchanged.

Rainy weather on Monday morning had its effect on the Fort Wayne markets and receipts were light in every department. All prices of last Saturday held good and dealers made no changes. The wheat market is the only one which seemed to be stirring. There were indications that another rise in price would be effected locally very soon, although no change was made. In some of the large centers, millers say wheat sold for $2.(bushel Monday morning.

The grain market is strong. Oats and corn prices are holding up very high and it is possible that an advance may be made in these departments in Fort Wayne within the next few days.

The hog market is steady with receipts very light. Local dealers and packers state that on account of the steady advance in corn prices the price on hogs is bound to rise.

Poultry prices also show a tendency to advance. Egg prices remained the same as that of Saturday.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—There was a fresh upward swing in the wheat market here today. Furthermore damage to the Argentine crop continued owing to frost, drought and locusts. Opening prices, which ranged from 2c to 2¾c higher with December at $1.91@1.92¼ and May at $1.94@1.95¼, were followed by a reaction but then a rise higher than before. Unfavorable Argentine conditions tended to lift corn as well as wheat. After opening 1½c to 1⅝c up, the market sagged a little and then scored decided additional gains.

Oats, like corn and wheat, ascended to new high price records for 1916.

Toledo Closing Prices.

Toledo, O., Nov. 13.—Close: Wheat—Cash, $1.94; December, $1.95; May, $2.01.
Corn—Cash, $1.07; December, $1.02¼; May $1.01.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 13.—Highly irregular conditions prevailed at the opening of today's market in consequence of a renewal of pressure against some of the prominent specialties. Central Leather was again singled out, making an initial decline of 3⅝ to 110, with more moderat recessions in motors, marine preferred and some of the equipments and rails. Marked strength was shown by the metals with new records for Utah and Ray Coppers. United States Steel was firm with independent industrials at the same class. But the movement in other parts of the list became more confusing with the progress of trading.

Coppers derived greater strength from the increased dividend and reports of the early closing of a large contract for the metal with the French government. Chino was added to the list of new copper issues and Granby rose 5 points. There was a brisk inquiry for Republic Iron, New York Air Brake and Industrial Alcohol at gains of 3 to 5 points. Gulf states steel issues augmented last week's sensational advances with gains of 2 to 3 points. Central Leather made no appreciable recovery and rails continued heavy aside from temporary activity and strength of Rock Island. Bonds were firm.

New York Sugar Market.

New York, Nov. 13.—Raw sugar was steady; refined, steadp, unchanged to 15 points higher.

CHOLERA CONTINUES TO SPREAD AT OSAKA

But Cool Weather Brings a Decrease in Plague at Tokio.

Tokio, Oct. 10.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Although cool weather has brought a decrease of cholera at Tokio the malady continues to spread at Osaka. Up to October 10 the cases at Tokio had reached 548; at Osaka the total was 2,001, with an increase of twenty daily.

At Tokio there have been 151 deaths. The authorities believe that by the end of the month the epidemic will be entirely wiped out here. No foreigner has been attacked by the disease, so far as is known.

The spread of cholera to Korea has had a serious economic effect there, as the authorities have prohibited fishing in a zone extending along 200 miles of coast. Cholera is believed by many physicians to be easily circulated from fish tissue and the fishermen of Korea are said to have failed to comply with sanitary measures ordered by the health department. Some 270,000 fishermen, commanding 40,000 boats, are thus thrown out of work at the most fruitful fishing period of the year. Fear of fish as a microbe carrier has reduced the consumption of fish throughout the Japanese empire and as fish, next to rice, is the chief food of the people the ban placed upon it has caused misery among both fisherman and distributor.

TWO STATES IN TRADE WAR.

New York and New Jersey Struggle for Commercial Supremacy.

New York, Nov. 13.—A battle for commercial supremacy between New York and New Jersey opened today with arguments before the interstate commerce commission for and against New Jersey's plea to divide the port of New York into separate parts. The busiest part of New Jersey's water front is a part of the port of New York and freight rates to the nearby Jersey cities are the same as those into the greater city. New Jersey in the present application seeks to have her water front cut off from the port of New York, thereby giving an advantage in freight rates amounting to approximately the lighterage charges of those goods which have to be transported to the New York side of the harbor.

The chief American article sold in China is kerosene. The value of this single product exceeds all other American imports combined.

Automobiles and Sundries

A $361 car, plus $15 freight, plus $100 for electric starter, plus $13.70 for changing from 3-inch to 3¼ inch tires, and, if you want demountable rims add about $20 more. Shock absorbers would cost another $10 to $20; a mohair top costs $25 to $30. Oh, yes, a ventilating wind shield is $10. Change your lamps for lamps with dimmers is another outlay of $6 or more. Now you have parted with about $550 and still have a $361 car, without a speedometer. So, why not buy a

BABY BONDS IDEAL FOR SMALL INVESTORS

The rate of interest paid upon any security naturally depends upon the element of speculation which enters into the investment. Smaller investors should always be exceedingly careful not to be tempted by the possibility of high returns, for as the rate of interest mounts higher, the degree of safety descends lower. In Baby Bonds the small investor finds a security with a rate of return that is as high as he can expect to receive without losing some of the elements of safety which he should look for in an investment. Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, bear six per cent interest and are secured by first mortgages on local real estate. There are also a few $500 bonds of the same issue which have the same security and bear the same rate of interest. For other particulars see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.

RESULTS SUNDAY.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 13.—Jim Thorpe and his all-star Canton professional football team defeated the Cleveland Indians here Sunday 14 to 7.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 13.—The Heralds, of Detroit, defeated the Pitcairn football eleven, of Pittsburg, 15 to 0 here Sunday. Captain Shields, quarterback for the locals, starred with two touchdowns.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 13.—The Clabby A. A. football team defeated the Ann Arbor (Mich.) eleven here Sunday afternoon 30 to 0. The Clabbys play Davenport, Ia., here next Sunday.

Toledo, O., Nov. 13.—The Triangles, of Dayton, O., formerly Dayton Cadets, defeated Toledo Maroons yesterday, 12 to 0. Two field goals by Williams and a touchdown by Parlow constituted the scoring.

AFTER THOUGHTS ON SUNDAY'S BIG GAME

Our masked marvels whom we are forced to call Elward and Hunter, of course, created a sensation, partially because of the novelty of assumed names, but mostly because they put up a great game at ends. Evanston's back had a hard time making gains around the end. Well, in fact they had a hard time doing anything at all.

Cap Johnson, of the visitors, is a dangerous man and when Evanston had the ball the fans were watching him all the time. When he was about to kick the crowd kept calling to Checkeye and Pliska to back up. This man sure can kick, but his attempt at a drop kick in the fourth period was a fluke. Everybody liked him until after the game when he told the Friars that Wabash would beat them next Sunday. We're going to make him swallow those words. See if we don't.

Anyone who was at the game knows that there is nothing to say about the clever little quarter, but words of praise. He had his opponents figured all the time and knew where the ball had to go to make big gains. In the first quarter he started off like a house on fire and made two big gains by carrying the ball himself. Thanks be to him, too, for a shutout. He was the only man between Johnson and the goal line when the latter made the sensational end run. Coony sure did spill the big man.

There wasn't a player on the local team Sunday who does not deserve bushels of credit. It was a real-for-sure game. The Friar line was a hard one to buck and Evanston soon found it out, too. After seeing that line plunges were for naught and end runs did not bring them much they started a series of forward passes. But we broke that up, too. So there you are. What were the poor boys to do?

When the fans saw "something" shoot through the opponents' line like a twelve-inch shell, without waiting to see who it was after the referee untangled the mass, they all knew it was Chambers. His plunges sure do send up an awful noise from the grandstand and bleachers. When Cap Byroade took him out of the line-up everybody thought he was injured. But Chris says he is tough and is ready for next Sunday's scrimmage.

In his old-time supreme form, Pliska was there again Sunday and established himself deeper in the hearts of his thousands of admirers. He made a long end run for a touchdown in the third period, but it didn't count because the referee called him back and penalized the Friars for holding.

Al Feeney was there, too. He played a great game and his kicking was next to perfect.

Referee Magidsohn is the best official that has been here this season. The fans liked him, too, and although he penalized the Friars several times there was no hissing and howling in the stands.

Halfback Johnson is awful big. This was demonstrated yesterday when he made the holes for Pliska to go through. The Evanston boys were flying thick and fast when he started ploughing through their lines. He carried the ball several times for big gains.

Cap Edwards likes to mix it and when he hits the line something must give way.

Let's see Pine Village beat Wabash yesterday. And by brushing our memory a little, we believe that we beat Pine Village. Therefore, Theorem.

"Hail, hail the Friar team." The howlin' hosts of the Friars will be prepared to meet any attempt at rooting that Wabash may have to offer. Charles Pask is going to officiate as yell leader and he will have ten assistants. The gang will have a special section reserved for them and something is expected. After all the Wabash game is always the big game in Fort Wayne, and there will sure be some time Sunday.

CALENDAR YEAR IS URGED.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Substitution of the calendar year for the fiscal year in interstate railway accounting methods was urged before the interstate commerce commission at a hearing today of a committee of railway accounting officers. Approximately 85 per cent of the railways are said to have advocated the change in letters to the committee. It is urged that the calendar year basis would be much more convenient and would enable the roads to concentrate more attention to maintenance work during the summer months.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication — which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge that is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.—Advertisement.

Strike Will Come If Railroads Balk

LEE MAKES FACT CLEAR

Says Roads Must Live Up to Spirit and Intent of Adamson Law.

STRIKE VOTE STILL IN EFFECT, HE SAYS

Announcement Comes in Connection With New York Conference.

New York, Nov. 13.—Failure of the railroads of the country to live up to the spirit and intent of the Adamson eight-hour law will result in the strike vote of the big four railroad brotherhoods being put into effect, it was announced here today by Wm. G. Lee, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, after a three-hour conference between brotherhood and railway representatives.

The conference was called to discuss and if possible reach some arrangement or conclusion as to working out the provisions of the law which goes into effect January 1.

The strike vote referred to by Mr. Lee is that taken prior to the conferences between the brotherhood heads and President Wilson which was followed by the passage of the Adamson law, after the brotherhods had threatened to put the vote into effect at that time.

Nothing Yet Accomplished.

When the conference adjourned today for luncheon it was stated by brotherhood representatives that so far nothing had been accomplished. They said they had worked out an interpretation of the eight hour law, but they had refused to divulge it for the reason that the railroads, or some of them, had announced their decision to fight it through injunction.

"A strike vote is still in effect," said Mr. Lee, "and if the railroads do not live up to the very spirit and intent of the law there is no reason why the brotherhoods should not take advantage of their strong card. This time there is nothing that can stop them."

Mr. Lee added that any attempt at subterfuge by the railroads in placing in effect the eight hour law will be met with instant action by the brotherhoods.

It was announced that the conference would resume its deliberations at 2 o'clock.

THE CONFERENCE OPENS.

New York, Nov. 13.—Representatives oft he railroads and their trainmen, who will benefit under the Adamson eight-hour law, gathered here today for the first of a series of conferences to discuss ways and means for the application of the statute.

The meeting was described by representatives of the roads as one for formal discussion only, with the purpose of determining whether both sides view the law in the same light. Neither side understood the legislation or how it was to be applied, it was stated, and an effort was to be made to reach some common ground for application if the supreme court decides the law is constitutional in the suits brought by several roads to determine this fact.

Elisha Lee heads the conference committee of managers, which represents the roads in the discussions, beginning today. W. G. Lee, A. B. Garretson, W. E. Stone and W. S. Carter, heads of the four trainmen's brotherhoods, were among the men's representatives.

Sixty Men Sent Ashore From Gunboat Wheeling In Mexico.

Puerto, Mex., Nov. 13.—Sixty men from the United States gunboat Wheeling were sent ashore yesterday to fight a fire caused by lightning which struck two tanks of crude oil, with a capacity of 55,000 barrels each. Five adjoining oil tanks were threatened but eventually the fire was checked.

PROSECUTOR, BEATEN AT POLLS, ON TRIAL

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 13.—Trial of Oscar D. McDaniel, prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county, charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Harriet Moss McDaniel, was resumed today. The trial was halted three weeks ago by allegations that the jury venire had been prejudiced. John T. Barker, attorney general of Missouri, has charge of the prosecution.

The indicted prosecutor was beaten by a large vote last Tuesday after a heated campaign for re-election, in the course of which he discussed the charge against hi min virtually every precinct of the county.

COLD WAVE ON ITS WAY

26 BELOW ZERO AT SHERIDAN, WYOMING

Washington, Nov. 13.—A cold wave with temperatures at various places lower than ever before recorded in November overspreads the region west of the Mississippi river today and will move eastward to the Atlantic coast.

Sheridan, Wyo., reported the lowest temperature with 26 degrees below zero; Lander, Wyo., 24 degrees zero, and Cheyenne, Wyo., Yellow Stone National Park and Havre, Mont., 20 degrees below zero. The intense cold reaches southward into the interior of Texas.

Weather bureau officials today said the cold wave would diminish in intensity as it moved eastward. Its movement and intensity was dependent somewhat, they pointed out, upon the West Indian disturbance which was reported this morning in the Caribbean sea in the vicinity of Swan islands.

Rain and snow probably will precede

Young Murdock Held for Inquest When Miss McGowan is Killed.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 13.—Miss Catherine Mayer, of Indianapolis, and James Gordon Murdock, a Yale freshman, of Lafayette, Ind., who were injured in the accident to Murdock's automobile near Milford late Saturday night in which Miss Marjorie McGowan, also of Indianapolis, was killed, were reported today as recovering. Coroner Eli Mix today continued his investigation of the accident.

James Gordon Murdock was driving the car, which he had purchased the day before. He has a broken thigh and internal injuries. His brother, Alexander G. Murdock, suffered a scalp wound and minor injuries. The young men are sons of Samuel T. Murdock, now of Indianapolis.

The accident was a collision of automobiles on Saturday night when the big Murdock car and a smaller machine crashed together. James Gordon Murdock is being held for the coroner's inquest.

FEEDS 1,000 POOR; KEEPS VOW HE MADE 20 YEARS AGO

New York, Nov. 13.—Twenty years ago Max Gootschneider, with his wife and baby girl arrived in New York penniless from Volna, Russia. He begged help from charitable organizations and was given a job as a fur dyer. In return he made a vow that when his daughter was married all men who were hungry, as he was then, should be fed.

The immigrant became a prosperous fur dealer and yesterday announced the coming marriage of his daughter. He drove to the Hebrew society's headquarters in his limousine and explained that he was ready to keep the vow made a score of years ago.

"How many immigrants have you here now?" he asked. He was told about 200.

"Not enough," he declared. "Go out into the neighborhood. I want to feed any number up to 1,000; perhaps more if you can get them."

Nearly 1,000 poor were fed at his expense between 1 p. m. and midnight.

FOREMAN IS INJURED WHEN CABLE SLIPS

Drops Ten Feet With Elevator at New Mulholland Building.

Rain, which fell Monday morning, wet the steel cable that runs through the several pulleys of the temporary elevator used in construction of the new Mulholland building to be occupied by the gas company, on East Wayne street. The cable slipped and allowed the freight elevator to drop ten feet down the shaft to the ground.

Lee Harner, sixty-one years old, 125 East Washington street, foreman of the construction job, was standing on the elevator when the platform went down. Harner fell in a heap as the elevator struck the ground. Four fellow workmen gathered him up and carried him more than a square to his home.

Both his ankles were badly sprained and his back strained, the physician who was summoned, found. Harner will be bed fast for some time, because of his advanced age and wracking shock of the fall. For a time it was feared that he was critically injured. His wife was prostrated when her husband was carired into their apartments in a helpless condition.

POSTAL CLERKS HAVE ENTERED A PROTEST

Object to Working More Than Eight Hours in Any One Day.

Washington, Nov. 13.—In a letter to President Wilson, made public today, Thomas F. Flaherty, secretary and treasurer of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, entered a protest against working postoffice clerks more than eight hours a day. The letter calls the attention of the president to the fact that a law passed by congress provided that clerks shall not be required to work more than eight hours a day within ten hours and for working in excess of this are to be paid overtime in proportion to their salaries.

"This law contemplated that only in emergencies should more than eight hours be required," Mr. Flaherty said in his letter. "Yet in many of the large postoffices, notably New York, Chicago, Boston and Cleveland, the clerks are forced daily and nightly to work ten, eleven and even twelve hours."

FORCES PILOT TO DESCEND.

Leak in Gasoline Line Prevents Flight to Indianapolis.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 13.—A leak in the gasoline line of his big 150-horsepower biplane tractor airplane prevented Aviator Castory, of Chicago, in the plane built at the American Aircraft company, from flying to Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. The machine was 2,500 feet in the air when the gasoline line burst and the pilot was forced to descend. The flight to Indianapolis, where several stockholders of the company reside, will be made this week.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS CAUSES BABY'S DEATH

Elkhart Child, Taken to Kendallville for Treatment, is Dead.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mary Louise Glowson, the 18-months-old child of Leona Hibbs, 20, of Elkhart, which was brought here Sunday by the mother for treatment at the Co-operative hospital for infantile paralysis and refused admission there after the nature of the babe's ailment was learned, died this morning. After the child was refused admission in the hospital and after the mother and babe were detained for several hours in the baggage room at the union station, A. R. Cole, of the Gospel Mission on Oak street, threw open the doors, admitting both the mother and babe.

Much excitement prevails here and health officers are taking every known precaution in an effort to prevent a spread of the disease. It is feared several have been exposed. The babe was in a dying condition when brought here and nothing that medical science could do could save its life.

Dr. H. O. Williams, secretary of the city board of health, has taken charge of the situation. He states that the mother told him that physicians in Elkhart had been suspicious of the case for days and that it was upon their advice that she brought the child to the local hospital.

SYRIAN RELIEF FUND IS SENT TO NEW YORK

In a meeting on Sunday, Syrians of Fort Wayne decided to give of their savings each month for the cause of Syrian relief. They expect to collect their savings from time to time and offer theim to their starving countrymen

The $703 gathered in Fort Wayne for the first ship load of provisions to be sent abroad was mailed to New York on Saturday by Cusma T. David, treasurer of the local Syrian society. One of the late contributions to the cause was E. F. Yarnell, who gave $5.

STRIKE CUTS HEAVILY INTO RAIL REVENUES

New York, Nov. 13.—During September and October the strike of street railway employes caused the passenger revenue of the New York Railways company, operators of surface trolley lines, to drop $1,407,420 below the amount derived from this source in the same period of 1915, according to a statement published by the company today.

There were 23,589,959 fewer fares carried during that period than during the same two months of a year ago. A large proportion of this volume reached the subway and elevated lines which showed an increase in receipts of nearly one million dollars.

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN IN CORN SHOW

Twenty-Eight Farmers Already Announce They Will Take Part.

Twenty-eight farmers of Allen county at this early date have notified A. J. Hutchins, county agent, that they will take part in the county corn show to be held in the assembly room of the court house during the month of December. This number, the county agent states, is unusually large, for a first call for competition which was only issued Saturday.

The county agent will enlist the aid of farmers in all sections of the county and the show will be one of the largest of its kind ever held. Blanks are to be sent out asking farmers to attach their signatures under an agreement to exhibit corn at the show. Mr. Hutchins is now considering decorations for the assembly hall, judges for the show and other details.

Attend Hog Sale.

CENTRAL BOARD TO NAME FOUR MEMBERS

Central board of the Young Men's Christian association will hold a meeting tonight, starting at 7:30, at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. building, to elect four members of the board, to hear reports on the city and railroad departments of the Y. M. C. A., to receive reports of the treasurer and to elect a ninth member of the central board and any advisory members thought necessary.

It is necessary to select four members of the board because of the death of one member and the expiration of terms of three other members.

MINNESOTA SOLDIERS VOTING FOR WILSON

St. Paul, Nov. 13.—Two more county soldiers' votes reported today, cut the Hughes' lead in Minnesota to 229. Troops from Brown county voted 27 to 16 in Wilson's favor and Martin county's soldiery voted 21 for Wilson and 11 for Hughes, a net gain of 21 for Wilson. The total now stands Wilson 173617, Hughes 178,846.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 13.—The vote of Minnesota's soldiers on the border has trimmed the plurality for Charles E. Hughes to 250, according to latest returns available. Today the figures stand 178,569 for Wilson to 178,819 for Hughes in the state.

The latest guardsmen vote heard from was that of Fairmount county, whose troops of the second regiment voted 21 for Wilson to 11 for Hughes. This gain of ten for Wilson cut the Hughes lead to 250. It is likely that the work of tabulating returns will begin at the state capital today, when the reports of county officials are expected to arrive.

NO MORE NATURAL GAS CONNECTIONS

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 13.—Notice that no more connections for gas can be made has been given through advertisements in newspapers by theCentral Indiana Gas company. The company supplies the gas used in Muncie, Alexandria, Elwood, Marion and other eastern Indiana cities. It also supplies cities in Ohio. The gas is piped from West Virginia.

The reason for making no new connections is said to be an expected increased demand on the supply when severe cold weather starts. The calls for gas have been heavier because of the high price of coal, the company says.

EVIDENCE IS YET LACKING

Washington Withholds Its Judgment in Submarine Situation.

ALL RECENT CASES TAKEN UP AS WHOLE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Secretary Lansing laid before President Wilson today a summary of information regarding submarine attacks on vessels carrying Americans, but reported that sufficient evidence was not yet at hand on which to base action. He said no information had been received from the Berlin government in response to an inquiry sent through the American embassy there concerning the sinking of the Marina, when six American lives were lost.

While state department officials consider the submarine situation as serious, no decision had been reached today as to whether Germany has violated pledges given to the American government after the attack on the channel steamer Sussex.

All recent submarine activities, including the raid of the U-53 off the New England coast, are being considered at the state department together in an effort to determine whether a new submarine policy has been adopted by Germany.

No new developments of vital importance in the Mexican situation were reported to the president by Mr. Lansing. While it is understood Mexican relations are not in a satisfactory state from the standpoint of the administration, the commission at Atlantic City will be given further opportunity to reach an agreement.

FOREIGN PROBLEMS FIRST.

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson was back at his desk at the white house today after an absence of two months, prepared to take up important foreign problems, which have been held in abeyance pending the election, as well as domestic questions. These included the German submarine situation, the Mexican problem and a number of federal appointments.

The president was expected to consider first the submarine situation, which is admittedly serious. A summary of recent developments in German submarine warfare, prepared by the state department, was ready to be laid before him and in addition will probably confer with Ambassador Gerard on the situation.

As to Cabinet Changes.

The president has not even considered the question of changes in his cabinet, according to administration officials, who characterize as premature reports that he had decided on such changes. It is possible, however, that one or two cabinet officers may not remain after March 4.

Although Mr. Wilson was tired out when he returned to the white house last night, he was up early today and had breakfast before 8 o'clock. Immediately afterward he began reading a huge stack of mail accumulated during his trip to Williamstown, Mass.

Asked As to House.

The president asked first for the latest information on the political makeup of the house of representatives in the sixty-fifth congress. He was told indications from present returns were that the republicans would have 217 members and the democrats 212, with six members of other parties. The president was understood to be concerned over the make-up of the next house chiefly because of its effect on the selection of the speaker and chairmanships of committees, which he is anxious to see in the hands of democrats. As far as legislation is concerned, it was said today Mr. Wilson is confident that most measures to be proposed by him would gain the

Strike at German Hosts on Both Sides of Ancre River in France.

Today's War News Given in Summary

Today's announcement by London that the British have opened an attack on both sides of the Ancre river in northern France indicates the possibility that an important new offensive has begun.

Reports from Petrograd, so far unconfirmed by official advices, declare that Field Marshal von Mackensen is continuing his retreat in Dobrudja under disastrous conditions. It is even said that the Russians have succeeded in crossing the Danube at two points south of Tchernavoda.

The Black sea port of Constanza is reported again under fire of the Russian fleet. The recent Serbian victory in Macedonia seems to have been a brilliant one. Germans and Bulgarians were pushed back nearly two miles in the Cerna river southeast of Monastir in a two-day battle and that they lost 1,000 men in prisoners.

Official Berlin today reports that entente artillery was yesterday shelling Tchernavoda in Dobrudja from across the Danube. Teutonic progress continues on the Transylvania border of Rumania, the German statement declares. Three towns were captured, numerous attacks by the Rumanians were repulsed and more than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

The French, according to Berlin, opened an offensive yesterday in Upper Alsace but were defeated in their attempts to advance. German artillery, it is declared, broke up entente efforts to gain ground in the Somme area.

Today's German official statement besides indicating that Field Marshal von Mackensen is still in possession of the Tchernavoda-Constanza railway line, declares that hostile forces advancing down the Danube in Dobrudja were driven back.

Regarding the fighting along the Transylvanian border, Bucharest reports the Rumanians as holding their own in an all day battle northeast of Campulung, but being compelled to retire under pressure on the right bank of the river Alt.

Petrograd, Nov. 13.—(Via London, 3 p. m.)—An official statement issued here today says that a majority of German vessels which took part Friday in a bombardment in the Gulf of Finland were sunk.

The German warships, the statement says, were 36-knot torpedo craft.

ON BOTH SIDES OF ANCRE.

Reports Indicate Important New Allied Offensive in France.

London, Nov. 13.—(4:45 p. m.)—The British troops in their new offensive north of the Ancre river have advanced to a maximum depth of one mile, capturing from the Germans the towns of Beaumont-Hamel and Saint Pierre, according to the correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company at British headquarters.

Fighting is still going on between the German and British troops around the line of Serre about two miles north of Beaumont-Hamel. Two thousand prisoners have been taken by the British.

The British opened an attack this morning on both sides of the Ancre river, on the northern part of the Somme front. The war office reports the capture of a considerable number of prisoners.

Russians Cross Danube.

The Russians have crossed the Danube into Dobrudja at two points south of Tchernavoda and the Russian fleet has renewed the bombardment of Constanza, according to Petrograd advices received today by wireless by way of Rome.

The ravages of disease the military sustained are declared in the Petrograd advices to have seriously affected the morale of von Makensen's army while the reinforcements he requested to make good his losses are said not to have been provided, his retreat therefore being conducted under disastrous conditions.

GEORGE SPECK KILLED FIGHTING FOR ALLIES

While on the field of action in France, George Speck, aged 19 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Speck, 709 St. Mary's avenue, this city, was killed on October 21 while fighting for the allies. This word was received by the parents from the British war department, Saturday. The Fort Wayne youth was a member of the Seventy-seventh Canadian battalion. No details of how he lost his life were given.

A brother, Arbold Speck, aged 17 years, is also fighting with the Canadian troops in France, presumably near Verdun. The two brothers left Fort Wayne more than a year ago and enlisted at Ottawa. George sailed with his troops on June 17, about a month after his younger brother had gone. The father of the deceased made a trip to Canada to bid his son farewell when he sailed.

The family moved to this city six years ago from Cornwall, Ontario. The young man was employed at the Hoffman lumber yards and had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Besides the parents he is survived by eleven brothers and sisters.

Burial was made in France with military honors. The father states that it will be impossible to bring the body to this city.

NEWSBOYS TO MEET ONCE EACH MONTH

Newsboys of Fort Wayne, those who sell papers on the streets, and who were guests at a banquet and entertainment given by the Rotary club recently, will be organized to meet monthly under direction of Charles A. Phelps, known in this city as "daddy of the newsies."

It is the plan, Mr. Phelps says, to bring a speaker each month before the boys who can lay the present day achievements before them in a way of suggestion but not preaching. It is the idea of the Rotarians, and Mr. Phelps particularly, to make the "newsies" independent citizens. Circulation managers of the Fort Wayne papers have entered heartily into the plan of monthly meetings.

ZAPATISTAS SLAY 100 IN MASSACRE

Mexico City Papers Report Attack on Train by Bandits.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 13.—An indiscriminate massacre of nearly 100 women, children and Carranza soldiers, who were traveling on a train near Contreras, state of Morelos, which was attacked by Zapata followers, is reported in Mexico City newspapers received here yesterday. After the attack on the train the dead lay in piles beside the cars, the papers state.

Only one person, so far as known, escaped death at the hands of the bandits. He was Capt. Antonio Priegos.

The attack occurred on Nov. 7. The passenger train, convoyed by a military train five miles in advance, was halted in a mountain wilderness after the military train had been allowed to pass unmolested. For fifteen minutes the Zapatistas kept up the slaughter, slaying men and women, who prayed for mercy, and killing the babies who accompanied their mothers, the papers declare. Soldiers aboard the passenger train were without their accoutrements and unable to offer any assistance. Among the list of dead given in the Mexico City papers is the name of Col. Garido Alfaro, two majors and three captains.

When a relief train reached the scene of the attack, several hours after it occurred, the Zapatistas had scattered into the hills. They had looted the express car of its valuables before departing.

CHURCH OF GOD OPENS ANNUAL FALL ASSEMBLY

Five States Represented at Religious Gathering at Anderson.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 13.—The annual fall assembly of the Church of God opened Sunday at Gospel Trumpet camp. The sessions will be continued until next Sunday evening with three meetings held each day. The states of Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan and Indiana are represented at the meetings. Rev. L. H. Morgan of Herrin, Ill., and Rev. E. A. Reardon of Chicago will be among the main speakers during the sessions. Sunday's program included morning, afternoon and evening meetings, with the services conducted by Rev. Orville Line of Wilmot, Ind., Rev. J. T. Wilson of Anderson and Rev. F. G. Smith, editor of the Gospel Trumpet.

One of the features of the assembly will be the ordinance or feet washing service on Saturday afternoon. Because of the large crowds which have been attending the fall assembly and the general assembly in June, a new auditorium to seat 5,000 persons and a church with a capacity of 10,000 persons are being erected on the camp grounds.

LEWIS SNYDER DIES WHILE DRIVING AUTO

New Haven, Ind., Nov. 13.—Lewis Snyder, aged 43 years, a lifelong resident of Allen county, was a victim of apoplexy Sunday evening while driving his automobile home from Fort Wayne. He suffered the stroke at a point just one mile from this city near the Brudi farm, and died before he could be removed from the machine.

In the car at the time were Joseph Brudi, his wife and daughter. The car was traveling at a fair rate of speed when Mr. Brudi noticed that the auto was headed for the ditch. He glanced at Mr. Snyder and saw that the man was ghastly pale. He succeeded in stopping the car and then attended Mr. Snyder, who died, however, a few seconds afterward.

Mr. Snyder was a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters and was a member of St. John's Catholic church, of New Haven. Besides the widow he is survived by the parents and five children.

WILL BOOST FORT WAYNE AT MEETING

Local Realty Operators Are Going to Evansville With Enthusiasm.

Thirty members of the Fort Wayne Real Estate Exchange, accompanied in many cases by their wives, will leave the city at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon over the Lake Erie railroad for Indianapolis, where they will be entertained by the real estate board in that city prior to leaving the capital at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday, arriving in Evansville Wednesday morning at 6:30 o'clock to attend sessions of the Indiana Real Estate association which will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

At Indianapolis various realty boards of the state will be entertained by the Indianapolis real estate board and Hector Fuller, dramatic editor of the Indianapolis Star, will entertain with a lecture on his travels abroad. Full program for the real estate men's convention has been announced and one of the most profitable meetings ever held is anticipated.

Louis L. Bart is chairman of the booster committee for the trip of the Fort Wayne delegation and he says Fort Wayne is going to be on the map at the convention.

Anthony Wayne Court of Honor, No. 948, will give a pedro party in App's hall, on South Calhoun street, Tuesday afternoon. The public is invited.

The Russian Statement.

The statement reads: "Baltic sea: On Friday night a flotilla of the enemy's thirty-six knto torpedo craft entered the bay of Finland. A dense fog hid the vessels and the enemy succeeded in bombarding the Baltic coast for several minutes.

"About one hundred shells, mostly shrapnel, were fired. Seven civilians, including five children and two rank-and-file, were killed. One woman and four soldiers were wounded. Several houses were damaged and twelve horses were willed.

"The enemy retired hurriedly, but we sank a majority of the torpedo craft. Further pursuit of hostile units was abandoned in consequence of a dense fog and the timely discovery of the enemy's traps."

The Gulf of Finland is an arm of the Baltic sea between Finland and the Russian Baltic provinces. At the eastern end of the bay is Kronstadt, the outer port of Petrograd. The entrance to the gulf is guarded by the fortresses of Helsingfors, Hango and Revel.

Most of the German naval activity in the war with Russia has been in the vicinty of the Gulf of Riga and on one occasion the Germans effected a landing in the rear of the Russian line. The fact that only light German warships were employed on Friday, however, indicates that the purpose of the German admiralty was merely to make a quick raid.

SERBIANS WIN VICTORY.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The Serbians have won a brilliant victory over the Germans and Bulgarians in the Cerna district southeast of Monastir, the war office announced today. The Serbians supported by French artillery forced the Teutonic allies to retreat a distance of nearly two miles and captured about 1,000 prisoners.

The retreat of the German-Bulgarian force was compelled after a battle lasting two days. The prisonerstaken raise the total captures since Sept. 12, says the statement, to 6,000 men, together with 72 cannon and 53 machine guns taken during this period.

There was only the usual cannonading during the night along the front in France, says today's announcement by the war office.

FORCED TO YIELD GROUND.

Bucharest, Nov. 13.—In an all day battle in the region of Dragoslavele, northeast of Campulung, south of the Transylvania border, the Rumanians maintained their positions, the war office announced today. On the right bank of the river Alt, however, the Rumanian forces were compelled to yield ground.

BULGARS ADMIT LOSS.

Sofia, Nov. 13.—An advance for the Serbians in the Cerna bend is admitted in the official statement issued by the war office today.

BROKEN BY GERMAN FIRE.

Berlin Reports Check to Allies and Gain in Transylvania.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—(By Wireless to Sayville.)—Attempts of entente troops to advance between the Ancre and the Somme yesterday were broken up by German artillery fire, the war office announced today. In upper Tisace the French took the offensive but their efforts to advance failed completely.

In the town of Sailly-Saillisel, according to the statement, the German forces continue to hold the east edge of the town. The statement reads:

"Western theater:—Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht: Between the Ancre river and the Somme river there was intermittent strong artillery firing. Our fire dispersed hostile infantry on the Terrain before our position south of Warlencourt and it was effective against troops assembling in the British trenches west of Eaucourt L'Abbaye.

"In Sailly-Saillisel we hold the edge of the town. On both sides of the village attacked in the afternoon with strong forces. They were repulsed.

"Army group of German crown prince: A French advance north of Doller, in upper Alsace, launched after artillery preparations completely failed."

Three Towns Captured.

On the Transylvanian front yesterday Austro-German troops captured three towns and repulsed numerous Rumanian attacks, the war office announces. More than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

The town captured are Dicta and Arsuriler in the Gyergyo mountains on the northern part of the front and Candesti in Rumania, northwest of Campulung.

In Dobrudja Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces repelled troops which were advancing down the west bank of the Danube.

ACCEPTS POSITION IN EAST.

Herman Hofstadter Tenders Resignation With Grand Leader.

No doubt it will be a surprise to many to learn that Herman Hofstadter, formerly manager and buyer for ready-to-wear and millinery departments since the Grand Leader has been here in business, has left to accept a position in the east. Over thirty of the store's employes were at teh train to bid Mr. and Mrs. Hofstadter a parting farewell. The employes presented Mr. Hofstadter with a handsome Masonic emblem, of which order he was a member here.

Refuses Comment on Election.

Mr. Wilson continued to refuse to make any comment on the election pending the receipt of formal word from Mr. Hughes and the republican national committee conceding his re-election. After a brief stay in Washington the president may go away for a rest before congress convenes. Hot Springs, Va., was mentioned as the place he might visit. He will make no definite plans, however, until he has got in thorough touch with official business here and learned whether the submarine or Mexican situations require his presence.

Secretary Lansing planned to confer with the president today on recent submarine attacks on vessels carrying Americans and the Mexican situation. While officials admit that the submarine situation is filled with grave possibilities no action will be taken until further reports have been received. It was said today that no evidence so far has been received by the state department that Germany's pledges have been violated.

Changes in Cabinet.

In case there are any changes in President Wilson's cabinet it was understood today that among those who may be seriously considered are Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams college and a son of former President James A. Garfield; Samuel L. Seabury, the defeated democrat for governor of New York; and Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee.

There have been many reports circulated regarding changes in the cabinet, but officials in close touch with the president declared today that it is almost certain that he will urge all present members of the cabinet to remain at their posts and changes are not expected unless members themselves desire to quit the official family. It is considered possible, however, that one or more members of the cabinet may resign for personal reasons.

Case of Mr. McAdoo.

Secretary McAdoo has been frequently mentioned as one member likely to chairman of the house banking and currency committee, has been suggested for this post. It was stated officially today that Mr. McAdoo can remain in the president's cabinet as long as he desires, and it was denied he had offered his resignation.

In case there is a vacancy on the supreme court bench, Attorney General Gregory, Senators Lane or Walsh (Mont.) would be considered first for the appointment. Secretary Redfield, Secretary Baker and Secretary Daniels have been mentioned as members of the cabinet who might desire to quit public life, but it was stated definitely today that not one of them had signified any such intention.

Secretary Tumulty is also expected to remain in his present post, although he could be appointed as a member of the board of general appraisers in New York if he desired. Reports have connected Mr. Tumulty's name with a cabinet position, but it was stated authoritatively today that he will not become a cabinet officer.

USE A "MILK IMPROVER."

London, Nov. 13.—To avoid hardships arising out of the higher price of milk, the Housewives War league has put on the market a so-called "milk improver." It is a white powder, with the correct combination of bone and flesh-forming constituents. A penny's worth, mixed with a pint of water, is added to a pint of cow's milk, and the housewife has a quart of "just-as-good."

WILL JOLLIFY TUESDAY.

The democrats of Monroeville and vicinity will jollify Tuesday evening of this week. There will be a speaker and a big parade headed by a band. There will also be much redfire and no end of enthusiasm.

WILL SELECT OWN HOME.

Indianapolis, Nov. 13.—James F. Goodrich, governor-elect, probably will not occupy the house here given to the state as a governor's mansion by the Indianapolis park commissioners. The gift was offered with the understanding that it was to be by an act of the legislature. Mr. Goodrich when here yesterday said he was opposed to the acceptance of the property as he is also opposed to the state buying a home for the governor. He based his opposition on the fact that the expense of upkeep would be so great that a poor man, if elected governor, would be unable to maintain the place.

C. Scott, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, and his wife were guests of friends in Chicago over Sunday.

AT THE LYRIC.

Chaplin and Florence Turner on the Lyric Program Today.

The program at the Lyric for today and tomorrow consists of "Doorsteps," a screen version of the noted English comedy, featuring Florence Turner, which is in five acts, and the latest Chaplin comedy. "Behind the Screen" is the title of the new Mutual-Chaplin special feature. This date is two weeks later than the scheduled date, but the coming production is so stupendous and required so many special sets, that it was deemed best to postpone the release date and make the production one which will be talked about for months to come. It deals with life in a motion picture studio. Never before did he depict for the screen so many absurd and ridiculous adventures. In times gone by various comedians have attempted to enact a comedy of studio life. The public has been given a peep behind the scenes and shown how certain types of production are staged by motion picture directors. But never before has anybody played horse with the serious business of film-making in the fashion that Charlie Chaplin does. The mere thought of Charlie, turned loose in a big motion picture plant to do as he wills brings smiles to the lips. "Behind the Screen" is the seventh of the Mutual-Chaplin specials.

AT THE TEMPLE.

"Arizona" Will Delight Temple Audiences This Week.

With Jack Doty in the role of the dashing, handsome Lieutenant Denton, U. S. A., in "Arizona," that splendid dramatic offering is certain to please big audiences at the Temple this week. "Arizona" is a four act drama by Augustus Thomas, and many critics believe the great playwright reached his highest accomplishment in the production of a drama which has thrilled millions of people. It is essentially a story of the great southwest, in which Arizona is made the action of the play. The scenes are largely military, and one is staged as the army post of the Eleventh U. S. cavalry. Owen Coil as Col. Bonham, commanding officer, makes an ideal officer. His staff officers, Capt. Hodgeman and Dr. Fenlon, the regimental surgeon of the Eleventh, as well as Sergeant Keller, of the same outfit, impart a military atmosphere to "Arizona." Walter Turner is Capt. Hodgeman and Manager Louis Wolford is Surgeon Fenlon. The feminine roles are admirably portrayed by Miss Ann Burt, as Bonita Canby, Miss Claire Maslin as Mrs. Estralla Bonham, wife of Col. Bonham; Miss Maude Grafton as Mrs. Canby, wife of the rancher, and Miss May Tipton as Lena Kellar. Maurice Jenkins is a Mexican Vaquero, Tony Mostano, and Charles K. Franklyn gives a splendid impersonation of Henry Canby, owner of the Araviapa ranch and an old-time westerner, whom wealth and fortune has not changed. The stage and scenic effects are excellent. Tonight there will be a reception and dancing on the stage at the close of the performance. Matinees of "Arizona" will be played on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Will Give a Tea.

Mad Anthony review, Women's Benefit Association of Maccabees, will give a tea Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Heller, 1202 Lambert drive.

Curls and Waves

Girls! Try this! Before curling or waving your hair with pins, papers or a heated iron, just moisten each strand with atalpa water and you will be delighted how natural the curls and waves appear and how long they last in spite of wind, dampness or perspiration. A few ounces of atalpa water will cost very little at any drug store and there is nothing better to help retain the curls and waves or to soften, gloss or fluff the hair and to make it look thick and abundant.—Advertisement.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

LOCKED IN CAR OF BEANS.

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 13.—Securely locked in a car loaded with beans, traveling for parts unknown, was the plight of John Aman, of Lisbon, manager of the Noble County Canning company, Saturday afternoon. Aman was loading a car of beans at the Lisbon side track, when the northbound G. R. & I. local bumped into the car and brought it to the "Y" at this city to be transferred to the New York Central lines. When the train struck the car the door closed and Aman could not get out, or attract the attention of railroad men on the job at the time. When Aman came up missing so suddenly, it dawned upon W. L. Baughman that he had been locked in the car, and telephoning to Agent Weber of the G. R. & I. at this city, a hurried investigation was made. Fortunately the car was still on the side track or Manager Aman would now be on his way to New York, the destination of the car of beans. Agent Weber went to the "Y" and upon opening the car door found Mr. Aman thoroughly frightened and somewhat excited, anxiously waiting for his deliverer.

HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Kendallville, Ind., Nov. 13.—While bound for Albion Friday evening, A. R. Cole, agent for the Noble County Board of Children's Guardians, was painfully bruised about the hip and shoulder and may be suffering with internal injuries, the result of an automobile collision near Albion. He is now confined to his bed at his home on Oak street. Mr. Cole was riding in the Charles Westphal taxicab, driven by Ralph Zimmerman, when the car collided with an automobile driven by a Mr. Eshelman, of Wolcottville. There were several other occupants in the car, including some of the boys who were brought in the city court Friday on a charge of robbing the Sellers & Treesh store, but they escaped with a few slight bruises. Mr. Cole was thrown clear from the car.

WILL SOON MIGRATE.

Laud, Ind., Nov. 13.—A colony comprising Elisha Swan and wife, Dr. S. R. White and wife, Dale White and family, Eli Simmons and wife and two others in the Simmons family are preparing to spend the winter at Smyrna, Fla., as several of the members of the party have done for the last several winters. On next Wednesday Dale White will start on the trip to drive through in his touring car going by way of Indianapolis and will follow the Dixie highway. He will be accompanied by Mr. Swan. In about two or three weeks the remainder of the party will make the trip by train, and all will be together in a sort of colony for the winter expecting to remain in Florida until about the first of next April.

HIGHWAYS ARE SOLD.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 13.—Bids for the construction of the Cornelius roads, bordering on Thornecreek, Richland, Etna and Troy townships, have been received by the county commissioners and the contract for both awarded to Eles E. Lehner & Company. The Cornelius road, of which the estimated cost of construction was $26,800, was sold for $25,686, with Melvin Blain bidding also at $26,795.75. The Wise road, with its estimated cost of construction placed at $11,977.60, was sold for $11,647.80. Other bidders on this job were Melvin Blain, at $11,967.25, and Ed Scott at $11,976. The road bonds will be sold later.

MYSTERIOUS MESSAGE RECEIVED.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 13.—Marshal Henry Fritz Saturday afternoon received a message from Chicago, informing him that Benjamin F. Allen, of that city, had received a message from Bluffton informing him that his Ford automobile, license No. 22,371, Ill., was being held here. Mr. Allen was unable to secure the name of the party furnishing the information and Marshal Fritz was asked to investigate. No trace of any call to Mr. Allen from Bluffton could be found in the records at the telephone office and Marshal Fritz thinks that the call probably came from Bluffton, Ohio. The machine was stolen November 4.

ROBBED IN HARTFORD CITY.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 13.—John E. Swaim was the victim of a petty theft Friday evening at Hartford City, when someone went through his clothing while he was acting as referee at the Tipton-Hartford City basketball game and lifted a pocketbook containing $4 or $5. Mr. Swaim left his pocketbook in his trousers pocket in his dressing-room while he was on the playing floor. He discovered the loss when his pocketbook was returned to him, empty. It had been picked up on the sidewalk outside the school building and identified by some papers left in it. Mr. Swaim is a clerk in the Bluffton postoffice.

MARRIED IN HILLSDALE.

Portland, Ind., Nov. 13.—The marriage of Mrs. Flora Lyons, formerly of Pike township and widow of the late Thomas Lyons, to H. O. Davidson, of Pleasant Lake, Ind., occurred last week at Hillsdale, Mich. The bride left here on Monday, going to Michigan, presumably to visit with relatives, and had said nothing to local relatives of her intention to be married. The newly wedded couple are now visiting relatives at Mackinaw City and Grand Rapids, Mich. They expect to reside in Portland.

DITCH IS ORDERED.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 13.—The hearing on the Borum Run drain before the board of county commissioners has been concluded, when there was a finding for the petitioners and the drain was ordered established. P. L. Macklin was appointed superintendent of construction. The fight over the improvement has raged for several months, following the filing of numerous remonstrances to the petition. The future course to be pursued is of course not definitely known at this time, but an appeal to the circuit court is said to be probable.

FUNERAL OF MRS. METZLER.

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 13.—The funeral of Mrs. John Metzler was held Saturday at St. Peter's and Paul's Catholic church. The deceased was 57 years of age and leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter.—Mrs. William Boren entertained the telephone girls Saturday evening. She was an employe in the office of the local telephone company before her marriage.—Rollo Hollopeter is recovering after an illness of two weeks' duration.

ELECTION COST $1,425.

Montpelier, Ind., Nov. 13.—The Tuesday election in this county cost a total of approximately $1,425, according to an estimate given out in the office of Auditor McGeath Friday morning. All of the costs have been reported with the exception of that in No. 2 precinct in Harrison township of about $60. The cost of the canvassing board alone amounted to $128.65, while the costs of the trip to Indianapolis for the state ballots were approximately $12.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 13.—A double wedding took place in the office of 'Squire J. K. Rinehart at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Joseph L. Jamison was united in marriage to Miss Lillie Merkle Jackson and Hugh V. Cossart was married to Miss Alma Anna Jackson. The brides are sisters and daughters of Mrs. Joseph L. Jackson. The grooms are Liberty township farmers and like their brides they are well known and highly respected.

GIRL REGAINING REASON.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 13.—After her mind had remained a blank for six weeks during which time her life hung by a thread as the result of injuries received from being run down by an automobile, Ilene Littlefield, daughter of Mrs. Dora Littlefield, of Detroit, and well known to residents of the eastern part of Kosciusko, is recovering and has regained her lost memory.

DIES AT ELKHART.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 13.—William Rouch, for several years a resident of this county, died at the home of his son, E. E. Rouch, in Elkhart after an illness of several months' duration, following an operation which was performed upon him last May. He was 88 years old at the time of his death. He became seriously ill about a week ago.

WILL OPEN NEW THEATER.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 13.—The Widaman-McDonald theater will open next Wednesday. This should be a distinctive day not only to the show-going public in Warsaw, but to all the citizens. When completed it will be one of the finest and best equipped opera houses in northern Indiana.

CONVENTION AT AVILLA.

Avilla, Ind., Nov. 13.—Arrangements have been completed for the holding of the Noble county Sunday school convention on Nov. 17 in the Evangelical church in this city. John Chaffee, of this place, is president of the association. A splendid program has been arranged.

WILL SET DEFINITE DATE.

Van Wert, Ohio, Nov. 13.—Definite selection of the date for opening of the new Van Wert County hospital is being held up pending word as to whether Dr. Criel, head of the Western Reserve Medical School at Cleveland can be present on November 28, the date tentatively picked by the committee.

ILL ONLY THREE DAYS.

Calendar Issued Gives the Order of Events for Members and Families.

November 24 is the date for the ceremonial session of the Mizpah temple, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. In a program which appears like a 1917 calendar, the order of events is announced. The place of the ceremonials is the Scottish Rite cathedral, where all the sessions will be held. The day of the home-coming sessions, to the anointed, is Moharrum, first month, twenty-eighth day, 1335. The program announced is a very interesting one.

Will Initiate Big Class.

Two hundred candidates will be given the Scottish Rite degrees of Masonry at the fall convocation of the Fort Wayne Lodge of Perfection to be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. This event has been planned as a tribute to William Geake, sr., who has served as thrice potent master for thirty years. A reception committee has been named to meet the hundreds of Masons who will visit here this week.

Odd Fellows Celebrate.

With only a few more details to work out, all preparations for the big event of Friday night by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows have been completed. A class of seventy-five will be initiated by the four Fort Wayne lodges. This celebration is state-wide and is being observed as an honor to Attorney Jesse MacBeth, grand master of Indiana.

State Officers to Speak.

State officers of the Modern Woodmen of America will speak at a meeting of the local lodge, No. 4761, which will be held Monday evening at the hall at 219 East Berry street. A smoker will precede the program. The officers who are to be present are Head Banker John D. Volz and State Deputy W. A. McGrath.

K. of P's. at Warsaw.

The district meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodges in Fort Wayne and vicinity will be held at Warsaw Tuesday afternoon and evening. Fifty applicants are to be given the rank of page at this gathering. A large representation from Fort Wayne will attend this gathering.

Moose Opens Alleys Soon.

The bowling alleys at the Moose home will be opened next Saturday and already keen interest in this sport has been aroused among the members. A league will be formed in the near future.

Maccabees Take in Fifty.

The Maccabees took in a class of fifty candidates at a meeting held Saturday evening in the Knights of Pythias hall, on West Washington street. The new members were from all the lodges in the district. A banquet followed the initiatory work.

Eagles Honor the Dead.

Members of the Fort Wayne aerie, No. 248, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and their friends paid tribute to eighteen deceased members of the order Sunday afternoon. The annual memorial services were held in the hall, on West Berry street, and were very impressive, the flower ceremonial being used. Rev. Arthur J. Folsom and Avery M. Groves were the speakers.

CONVOY NEWS.

Convoy, O., Nov. 13.—Mrs. George Black has returned from Sidney, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Belch, and family.

Mrs. E. V. Hover was hostess to the Laffalot club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. William Butler, of Van Wert, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Stuckey, and family Thursday.

Ed Moore and family have moved from their home north of town to their property on North Main street.

W. E. Brushwiller, who has been clerking for Hoelle & Son for several months, has resigned his position and with his family will move to their former home in Decatur.

Harry Snyder, who is attending Wittenberg college at Springfield, O., is visiting his parents, J. E. Snyder and wife.

John Bowen has gone to Maysville, Ky., where he will spend a few weeks visiting friends and hunting.

Mrs. C. Terrel, of Fort Wayne, spent Saturday with Convoy friends.

Will Imler returned to his home in Fort Wayne after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Imler, west of Convoy.

Thursday evening at the home of Fred Bauer a surprise party was given in honor of Elsie's 14th birthday anniversary. NATIONAL HOUSE DIVISION CLOSE

Democrats Constrained to Admit Republicans Will Control.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Democraict leaders in Washington have already privately conceded the control of the next house to the republicans. Although they are announcing to the publi cthat the result is yet in doubt, they are well satisfied within their own minds that the republicans will have a majority.

The 1,500 or so employes of the house whose jobs depend on democratic control are already casting about for other positions, and the republican congressmen are already at work pulling wires for prominent committee places.

Out of the 435 congressmen, the best figures now obtainable give the republicans 217 and the democrats 210. There are five independents who will be aligned with one side or the other and three districts are yet in doubt.

If the democrats gained allll three of these districts they would still have to get the votes of all the independent members in order to control. This, they admit, they cannot do.

The five independents are Schall, of Minnesota (prog.); Martin, of Louisiana (protectionist); Fuller, of Massachusetts (ind.); Randall, of California (prohi.); London, of New York (soc.). Of this number, Schall and Martin are almost certain to vote with the republicans. London and Fuller would probably vote with the democrats, while Randall, who will be a new member, is not known to be affiliated with either party.

Republican congressmen who are now in Washington admit that with their slender working majority in the next house they will be able to do little. They anticipate that the administration will be able to put through most of its projects, although they feel certain that they will be able to block any purely partisan measures.

They figure that they will be able to cause a lot of trouble when the democrats attempt to pass their revenue bill and they feel that they may be able to take out many of the present items of this bill and insert protective tariff items in their places. They expect to have support from a number of southern congressmen on certain tariff items.

The republicans also feel that they will be able to block an appropriation for the shipping board and may be able to put this board out of existence. They also think they may be able to block an attempt to start work on a government armor plate plant, although they admit that some of their members might rebel against this plan.

CAR RELIEF PLAN SHOWING RESULTS

Roads Will Hurry All Foreign Cars to Home Lines at Once.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner McChord has started checking up the first results of his preliminary orders, after a ten-day investigation of the railroad car market that is choking the industries and rail movements of the west.

Definite word has already reached Louisville that the railroads will observe the proclamation to hurry all foreign coal cars to their home lines, regardless of the technical power of the commission to enforce it. An authority close to the commission is responsible for the statement.

Steps have been taken to make a daily check on the situation, beginning Monday, partly from reports to be submitted by the railroads themselves and also from the government's agents that have been scattered throughout the field.

Shippers Well Pleased.

Shippers representing the grain, coal, perishable freights and various lines of manufacture that have been suffering from the congestion are pleased with the order and predict that the results will begin to show shortly. While there is but little disposition to quarrel with the railroad view that is being taken in some quarters, to the effect that there are actually not enough railroad cars to handle the country's business at the present high tide and that there is a shortage, the outstanding result of the hearing from the shippers' viewpoint has been to emphasize the breakdown of the car service rules and the inability of the railroads to reach an understanding without the aid of the commission.

For more than a year now 60 per cent of the cars have been going east and only 40 per cent returning, with the eastern lines holding the extra 20 per cent for their own uses instead of returning them, it is pointed out.

An intolerable situation, described as a "feast for the east and a famine for the west," has resulted. Under the premises, the commission and the shippers and several of the railroad witnesses have concluded that the trouble is more lack of circulation than technical shortage.

The remedy only applies to coal cars, but similar action will probably be forthcoming as regards refrgerator cars, the shortage seriously threatening the harvesting of the fruit crop in the northwest. With the coal cars redistributed the western railroads will be in a position to furnish the mines and the mines in turn to meet the demands of their contracts. Incidentally, the restoration of circulation is a solar plexus blow at the coal speculator, who has been represented as one of the principals behind the higher and higher coal prices.

Campbell Has Plan.

Herbert C. Campbell, attorney for the Chicago board of trade, where 15,000,000 bushels of grain are being held back by the boxcar shortage, is urging the commission to adopt the rather startling suggestion that boxcars, as an emergency measure, be considered as common property, regardless of initials, from now on.

TUMULTY FOR CABINET PLACE LATEST GOSSIP

President Wilson May Put Secretary Into His Official Family.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Joseph Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, is slated for postmaster general in the new Wilson cabinet, according to the gossip that reached Chicago yesterday.

Mr. Burleson, the present postmaster general, it was rumored, will retire to his home in Texas when the new cabinet is made up.

Senator Lewis, at the University club last night, admitted he had heard considerable talk along that line.

"Tumulty would make a great postmaster general," he said. "Should the president elevate him to this position he would have many precedents to follow. It will be remembered that Mr. Cleveland took his secretary, Mr. Lamont, and made him secretary of war. Mr. Roosevelt also put McKinley's secretary, Mr. Cortelyou, in the cabinet as secretary of the treasury.

"Should Mr. Burleson retire I have no doubt the president would be glad to place Mr. Tumulty in his cabinet. He would be both a good postmaster general and an invaluable aid to the president in the cabinet meetings."

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Matthew 7: 2-12.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Ditching the Old Guard

Once more from the maelstrom of post-election gossip that emanates from the big political centers comes the declaration that the defeat of Mr. Hughes spells doom for the old guard leaders of the republican party; that they are to be ruthlessly kicked out and summarily deposited on the political scrap heap to make way for progressives in the future direction of republican party affairs. But are they? Somehow, we doubt it.

Similar prophecies have been made before. Like programs have been formulated for party rehabilitation after stinging defeat, but they seldom, if ever, eventuate. In the early chagrin and disappointment that ensues after defeat there is always a frantic hunting for cause—a seeking of backs upon which to heap the burden of responsibility for disaster. The old guard is nearest at hand, and it always gets the blame. The I-told-you-so fellows who were never any too keen for the old guard anyway are prompt to point the accusing finger at the old generalissimos and declare that with another crowd in control of the management of party affairs, results would have been different. And it will be noted that the old guard at this juncture never strikes back. It offers no defense. It permits the other fellows to exhaust their store of invective, to theorize until they grow tired, to deduce until their voices fail, and to bombastically announce that the result means oblivion for the old leaders who have led the cause down to defeat. What the old guard themselves are saying at this juncture constitutes a silence so profound that it amounts to a thunderous reverberation of quietude.

And then what happens? Finally the party insurrectos grow tired of talking to themselves. Then comes the interim between political campaigns when everybody but the old guard forgets politics in other demands upon their attention. Finally there comes the first peep of preparation for a new campaign. And to whom does the party turn—to whom do the masses look for leadership? The answer is easy—and inevitable. It turns to the self-same old guard—and such insurrectos who may still be disposed to insurge presently discover that party machinery is still in the hands of the self-same crowd, and the self-same crowd continues to retain it because, with all its selfishness, its shortcoming and its reactionary tendency it still constitutes the bulk of the executive brains of party direction. Plenty of others may talk, but it is the old guard which does things. It may even announce its own regeneration—its conversion to the progressive view of things, but it never releases its hold, and it intends and the public knows that its progressive pronunciamento is to be subjected to the usual heavy discount to the political trade. Just now it may seem that Mr. Crane, and Mr. Smoot, and Mr. Penrose and others of their political kidney in republican ranks are headed for the ditch, but that is merely apparent, not real. You will discover four years hence that they are still the dominant force in the direction of republican affairs as they were in the campaign just closed. One licking—or half a dozen of them, for the matter of that—does not put the old guard out of the running.

The one thing to be kept steadily in mind in all serious consideration of a site for Fort Wayne's new municipal auditorium is that the location must be central and that it must be easily accessible. In no other way can it be made to serve in largest measure the people for whom it is to be constructed, and who must foot the bill for its creation. It is altogether probable, of course, that the desirable locations are going to be found pretty high in price, but it would be unspeakable folly for the saving of a few thousands of dollars to choose any location that is distant from the actual center of the city's activities, where the approach is bad or inconvenient, or where the very best possible transportation facilities are not at once available. An error of that sort could not be corrected. It would remain an error so long as the convention hall stands. Let's get started right on this important undertaking.

Maybe Chairman Willcox and Mr. Hughes figure that in delaying admission that President Wilson has been re-elected until the official count is in they can perform that reluctant duty more quietly and slip out the back door without attracting so much attention as just now. Yet somehow we cannot dismiss the conviction that the sooner they get it over with the better they will feel about it.

Reports of violation of election laws on Tuesday are now said to be flowing in to Special Assistant United States Attorney Frank Dailey, at Indianapolis—and those who know Frank Dailey need not be assured that if any guilty ones escape, it will not be because the former Bluffton man fails to put worth every effort to land them behind prison bars.

Screams at last appear to have a marketable value. At least the lady book-keeper of a bank at Covington, whose shrill outcry when she discovered a bank robber at work led to his capture has just been rewarded with a check for $100 as a slight testimonial of the efficacy of her vocal exertions at the psychological moment.

VACUUM STREET CLEANING.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

St. Louis comes forward with a claim to being the first city in the world to use vacuum street cleaners. Startling as the idea may at first be from the novelty of it, why not? The vacuum cleaner has displaced the ancient broom in big buildings and in many homes. If it has not been tried on streets before this it has been because it was not thought of. New York is now said to be awaiting the results of the St. Louis experiment.

Of course, there are drawbacks. The vacuum street cleaner can not be used in rainy weather, but as a dust remover it is pronounced a success by Director C. M. Talbert, the St. Louis experimenter. During an experimental run of sixty days there were but six nights when the weather conditions prevented the vacuum being operated. Among the advantages are claimed to be less cost, the removal of debris, which under the ordinary method is swept into the sewer inlets and catch basins, blocking sewers, and the practical solution of the dust problem. Sprinkling is no longer necessary, thus avoiding the likelihood of accidents through skidding, and sprinkling at best merely laying, not removing the dust.

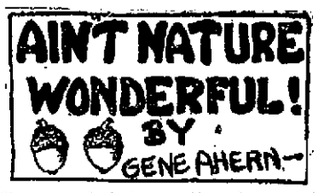
(Columbia City Post.)

The next time Tom Marshall goes to Fort Wayne to make the closing speech of the campaign, he must cut out that guff about being a former resident of "Whitley township, Allen county." Whitley county democrats want it distinctly understood that it is not attached to Allen county in any respect whatever, and they are ashamed of the conduct of the Allen county democrats. Whitley county is a county by itself. It has a fine county seat, two thriving towns in Churubusco and South Whitley, some smaller towns and a whole lot of the best and most reliable democrats in the world, and right here is where some of the best men and women in the nation are reared. There are also a lot of good respectable republicans in this county, and if Tom Marshall persists in calling Whitley county "Whitley township of Allen county" he can go to thunder for all we care.



Because of their peculiar shape and scarcity, is perhaps the reason the inhabitants of Garo, Bengal, don't wear piano boxes in their ears.

FLOWER SHOW

Will Be Staged at Anthony Hotel Next Thursday.

Florists of Fort Wayne and New Haven, who recently formed a florists' association, will hold their first annual flower show Thursday afternoon and night in the ballroom of the Hotel Anthony. The association was only recently formed and already it has started activities assuring the public it will be a live organization.

Each member of the association will offer individual displays at the show, according to present arrangements. Competition will thus be keener, it is predicted. There will be no admission to the show and no flowers sold.

Now Lookout.

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Hay is selling at $8 a ton in market.

Judge Chapin will soon move his office to the Bass block, where he will be associated with W. P. Denny.

Attorney Wilmer Leonard returned from Cleveland yesterday, where he was engaged in legal business.

Next year is going to be a bad one for contractors if the words of a prominent builder are foundation for such prediction. Architects, however, say that the season of 1892 will be a busy one.

Charles Grannemann, who was struck by the Wabash fast line, is on the road to recovery. Although the improvement is slow it is encouraging as no symptoms of blood poison are apparent.

Michael Woulfe, a well known and highly respected citizen, died at 8:30 o'clock this morning at his residence, corner of Molita and Webster streets, of typhoid pneumonia. His sickness covered a period of only five days.

The inaugural reception of the Morton club last evening was a brilliant affair. The guests were received by President W. D. Page, assisted by the reception committee, Messrs. Frank Morse, Gustave Detzer and B. F. Harper. The master of ceremonies was Wm S. Bash.

Four young ladies created considerable excitement in the neighborhood of Lafayette street last night by parading in man's attire. It was lots of fun, but the police threaten to take a hand in the performance, if repeated, when the fun will all be on the other side.

Professor Roeger was last evening surrounded by a large party of friends at his home, 104 East Lewis street, upon the occasion of his birthday. During the evening members of the Saengerbund and Maennerchor societies rendered several beautiful selections, after which Captain Hettler presented to the professor, on behalf of the societies, an elegant golden-headed cane, suitably engraved.

Uric Acid-Poisoning!

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles, or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called Anuric—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you can obtain Anuric at any drugstore and get relief from the pains and ills brought about by uric acid.

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

It is just as necessary to keep the kidneys acting properly as to keep the bowels active.

The very best possible way to take care of yourself is to take a glass of hot water before meals and an Anuric tablet. In this way it is readily dissolved with the food, picked up by the blood and finally reaches the kidneys, where it has a tonic effect in rebuilding those organs.

Step into the drugstore and ask for a 50-cent package of Anuric, or send Dr. Pierce 10c. for trial pckg. Anuric—many times more potent than lithia, eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you. —Advertisement.

JAPANESE LABOR LEADER IS HEARD

Oriental Pleads for International Fellowship of Toilers.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 13.—"The labor movement must be international. It must not know national, racial, color or religious prejudice. In the hands of the workers of the world lies the peace of the world. We must be staunch defenders of peace."

So declares Bunji Suzuki, president of the Laborers' Friendly Society of Japan, an organization similar to the American Federation of Labor in the United States.

Bunji Suzuki, Japanese Labor Leader.

He will attend the American labor convention in Baltimore this month as a fraternal delegate. When he returns to Japan he will be accompanied by Samuel Gompers, president of the A. F. of L., and other prominent labor men.

"All classes of my country will welcome the American labor leaders who will attend the convention of labor unionists in Tokyo next April," said Suzuki. "Capitalist and statesman, as well as worker, will herald this first step toward complete co-operation between the toilers of your country and of mine as a great achievement for all humanity."

Four years ago Suzuki was secretary of a Tokyo Unitarian association. His work brought him in contact with the employes of the big industrial establishments. They had heard of American labor unions; they were casting about for a way toward better conditions and better pay. Suzuki, graduate of the economics department of the Imperial university and a deep student of foreign labor movements, told them his theories.

He led Japan's first strike, by which Tokyo electrical workers won a 20 per cent wage increase. He founded the Friendly Society after that victory, and in four years won it a membership of 25,000. He says that it is now adding 3,000 a month to its rolls.

"In 1918," he said, "we will have 100,000 members."

Though organized on craft lines, the Japanese labor movement is yet too young to have given birth to unions of highly specialized workers, divided from allied crafts by fine distinctions. All branches of machine workers are in one union, as are miners, shoe workers and other craftsmen.

Sufferer From Indigestion Relieved.

BAD COLD? TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

They're fine! Liven your liver and bowels and clear your head.

No headache, sour stomach, bad cold or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets tonight and you will wake up with a clear head and your cold will be gone. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this Candy Cathartic and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.—Advertisement.

ROFRANO IS ACQUITTED.

New York Sensation Most Striking Since Noted Becker Case.

New York, Nov. 13.—Michael A. Rofrano, an attorney and former deputy street cleaning commissioner of this city, was acquitted of the charge of complicity in the murder of Michael Gaimari, a political rival, by a jury late yesterday after it had deliberated twenty-two hours. Rofrano was accused of having ordered Gaimari's death as the result of a political feud.

The trial, estimated to have cost Rofrano and the state $100,000, was locally one of the most sensational held here since the Becker case. It involved city officials, political leaders and denizens of the underworld, and lasted nearly five weeks.

WAR CAUSES DOLL FAMINE AND PRICES MAY BE TOO HIGH FOR POOR KIDDIES THIS CHRISTMAS.

Left, the German Kaethe Kruse dolls that seem almost human and which cannot be secured by Santa Claus on account of the war. At right, the Uncle Sam doll being made by American concerns in an effort to supply the big Christmas demand.

(By Idah McGlone Gibson.)

New York, Nov. 13.—Santa Claus has been unable to combat successfully with the God of War and as a result the poor little rich girl and the poor little poor girl are victims this year as Christmas nears, of a doll famine accompanied by famine prices!

Many little "kiddies" will have to go without dolls, according to present indications, partly because there will not be enough to go around and partly because the shortage will boost prices out of reach of the poor!

Many toys of the American child and most of the dolls have been made in foreign countries. More came from Germany than any other country. Some came from France. War has stopped importation from Germany; French factories are making few shipments.

American factories are working overtime trying to supply the demand of the poor little rich girls who do not get expensive imported dolls and all the poor little poor girls.

No more beautiful doll has ever been made than the famous Kaethe Kruse, "chubby youngster"—hand-made, practically indestructible, dressed in quaint clothes, retailing in America at prices ranging from $14 to $25.

Only the remarkably lucky little girl will receive a Kaethe Kruse baby this year and the same is true of the bisque head, jointed body, conventional doll of German make.

In this type of doll also Germany takes the lead. With hair that can be combed, mouth open, showing teeth and a movable tongue, "flirting" eyes, with eyelashes and almost human facial expression, these dolls are most appealing.

The mechanically clever doll is made in France. But because the French doll that walks and says "mamma" and "papa" must also have a life-like face, German heads are often used. And so again the child for whom Santa might plan an accomplished French doll will be disappointed.

"The great big doll" that, before the war, could be had for $1 and the small doll that would go to sleep, that could be had for 50 cents, will be as scarce as leaves on the trees this Christmas. With the scarcity goes a 50 per cent. increase in price.

American manufacturers have met the problem of supplying the demand for dolls to some extent.

HUGHES WILL SHUN ALL VOTE CONTESTS

New York, Nov. 13.—In view of the fact that President Wilson obtained a substantial majority of the popular vote, republican managers today found little consolation in the vague hope that the official count in California this week might place a majority of the votes in the electoral college in the Hughes column.

Officially National Chairman Willcox refused to concede the re-election of the president, but there was a pretty definite feeling abroad that none of the republicans expected any change favorable to their cause.

Mr. Willcox, after a conference with Mr. Hughes this afternoon, said that he wanted it understood that the republicans were not crying over the result. He looked greatly rested and Mr. Hughes also apparently was in good spirits.

See Sting Removed.

It has been said that the fact that Mr. Wilson obtained the popular vote as well as the electoral vote had served to remove much of the sting from the eleventh-hour defeat. At first it was supposed that Mr. Hughes was the popular choice, and defeat under such a situation was a bitter pill to swallow.

The chances are that the republican managers and Mr. Hughes may be willing to concede the re-election of President Wilson by the end of the week. The official count in California begins Monday and may end by Thursday or Friday.

As to the chances of contests in California, Mr. Willcox said today that he could make no statement at this time of a definite nature. Messages had been sent to him, he said, alleging that there had been fraud, but no definite proof. When the official count was received, he said, the situation would be thoroughly canvassed.

Official Count Final.

His words, however, gave the impression that only absolute evidence of corruption would lead to contests and that the present indications were that the official count would be received as final. This attitude was reflected by others, who had little heart for contests of a more or less technical nature when President Wilson was apparently the choice of the voters of the country by perhaps half a million votes.

Mr. Hughes went for an automobile ride this morning and remained at his suite at the Hotel Astor for the remainder of the day. He appeared in better health and spirits than during the last two days. He made no statement of any kind concerning the situation or his personal plans.

Here's Speedy Relief from Kidney Troubles

"Foley Kidney Pills have done me a heap of good." A. T. Bartlett, Brockton, Mass.

Some days it seems as if you can no longer bear the pain and misery you suffer from kidney and bladder trouble. The ache across your back grows worse with every move you make, and with every step you take. It not only robs you of all your strength and energy, but it affects the other important organs of the body as well. Nervousness, headache, disordered stomach, liver trouble, bad eyesight, are only some of the conditions that follow kidney trouble.

Foley Kidney Pills help the sick weak kidneys to regain their normal healthy state and activity. When they are again able to do their work effectively, your system is no longer choked and blocked with poisonous waste matter. Your symptoms clear up, your weariness, pain, misery and weakness go away. Foley Kidney Pills can do you also "a heap of good."

LEAGUE OF NEUTRALS TRADE PROTECTION

Brazil Has Evolved Plan to Resist Restriction in Commercial War.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Full details of the recent proposal to the Brazilian parliament by the Brazilian Society of International Law for the formation of a league of neutrals to resist trade restrictions and other encroachments by belligerents were made public here yesterday through the official gazette of the Brazilian parliament.

The proposed league would consist of all present neutrals and would spring automatically into effect whenever another war broke out.

The society, in an exhaustive report, reviews the constant encroachments by belligerents on neutral trade and urges the government to take immediate steps to secure the co-operation of all neutrals for the declaration of a uniform series of neutral rights and for their enforcement of the same.

The rights suggested are the immunity of enemy goods under a neutral flag, complete liberty of trade between neutral nations regardless of ultimate destination, freedom from any extra-territorial actions such as blacklisting, and the forbidding of any alien to inform a foreign government of matters which might lead to belligerent restrictions.

Violations of these rights would be met under the plan first by the withdrawal by the neutral league of the privilege of friendly treatment for the offending nation, including the trade rights.

In case a consular or diplomatic official should be concerned, his credentials would be handed him at once. If this proved unavailing, hostilities might follow.

The report, while directed at both belligerents, is more concerned with British trade violations. The efforts of the United States are recognized, but are declared ineffective. The allied blockade is particulary criticised.

EMPTY HOUSES IN BERLIN.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—For every thousand houses, with or without attached stores, in Berlin, no less than sixty-six stand empty as a result of the war, according to statistics compiled by the statistical bureau of Greater Berlin.

The great majority of the empty houses are flats with one and two rooms in addition to kitchen and bath. The majority lie in the north, east and south sections of Berlin, where the poorer portion of the population lives.

The total number of empty buildings now has reached 39,863, in 1916, as against 27,809 in December, 1913.

FALLS UNDER HORSE'S HOOFS.

Constant Gaffer, 15, son of Mike Gaffer, 1305 Maud street, sustained a broken right thigh, Saturday, when he followed a bouncing football under the hoofs of a galloping horse. Constant was playing with several boys on a vacant lot on Holton avenue when the ball went out of bounds. Robert Gerding, 1242 Wall street, was driving the approaching horse. The boy ran up directly in front of the speeding animal. Constant was rendered unconscious. Dr. E. M. VanBuskirk was summoned. The boy was removed to his home, where his injury will keep him in doors for several weeks.

U. S. JACKIE TOUCHES LAMP OF ALADIN AND COMES UP THROUGH COAL.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 13.—From coal passer on a United States warship to owner of a Chinese coal mine, husband of a rich Chinese and partner of twelve Chinese women is the history of John T. Allen, lately arrived from the orient.

When Allen stepped from the Maru liner he had a letter of credit for $100,000 in his pocket as president of one of the most unique companies in the world.

Twenty-four years ago Allen reached New York from Florida. He was poor. He took passage on a bark for Australia. After a varied sailing career this man who has found a fairyland in China enlisted as a coal passer in the United States navy in 1903.

For thirteen years he maintained a good record and rose to the rank of a petty officer. He saved some money each month and always asked to be kept on the Asiatic station. At Shanghai he met his "destiny" in the daughter of a rich Chinese family. After a two years' courtship they were married. He was with the United States ship Galveston as a petty officer at the time.

Allen's fine record secured for him a honeymoon. Seven miles back of Nanking, the newlyweds visited property owned by the bride. There it appears that Allen one day kicked up a piece of soft coal. Having shoveled it for years on the cruisers he recognized it.

Before the honeymoon was ended gangs of coolies were working the coal deposits. Allen then bought himself out of the navy and left with best wishes of his superiors.

Preliminary work indicates that a thirty years' supply of coal is assured. With his wife and eleven other Chinese women Allen established the Nanking Railway company. He pays his coolies frm 7 to 10 cents "Mex money" a day. He has 150 working.

"Our mine has proved profitable ever since we began operations," says Allen. "So far all work is done by hand, but the time has arrived when we need modern machinery. I do not know how much I shall put into equipment, but I have brought $100,000. We have as much money as we require. I am the only man in the company and can find no occasion to disagree with the business methods of my women partners."

After two years they were married.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"Broadway After Dark" Comes to Majestic on Thursday.

"Broadway After Dark" plays an engagement Thursday matinee and night at the Majestic, on which occasion it will be presented with an elaborate production and by a carefully selected company. The theme has to do with the unequal struggle of the sexes, and the argument is advanced that the same moral code should prevail for the man as for the woman. The scenic production is one especially prepared for this play, and the sets are of a decidedly attractive character. The scenes are all interiors, the first act shows a modern apartment in a hotel, the second a bungalow in the suburbs of New York, the third the Fox Trot club in New York city and the fourth the reception room in a fashionable family hotel. The story is intensely dramatic and contains an excellent vein of comedy.

AT THE PALACE

Bison City Four, Robbie Gordone and Others at New Palace.

Featured by the Bison City Four, Robbie Gordone, the Martha Washington Girls and Pipifax and Panlo, the New Palace bill for the first portion of the week is an unusual one. It is a nifty, snappy program with variety sufficient to insure that every type of vaudeville goer will find something to his liking in it. The Bison City Four are a quartet of harmonious voices with a good grist of comedy antics interspersed. Robbie Gordone, the statuesque beauty in her reproductions of the famous classics in ivory and oil, is a startling act that appeals because of its sheer artistry and because of the extreme beauty of the poseur. A charming arrangement of song hits are being sung by the Martha Washington Girls, a quintet of five lassies with pleasing voices and an attractively staged act. Pipifax and Panlo's tumbling is a riot. These two gracefully clumsy fellows take some terrific falls only to bound up smiling again; the Ramber Sisters and Pinaud in dainty dances and songs and Lewis and Feiber, the smart comedians, complete this bill which will run the first four days of the week, closing Wednesday evening.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Adele Frankel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis rFankel, of Chicago, and a niece of Dr. Maurice Rosenthal and Mrs. Joseph Lohman, of this city, and of Mrs. Arnold, of Detroit, to Mr. Harold Davidson Wile, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Wile, of Chicago, was made public on Sunday in Chicago and Fort Wayne papers. This engagement is of particular interest in this city because Miss Frankel lived here until within a few years and her visits have been of such frequency as to keep her in touch with the movements of the social affairs in the west end where she was best known. Miss Frankel has unusual charm personally and intellect of high order which has been a factor in her work in the University of Chicago recently completed and following her graduation from a Chicago high school Mr. Wile is an electrical engineer with the University of Wisconsin, his alma mater, an institution ranking at the top in educational circles. A reception will be given in honor of their daughter by Mr. and Mrs. Frankel on Sunday, Nov. 19. Fort Wayne relatives expect to attend the reception.

The members of the T. T. P. club gave Mrs. Charles Rabus, of Hoagland avenue, a surprise supper party on Sunday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. A merry time was enjoyed. The regular meeting of the same club will be held on a week from Tuesday, with Mrs. M. G. Beaver.

Misses Madge and Helen Magee and Mary Evans have returned from Dixon, Ill., where they were guests of a former Fort Wayne young lady, Miss Olga Rice. Miss Rice had a house party of Fort Wayne friends, of whom Mrs. W. W. Schofield, now of Chicago, was one, and Miss Margaret Fisher, of this city, who was called home before the party was over, was another.

Miss Helen Kelly, of Leith street, celebrated her birthday anniversary on Saturday afternoon with a number of her schoolmates to help along in the good time. There were twenty in the company and Mrs. Kelly served them a good supper with pretty decorations in yellow and white and a big birthday cake that was divided between them. The guests were Margaret Phillips, Margaret Greany, Eileen Klingenberger, Frances Behan, Constance Logan, Frances Effinger, Catherine Miller, Georgiana Getz, Julia Didion, Marcella Kinny, Elizabeth Shives, Beatrice Ernest, Eleanor Druhot, Bernadette Hausbach, Janet Trainer, Evelyn Cox, Catherine Gorman, Florence Federspeil and Helen Carroll.

Miss Mildred Schiefer, of East Taber street, entertained a doze nof her schoolmates on Saturday afternoon in celebration of her ninth anniversary. A number of merry games were enjoyed and the prize was won by Jeannette Schlink. A luncheon was served in the diningroom and the birthday cake was decorated with nine candles and occupied the center of the table until time for its eating, when much of it disappeared quickly. The colors of the decorations were red and white. Little red baskets of candy were favors. The children at this happy time were Dorothy Banet, Catherine Walsh, Rosella Hausbach, Mary Catherine McDonald, Jeannette Schlink, Virginia and Josephine McLaughlin, Marcella Conners, Helen Cull, Lucille Miller and Genevieve Federspiel.

Miss Teresa Quinn was hostess for a meeting of the R. O. O. N. club at her home, 615 Green street, recently and the club spent a pleasant time playing games, dancing to gay music and in enjoying Miss Quinn's hospitality generally. Prize winners were Gladys Davis and Maude Wimer. Later the company was invited to the dining-room that had been decorated in red, white and blue. Yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the table. An elaborate luncheon was served the guests, who were Misses Carrie Knyoth, Goldie Bissel, Anna Hengstler, Mary Oswald, Laura Katherine Odding, Clara Kramer, Emma Vogel, Teresa and Katherine Koorsen, Helen Heiny, Maude Wimer, Gladys Davis, Vivian Oberwitte, Russel Wimer and Miss Dora Campbell, from Ohio. The hostess surprised the club by having their picture taken during the evening.

Miss Elva Shook, of Convoy, has arrived for a week's visit with Miss Agnes Junk, of 2723 Lillie street.

Praise for Mrs. de Ventura.

Mrs. Anna M. F. de Ventura, of West Palm Beach, Fla., who has friends in this city always interested in her success, is now teaching Spanish, a language which she writes is to be "the" language of the future because of South American opportunities. Mrs. de Ventura is a soprano singer quite popular in the city in which she lives and its vicinity and recent complimentary notices in the Palm Beach Post of Nov. 5 are given here:

"Special music of a high order was provided by Mrs. Anna de Ventura, of West Palm Beach, and by Stuart A. Noble and the Aeolian quartet, of Stuart.—Stuart Times."

"One of the most popular features of the entire convention was the singing of Mrs. Anna M. F. de Ventura, of West Palm Beach, who sang solos from time to time. She is a lady of extensive travel in many lands and of rare culture, with a power and pathos of voice that is far out of the ordinary, carrying its gospel message to every heart with persuasive sweetness and irresistible force.—Stuart Messenger."

WOMAN'S CLUB LEAGUE EVENT.

Beautiful Program on Saturday Enjoyed by Large Audience.

Mrs. Clark Fairbank, president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, received a flattering notice of her re-election to that office from the Fort Wayne Woman's Club league, when the regular monthly meeting of the latter organization was held on Saturday afternoon in the Anthony hotel. There was a large attendance of members and their friends and the usual and very entertaining musical program given, was thoroughly enjoyed. The program was in charge of the Art and Music department of the league. The president of the league, Mrs. A. E. Fauve received with Mrs. Fairbank, and Mrs. I. N. Taylor, also a prominent worker in the state federation, presented Mrs. Fairbank with a large basket filled with chrysanthemum blossoms as a gift from the league. Another gift to Mrs. Fairbank was a personal one also of flowers, from Mrs. M. B. Fisher. The musical program was given by Miss Emel Verweire, Miss Corinne Strass, Miss Irene Apfelbaum, Earl Thompson, Wilbur Pickett and Mr. Gregg. The business part of the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Fauve and Mrs. Walter Kent, secretary, who read minutes of an executive board meeting, stating among other things that Mrs. W. E. Griffiths was appointed parliamentarian for the league; that the league is to support the bill for federal inspection of dairies, per request by the Daily Food Alliance, and that the Indiana Federation is to be invited to meet in Fort Wayne in October, 1917. A comprehensive report of the recent annual meeting of the state organization was read by Dr. Carrie Banning. An exhibition of recent paintings by Homer G. Davisson in charge of the Art members of the league received high praise and much individual comment.

Parallel Cases of Rauch and Todd

(Bluffton News.)

The election this week of Levi Todd as prosecuting attorney of Allen county, in a county ordinarily strongly democratic, calls attention to the similarity between his case and that of his former law partner, George W. Rauch, of Marion, also to the fact that he is now about to enter upon a very lucrative office just as Mr. Rauch is about to give up his seat in congress, following his defeat Tuesday by only a few hundred votes.

When Rauch was nominated for congress in the Eleventh district, the same year that J. A. M. Adair was elected for congress in this district, it was on a forlorn hope, with the prospect of a democratic victory so remote that there were no active candidates for the nomination. He was elected and has won each successive campaign up to the present. When he accepted the first nomination he was partially induced to accept through the urgings of his law partner, Mr. Todd. Now the latter, in the election last Tuesday, after having accepted a nomination that seemed almost hopeless of bringing him an office, entered with a substantial plurality, and has a six-year office that is good for several thousand dollars annually.

Chief Clerk H. A. Philley, of Road Foreman of Engines J. H. Hanna's office, received a card this morning from Engineer George Nulf, who is at Flaffstaff, Arizona, on account of his health. Mr. Nulf writes that he is doing well and will soon be as well as ever.

Voice Culture and Singing

Has fitted up a beautiful studio in the App building, 916 Calhoun St. Phone 4048.

Mr. Stevens, by long years of study in this country and in Italy, and in his career as singer and teacher, is familiar with all kinds of vocal troubles and the development of voices. He wants to help you in your singing and secure for you a resonant, flexible voice, with added beauty and strength of tone. You will be pleased at the results, and it is results that count. Even a term's lessons will demonstrate. Voices tested by appointment without charge. You are invited to call.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

As the first of the Jefferson's splendid fall festival attractions is presented the magnificent production of "Romeo and Juliet." Critics and press throughout the universe unanimously acclaim this production as the topmost pinnacle in photo classics by far surpassing the romance in grandeur as elaborated in book form, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne being featured. The Metro Producing company expended a sum exceeding $200,000, engaged a superb cast consisting of the strongest stellar talent obtainable and spent over three months in photographing this colossal production. Not even in the stage settings, as lavish as they were employed by such wizards of stagecraft as Sir Henry Irving and Richard Mansfield, was such glittering magnificence dreamed of, much less attempted. Full advantage has been taken of the fact that Romeo and Juliet belonged to noble and wealthy families. The appointments of the two households are excellent, the furnishings gorgeous beyond any in the history of the stage. Fidelity to the greatest dramatic poet of the stage has been carried out to the last degree. Every member of the cast was obliged to learn the words of the play and repeat them, with the proper action, before the camera. If a word was forgotten the camera was stopped and the scene done over again, bringing the soul of Shakespeare to the heart of the spectator.

It must be remembered that this attraction is a special de luxe Metro release booked at several times the rental of the average release. There are ight reels, 2,000 scenes and over 600 people in the cast. The genius of the stars, Mr. Bushman and Miss Bayne, has never been so well exemplified as in the roles of the immortal lovers. Those who can conveniently do so are advised to attend the matinee shows and avoid the night crush which will be in evidence. Performances begin at 1, 2, 5, 7 and 9 o'clock. As this is the fall festival week the greatest amusement value ever offered will be available. E. H. Sothern, famous American star, assisted by the English beauty, Peggy Hyland, will appear at the Jefferson theater Thursday and Friday.

HELD AS WIFE-SLAYER.

Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—Police today were holding Luther Kincade, 31, colored, for the alleged murder of his white wife, Emma Kincade, who was found beaten to death in their home yesterday. George Hardin, a brother of the dead woman, is said to be president of a bank at Delray, Fla.

Two of My Seven (7) Farms in Allen County for Sale

(BY HENRY M. WILLIAMS.)
814 Shoaff Building

The European war (nine nations fighting each other) is making high prices for United States farm products, wheat $1.70 a bushel; corn, $1.00 per bushel.

Long before the war started farmers in Illinois were selling out their farm lands at $250 an acre and coming to northeastern Indiana and northwestern Ohio, from New Haven, Allen county, Ind., east into Paulding county, Ohio, and paying $150 an acre for those lands which now they hold at $250 per acre.

MY SUMMIT FARMS

One mile west of station No. 23 adjoining Huntertown, Allen county, Indiana, 9 miles north of Fort Wayne, on the "Interurban," 300 acres of the richest soil, with good improvements, good house, good barn and other buildings. I will now sell at $100 per acre, small cash payment down, long time, 6 per cent interest on the unpaid balance, payable on or before due.

This land extends south one mile to the road running west from station No. 22, formerly called "Evergreen station," adjoining there the new "Allen County Industrial Farm" of 500 acres, on which the county is now expending large sums of money for improvements.

MY CLOVER LEAF FARM

187 acres adjoining on the north my "Lake Everett Thousand Acre Park," (the handsomest park in the state). I am now offering also at $100.00 per acre, on same terms and conditions.

Apply to me, or to any real estate agent in Fort Wayne or elsewhere; commission five (5) per cent.

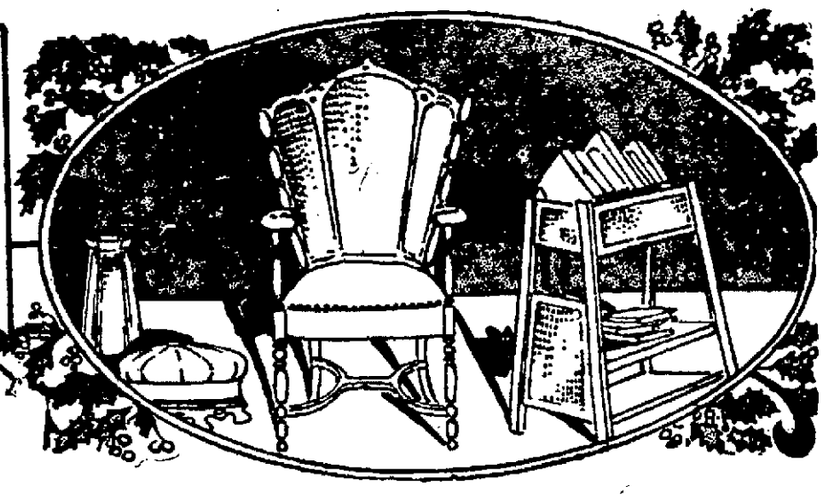
FURNITURE FOR GIFTS



Don't put off until the week before Christmas the shopping that can be done today, might be a good axiom for the great American buying public to observe this year. In fact, difficulties will be met in shopping this Christmas that have never been encountered before. Merchants who have not seen the handwriting on the wall will be caught with short stocks which cannot be replenished, due to an enormous and concerted demand by other short-sighted late comers. Higher prices will prevail, and consequently the consumer will have to "pay the piper." This store has anticipated these conditions and as a result has stocked heavily with the proper merchandise long before the war prices went into effect. This means that the price you will pay here will be lower; the quality of goods higher.

The Articles Listed Below

We list below a variety of articles sold here which will make splendid Christmas presents. Why not come in today and make a selection. We will lay aside any article you may choose and you can pay a little bit down on it and pay the balance Christmas.

Early Christmas Shopping

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the house
Excitement was rampant, while Pa and his Spouse
Were arranging the trees, in advance of the call
Of jolly old Santa, who soon was to fall.
Down the chimney, and into our radiant group,
Like the bird in the story which fell in the soup.

As the gifts Pa had gathered his glances reveal
Bought in a hurry—without proper thought.
'Tis a very long story and can't be told here,
How chagrin took hold where there should have been cheer.

But let us take heed and do better this time,
And make Santa cheerful, so this is my rhyme:
Shop Early...Shop Wisely... Shop Now...Don't Delay.
The Surest...The Safest...The Sensible Way.

—J. Sigmund.

The very liberal concessions of our Credit System ought to interest early Christmas buyers. We suggest this plan for those who would like to buy some gifts now, but will not have the necessary money to pay for them until the Christmas savings accounts are issued. Come in, select any article in the store that you may fancy, and upon receipt of a few dollars we will hold it until Christmas. Then you can either take this article or exchange it for something else.

Suggestions for Christmas

This page of suggestive presents gives you a good idea of the variety of articles sold here which would make splendid Christmas gifts. How about a big comfortable Leather Rocker for dad? Or a Sewing Machine for mother, or a dining room or Library Table? Give that brother of yours a Bookcase. For the youngster there are a marvelous array of things which will make him a very much over-joyed person Christmas morning. Most of the things that you purchase here as gifts are intensely useful—the person who receives them appreciates that.

Massive Imitation Leather Rocker 10.85

The Searchlight---the Last Word in Stove Efficiency

The SEARCHLIGHT marks the highest development of the Base Burner Stove by an inventor whose genius is acknowledged all over the world. Mr. Howard has incorporated in this stove features and various perfections which place it head and shoulders above the average Base Burner, which, in many instances, is just a stove patterned after the SEARCHLIGHT but boasting none of the wonderful SEARCHLIGHT devices, which are patented and therefore cannot be used without infringing upon the Howard patents.

The Searchlight Will Heat 8 Rooms

The SEARCHLIGHT will heat any eight rooms in an ordinary house far better than a furnace or hot water boiler. Just set the combustion damper of the SEARCHLIGHT when you go to bed, and whether the weather is zero or even twenty below you will find no variation in the temperature of the house when you arise in the morning. In zero weather you fill the magazine of the SEARCHLIGHT once in twenty-four hours—in fair weather once in three or four days.

The Bitter Test of Comparison

The SEARCHLIGHT will heat three times the space that can be heated by any of these so-called base burners and do it with the same amount of fuel. The Carbon Monoxide is utilized the same as fuel by the J. B. HOWARD COMBUSTION DEVICE, which is built into the SEARCHLIGHT.

The Howard Method of Combustion

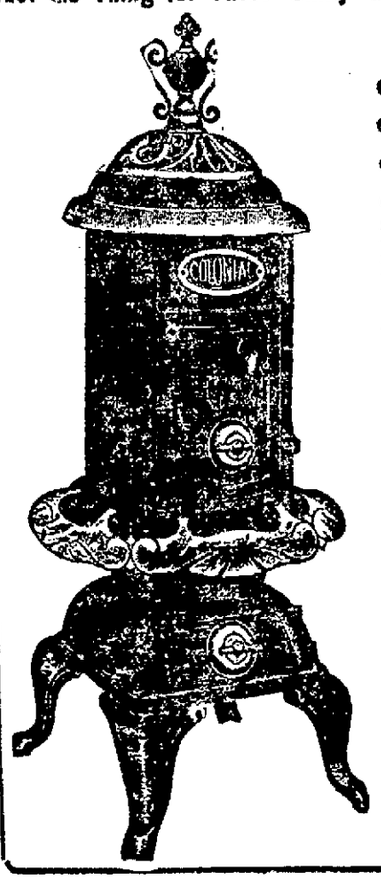
The J. B. HOWARD COMBUSTION is the secret of device installed in the base of the stove which burns every particle of Carbon Monoxide (commonly known as poison gas) and which is wasted in all the so-called base burners and in fact has never before been utilized since anthracite coal was first burned. It is without a doubt the greatest heating device ever invented and you will find it only on the SEARCHLIGHT.

A Searchlight On Terms

Remember, you can buy one of these marvelous SEARCHLIGHT BASE BURNERS on easy terms. We urge that you come in tomorrow and have us explain our Credit System to you.

Colonial Oak Heater $4.85

Just the Thing for These Chilly Evenings



We have about a car load of these heaters on hand, and in order to clear our stove department of them in a hurry we are going to mark them down to this ridiculously low price. They are really worth about twice as much.

The Colonial Oak is a good heater; a fuel saver and has an unusually large heating capacity. Just the thing to take the chill off the room these brisk evenings. Better place your order for one early as they are not likely to last long at this price.

The Florence: Nemesis of Jack Frost

With wintry days coming on at a rapid pace, the thoughts naturally turn to warmth and comfort in the home. No need to worry about your heating troubles further, however, if you own a FLORENCE HOT BLAST HEATER. The Florence ends stove troubles forever and besides insuring you a warm "comfy" house during wintry weather it cuts a generous slice off your coal bills.

The Florence Idea Eliminates Puffing

The FLORENCE eliminates the "puffing" nuisance. If you have ever used Hot Blast Heaters of certain makes you will know that it was no uncommon experience to come home and find that the door of the stove has been "puffed open" and dirty black soot blown all over the house.

Holds Fire Perfectly Over Night

The FLORENCE will positively hold fire over night. Just fill the firepot of the stove when you go to bed and in the morning you will discover the same even temperature that existed when you retired.

The Florence Means More Heat and Less Fuel

You can heat a five or six-room house all winter long for $10.00 with the FLORENCE and use a very cheap grade of coal. And furthermore, no matter how cheap the grade of fuel used, the FLORENCE keeps clean. This is because it can burn hard or soft coal siftings, dust, slack, coke, sawdust or rubbish.

A Florence on Easy Terms

Kindly keep in mind that you can buy the FLORENCE (or any other stove sold here) on the easy payment plan. Our liberal credit concessions makes it possible for you to have your stove installed right away if you want to.

Bad actions give the lie to good professions. No man loves his neighbor as he ought who can cheat, defraud and otherwise wrong him.

J. O. Grove has returned from Indianapolis, where he attended the Indiana Chiropractors' convention. This was the greatest convention ever held in the state, with about one hundred and forty chiropractors in good standing, and members of the association and many others present.

A state chiropractic board for the registration and examination of chiropractors was favored by the Indiana Chiropractors' association as favoring a bill creating such a board, which would be self-sustaining through fees paid by chiropractors. It is held by the chiropractors that they have no bill regulating their science and they intend to make a fight to have their profession recognized as distinct from the medical profession, as they do not practice medicine or osteopathy.

Officers were elected as follows: L. E. Fuller, of Indianapolis, president; J. H. Denlinger, of Elkhart, vice president; E. F. Cunningham, of Crawfordsville, secretary, and W. O. Beaver, of Indianapolis, treasurer. J. O. Grove, of Fort Wayne, and Frank J. Wright, of Indianapolis, directors.

Ex-Governor Morris, of Iowa, gave a general talk on legislation and Lee Edwards, of Omaha, Neb., lectured in the afternoon on "Extraordinary Cases of Chriropractic." W. C. Schulze, of Chicago, said that "most of the medical profession to this day do not understand the chiropractic principle of spinal subluxation. They do not realize that one of the vulnerable points in the human body lies in the movable certebrae of the spinal column."

"Don't compromise with the tstate board of medical registration and examination," was the gist of the talk by W. Bush, of Columbus, Ohio, and E. V. Fitzpatrick, counsel for the association, delivered several good talks.

The meeting was closed by a clinic by Dr. B. J. Palmer, president of the Palmer School of Chiropractors.

Other members of this association present from this city were Fred Wolf, Anna Thies and C. Goebel.

After the meeting closed there was a large banquet served in the Riley room.

ASKS DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Miss Zulah Thumma, of Ft. Wayne, Seeks $10,000 from Garrett Man.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 13.—Suit for $10,000 damages for alleged breach of promise to marry her was filed in the DeKalb circuit court here today by Miss Zulah Thumma, daughter of Emanuel P. Thumma, deputy revenue collector, Fort Wayne, and former mayor of Garrett, against Frank Delhausen, general foreman in the B. & O. shops at Garrett. The Thummas live at 2926 South Wayne avenue in Fort Wayne.

Miss Thumma and Delhausen have gone together for the past eight or ten years. About a week ago Delhausen went to Virginia on a vacation. While there he renewed a friendship with Miss Virginia Redmond and with her went to Washington, D. C., where they were married. Miss Redmond is a sister of Bernard Redmond, of Garrett.

The complaint in the case alleges that up to the day before Delhausen left for his vacation he was very attentive to Miss Thumma. She alleges that they were to have been married in the near future and that she had completed all arrangements for the wedding. Miss Thumma is an accomplished music teacher, with pupils in Garrett, Kendallville and Fort Wayne.

Says Wife Left Him.

Evans L. Watson has filed suit in the superior court for a divorce from Eliza V. Watson. They were married Jan. 2, 1892, and separated in 1906. Abandonment is charged. F. B. Shoaff is attorney for the plaintiff.

Divorce is Granted.

INDIANA COUNTIES SLOW.

More Than Score Have Failed to Forward Official Returns.

Indianapolis, Ind., Ind., Nov. 13.—Between twenty and thirty counties had not sent in their official return on the presidential elections and other candidates to the office of the secretary of state, it was said today. A large force of clerks is at work tabulating the vote in the counties which have reported. No commissions have been issued to any successful candidates, as yet, it is said, and probably none will be until the official tabulation is completed.

MRS. GEORGE MILLER DIES.

Mrs. George Miller, formerly Miss Clara Jamey, 908 West Main street, died at 10 o'clock Sunday evening at her home in Kenosha, Wis., following an illness of three years due to complication of diseases. The remains will be shipped to this city for burial.

Besides the husband she is survived by a son, Herbert, and the following sisters: Mrs. Herbert Griffin, of Cleveland; Mrs. Floyd Mosher, Mrs. Theodore Perreguey, and the mother, Mrs. Mary Jamey.

JURORS ARE DRAWN FOR NOVEMBER TERM

Commisioners Make Drawing in the Office of County Clerk Monday.

T. P. Otto and Oliver Ripp, jury commissioners, Monday drew the grand and petit jurors to serve for the November term of circuit court which convenes Monday, November 20.

The members of the grand jury are Joseph Pepe and Isidore Badiac, Washington; Edward Johnson, Monroe; Peter Henkenius, city; P. S. Amstutz, Cedar Creek; Perrey Rinehold, Perry.

Demands $2,975 Damages.

Wladyslaw Rysana has filed suit against the Pennsylvania railroad asking $2,975 and alleging a piece of steel from a bolt which he was directed to chisel attaching a ladder to a box car by the foreman of the section gang struck him in the left eye blinding that eye on July 20, 1916. Ryan, Ryan & Aldrich are attorneys for the plaintiff.

To Quiet Title.

Desertion is Charged.

Irene Kieffer, in a suit for divorce from Jesse Kieffer, filed in the superior court, alleges they were married Nov. 25, 1913, and separated July 11, 1916. Kieffer is charged with going to Montana, deserting his wife and requiring her to work to support herself. She also charges Kieffer with associating. Hartzell & Todd are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Husband Charges Cruelty.

George C. McSweeney and Martha A. McSweeney were married Sept. 19, 1916, and separated Nov. 11, 1916. Monday McSweeney filed suit in the superior court for a divorce. He alleges he gave his wife money, but that she was cruel to him notwithstanding. In one scuffle he enumerates the defendant is charged with destroying his $40 gold watch when she pounced on him. Howard Hanthorn is attorney for the plaintiff.

Fined $25 and Costs.

George E. Salisbury was fined $25 and costs in the court of Justice A. C. Nierman Monday, charged with assault and battery on his wife. John R. Sunderland, a step-son, was the prosecuting witness. Mrs. Salisbury had two black eyes to prove that there had been some sort of domestic trouble. Salisbury, the court recalled, was up a year ago on a similar charge. At that time he signed the pledge to cut the booze and was discharged. Salisbury will serve thirty-five days in jail, being unable to pay his fine.

Notes of Court.

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the Ploeger Motorcar company, with a capital stock of $10,000. The directors are E. W. Ploeger, H. W. Ploeger and H. F. Ploeger.

The case of the state against Charles A. Adams, charged with a statutory offense, will be tried by a jury Dec. 13.

Marriage Licenses.

REV. FOX ACCEPTS CALL TO SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

The numerous friends in Fort Wayne of Rev. Frank Fox, pastor of the Fullerton Avenue Presbyterian church of Chicago, will learn with much interest of his acceptance as pastor to the historic old Second Presbyterian church of Springfield, O. This is the leading Presbyterian church of Springfield and its pastor, Dr. Edward Park Thomson, retired recently after twenty-five years of wonderful service. For weeks the men of the church have been making an effort to secure the services of Rev. Mr. Fox and he has finally accepted the work. The congregation consists of many of the leading business and professional men of Springfield and Mr. Fox feels after a visit there of two weeks' time that it is a splendid field for labor. Rev. Fox was former pastor of the Third Presbyterian church in this city. He preaches his first sermon in Springfield Dec. 24.

WOULD SUBPOENA DIRECTORS.

New York Central Wants Hearing on Equipment Trust Plan.

Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—Clarence H. Venner and James Pollis, representing minority stockholders of the New York Central railroad, requested the Ohio utilities commission today to issue subpoenas for all the directors of the New York Central lines to come here for the hearing on an application to create a $12,000,000 equipment trust. These directors include Wm. K. Vanderbilt, Chauncey M. Depew, Wm. Rockefeller, Alfred H. Smith, Horace E. Andrews and George F. Baker, of New York. The commission has heretofore declined to subpoena directors living outside the state in similar cases.

The Fort Wayne Camp of Gideons met at the Randall hotel Sunday afternoon and elected officers for the ensuing year. E. H. Lane will head the organization and Alvin P. Double is vice president. S. D. Smith was elected second vice president, J. I. Thompson, chaplain, and C. F. Lawrence, secretary-treasurer.

Much credit for fine work done during the past year is due to the retiring officers. They are George Crowe, president; J. I. Thompson, vice president; W. M. Plank, secretary-treasurer, and A. P. Double, chaplain, and Mrs. Crowe, president of the auxiliary. During the convention held here recently, money was raised for 217 Bibles. These were placed in the Y. W. C. A., the Hope hospital, and the Wayne sanitarium. Besides these Bibles paid for by the delegates to the convention and the Fort Wayne camp, fifty have been placed in Butler and sixty in Garrett.

Many fine meetings have been held during the term of office of Mr. Crowe and he is to be congratulated on his very successful presidency.

Many Attend Oratorio.

The auditorium of the First M. E. church was packed last night when the oratorio, "The Holy City," was sung by the choir. The entire affair was a decided success and no little credit is due to Prof. O. E. Richards, who directed it, and his wife, who played the accompaniments.

District Officers Meet.

The district officers of the Christian Endeavor society met at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon to lay plans for the coming year. The counties of Allen, Adams, Whitley, Wells and Huntington were represented. A strenuous effort is to be made to carry out plans made by the state officers. A flying squadron campaign is to be launched during the winter months and an attempt will be made to get in personal touch with every society in the district.

THE DEATHS.

LOGAN.

Jacob Logan, a former resident of Fort Wayne, died Sunday in Chicago as the result of a fractured skull, which he suffered when he fell from a wagon a few days ago. He was forty-five years of age and was well known in this city. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Logan and was born in Zanesville. He was a man who loved travel and had visited nearly every country in the world. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters—Louis L., of North Dakota, and John F. Logan, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Katherine Robertson, of Gary, and Mrs. Adeline Waleck, of Sturgis, Mich.

The remains will be brought to Fort Wayne for burial. Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Klaehn and Melching's chapel and at 3 o'clock at Zanesville chapel.

EBEL.

Arthur Ebel, aged eight months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ebel, died Sunday at the family home, 2724 Weisser Park avenue, following an illness of a few days, due to brain fever.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, Rev. A. P. Meyer officiating. Interment at St. John's cemetery.

The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mundt, also survive.

NEW MANAGER NAMED.

H. Vern Schlosser has been appointed manager of the Maumee Dairy company to succeed Mr. Collins, who has gone to Chicago. The new manager took charge the latter part of last week. For the present there will be no change in the policy of the company.

HAVE NO LETUP IN BAPTIST REVIVALS

Rev. Watkins and Fred Butler Conduct Services at South Wayne Church.

No service will be held by the evangelists who are conducting services in the Baptist churches of the city, as the First Baptist church this evening. Rev. Chas. Watkins and Fred Butler, who have been in charge of the First church meetings, will be heard at the South Wayne church. Regular meetings will be held at the Immanuel and Tabernacle churches.

The meetings Sunday were attended by crowds that filled the church. At the First church Rev. Watkins preached on the subjects, "The Lordship of Jesus" and "Knowing God." He had the largest and most attentive audiences since the meetings began. Fred Butler sang several solos. During the afternoon the every member campaign was held and luncheon was served the workers at 5 o'clock. At this time reports of the afternoon's work were given.

At the South Wayne church Sunday the same sort of attendance was reported as at the First church. Rev. Walfred Lindstrom has planned a week of big meetings for the church, starting with tonight, when Rev. Watkins has charge of the meetings. Among the things planned are a meeting for children, a luncheon for men and a young people's rally. The work is opening up splendidly at this church and prospects are very bright.

Rev. Alfred D. Merrell is conducting services at the Tabernacle church every evening. This is the infant church of the Baptist family in this city and it is doing surprisingly well. Powerful sermons are being delivered at that church by Rev. Merrell and the interest is growing daily. Special music is rendered at every meeting.

Immanuel church will have its regular meeting tonight with Rev. Roberts leading. He has enlarged the children's choir.

Tomorrow night at the First church Mr. Butler will again sing "Aloha Oe." Since the report that the Hawaiian princess, who write the anthem, is dying, came out, special interest has attached to it. He will sing it in the native tongue. He will also sing with sacred words written by Mrs. Butler, the "Anvil Song" from Robin Hood.

DEUTSCHLAND TAKES PROVISIONS ABOARD

New London, Conn., Nov. 13.—The approaching departure of the submarine Deutschland for Germany was believed to be indicated by the taking on board today of large quantities of provisions, including a liberal supply of fresh meats.

As no local dealers are understood, however, to have orders for delivery tomorrow, it is believed it may be Wednesday before the big undersea freighter turns her nose seaward. No clearance papers have been issued to Captain Paul Koenig yet, it was stated, this afternoon.

EASY WAY TO GET RABBIT FOR DINNER

Policemen who have been forming hunting parties since the first of October have related in the squad room the wily ways of hares this fall.

John Hoffman, prosecutor, who has been too busy to go hunting came in with a different story Monday morning. He tried to get away from a rabbit Saturday night, when driving his automobile along the Coldwater road and couldn't. The bunny leaped into the road ahead of the machine. It came towards the car. It was blinded by the lights.

Hoffman dodged the automobile this way and that and his wife, who accompanied him screamed. Bump! bump! went the pneumatic tires. Hoffman climbed from the car and walked back a few rods where he picked upthe dead hare. The Hoffmans had rabbit for dinner Sunday.

RAIN MAY CHANGE TO SNOW AT ANY TIME

Declaring that the extreme cold wave which is hovering over the western states is slowly moving eastward, the local weather man states that the rain which has been falling in Fort Wayne practically the entire day, may change to snow at any time. The temperature is to go lower until it may reach the twenty degree mark by Tuesday morning. A low, which is centered in the Ohio valley, is acting as a barrier to the cold wave in the west. However, it started to move Monday afternoon and in turn the high, which will bring with it the cold snap, has also started on its transcontinental trip. The lowest temperature in the country Monday morning was 26 degrees below zero at Sheridan, Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Manth, 2028 South Calhoun street, are the parents of a baby daughter.

WILSON CITES WORK OF LABOR'S BUREAU

Cabinet Member Principal Speaker at Federation Convention.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson delivered the principal address at the opening here today of the thirty-sixth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. He said he was present for the purpose of showing which side he was on.

"The greatest of all the functions of the department of labor," said the secretary, "is that of having the hopes, aspirations and philosophy of the wage workers of our country come into the councils of the president of the United States."

Of the 300 disputes between labor and capital that had come before his department Mr. Wilson said 275 had been settled in a manner satisfactory to both sides; and before a strike had been reached.

President Samuel Gompers in an address declared that in the relations between the United States and Mexico the American Federation of Labor had a part in counselling the Mexican workingmen so that they might exert a steadying influence upon the people and government of Mexico "and that the exploiters of Wall street should not drive us into passion and anger and compel a conflict with our much weaker sister republic of Mexico." This statement evoked long continueous applause. "The Lusitania situation was taken well in hand by the officials of our government," Mr. Gompers added, "and instead of declaring war with bluster, the alms and purposes of that diplomacy have accomplished all that a war could secure."

MAY MAKE AN APPEAL TO WIPE OUT SHORTAGE

Democrats Devising Means for Raising $300,000 for Campaign Bills.

New York, Nov. 13.—Plans for meeting by popular subscription the $300,000 deficit which it is said was incurred by the national democratic committee in its effort to elect President Wilson, were proposed today by Wilbur Marsh, treasurer of the committee. The proposal calls for an appeal to 2,000 cities, each to raise $100, leaving the rest to such individuals as may be willing and able to pay it off.

No concession of the election of President Wilson has come as yet from Chairman Willcox, of the republican national committee. He said today he is still waiting for the official counts in close states. While refusing to make a formal analysis of the vote, Mr. Willcox pointed to various facts as tending to refute statements that the women, farmer, railroad or labor vote in general was cast against the republican candidate. Charles Evans Hughes maintained silence at his hotel as to the election. He continues to receive a great mass of correspondence. He went for a short walk after breakfast.

RE-ARGUMENT ORDERED IN WORKMEN LAW CASES

Washington, Nov. 13.—Re-argument was ordered today by the supreme court of cases testing the constitutionality of the Washington, New York, New Jersey and Iowa workmen's compensation laws. No date was set for rehearing.

No reason was given by the court for the hearing or order. The court also ordered the re-argument of the Ohio employes' liability law.

Counsel for the International Harvester company today asked the supreme court to set for re-argument on Feb. 26 the government's anti-trust dissolution suit against it. They suggested that the Harvester case should be heard about the same time as the dissolution suit against the United States steel corporation since like questions are involved.

Chief Justice White today announced that the supreme court would recess for two weeks from Nov. 20 to Dec. 4, over the Thanksgiving holiday with opinions and orders next Monday.

PASSENGER ESCAPES DEATH.

Aviator Is Killed in Making Flight at Buenos Ayres.

Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, Nov. 13.—While Pierre Macho, an aviator, was making a flight today with a passenger his machine fell. The aviator was killed and his passenger was injured.

SEVENTH ROAD ATTACKS.

Chicago & Eastern Illinois Would Enjoin Adamson Law.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—The seventh railroad to attack the Adamson law appeared today when suit for an injunction was filed in the United States district court by the Chicago & Eastern Illinois.

EMPEROR'S NAME MAY BE DRAWN INTO CASE

Washington, Nov. 13.—Arrangements for the prosecution of Karl Armgaard Graves, self-styled "master spy" and magazine writer who was arrested here Saturday on a charge of attempting to extort $3,000 from Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the German ambassador, by the theft of letters, will be completed today at a conference between agents of the department of justice, representatives of the district attorney's office and Prince Hatzfeldt, counsellor of the German embassy.

The name of Emperor William of Germany may be brought into the case indirectly as a result of this conference. A diplomatic representative in a foreign country canont divest himself of his immunity from giving testimony without special permission from his sovereign. As Graves conversed solely with Prince Hatzfeldt, it may be that the district attorney's office will determine that his testimony is essential.

It is not expected that either Countess von Bernstorff or the German ambassador will be requested to appear against Graves.

The letter for which Graves is alleged to have asked $3,000, remained in the possession of agents of the department of justice today. The German embassy is familiar with their contents and is understood to have agreed that they be kept by the prosecution. The German embassy is most anxious to learn how Graves obtained the letters which he is alleged to have brought, that will embarrass "Countess von Bernstorff if made public." It is considered unlikely, however, that information on this point can be obtained until the steamship Oscar II, upon which Graves declares they were brought to the United States, returns to New York.

Graves was in New York today. He left Washington late Saturday night, after his release on $2,000 bail, saying he intended to secure counsel before returning for his preliminary hearing Wednesday.

HITS WOMAN ON HEAD WITH BEER BOTTLE

Mrs. Frank Boyama was a sorry sight when police arrived at her home near the corner of Taylor and Fairfield, Monday afternoon, in answer to a riot call. The woman's black hair was matted with blood and her dress streaked crimson by blood which had run from a deep wound in her scalp.

Frank Porilla, who works in the pool room at the corner of Taylor street and Fairfield avenue, and who boards at the woman's house, had struck her with a beer bottle, police were told. Porilla is locked up on a drunk charge. He has been causing a disturbance in the neighborhood for a week, police say.

NEW TIME EXTENSION GIVEN BY CARRANZA

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 13.—Louis Cabrera, chairman of the Mexican representation, advised the American members of the Mexican-American joint commission today that a further extension of sixty days, or until January 14, had been given owners of mines in Mexico to reopen their properties. Mr. Cabrera explained that in granting the second extension Gen. Carranza was manifesting a spirit of fairness inasmuch as he was admitting the justice of the assertions of the mine owners that conditions in many sections of the south where their properties are located are such that their operation is now impracticable.

MARRIED SATURDAY AT HILLSDALE, MICH.

In order to escape their friends but known to both of their families, Homer C. Schlaudroff, aged 28, and Miss Grace A. Smart, aged 25, both of Fort Wayne, were married Saturday at Hillsdale, Mich., by Rev. Louis De Lamarter at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. Schlaudroff is an electrician employed at P. E. Arnold & Co., and resided with his parents at 1616 St. Mary's avenue. Miss Smart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smart, 1159 West Main street.

The newly married couple have returned to Fort Wayne and are making their home with the groom's parents on St. Mary's avenue.

SCHOOL BOARD IN SESSION.

Teacher for Open Air School Is Question for Consideration.

The school board of the Fort Wayne city schools met in Supt. Justin E. Study's office Monday afternoon in regular session. One of the important questions for consideration was the selection of a teacher for the Perry A. Randall open air school. The building is being erected on the Plymouth Congregational church property on West Berry street. The board will dispose of the regular routine of business.

SAND IS JUST WHAT FORT WAYNE NEEDS

More sand is what Fort Wayne needs right now.

Contractors say that sand is harder to procure than coal or even potatoes. Improvement work is being held up and in some cases it is feared that winter will stop concrete work because there is no sand at hand with which to push the job while fall lingers. Every contractor in town says he will use all the sand you can bring him.

Shortage of gondola cars, the low, flatcars used for transporting coal, rock and sand, is holding up shipment of the mineral, contractors say. Cars cannot be had at Wolcottville or Pleasant Lake, whence Fort Wayne draws her sand supply.

It is reported that the cars are being congested in the railroad yards. Railroad companies say they are unable to secure the cars for their trade. Sand which has been ordered for 1 severa weeks has not yet arrived in the city. There is promise that a supply will be here soon. The shipment will be divided among contractors in an effort to get as much of the work, especially where concrete is used, finished before winter.

SCHOOL BEINB BEAUTIFIED.

Lawn at Rudisill School Being Decorated by Many Shrubs.

Nearly five hundred shrubs, of many different varieties, are being set in the front lawn before the Rudisill school on Spy Run avenue by city workmen under direction of Park Superintendent Getz. The bushy plants will line the lawn and form pretty designs in the center of the yard. Most of the plants are of blooming varieties and many shades of flowers will come and go with the seasons.

Jefferson school, on West Jefferson street, will be the next school yard to be decorated. The school board has decided to provide for landscaping all of the school lawns by completing two each year. The Harmar and James H. Smart schools have already been set out in shrubbery.

Improvement Work.

Laying of brick between the car tracks on South Calhoun street will be completed Tuesday.

Forms for holding concrete are being built in the trench for the St. Joe retaining wall. Concrete will be poured in the molds later in the week.

Paving of Swinney avenue from Phenie to Broadway will be completed by the Grace Construction company Wednesday.

St. Joe boulevard from Lake avenue to State street will be finished this week.

Birth Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nance, 2028 South Calhoun street, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creigh, 1023 Cochrane street, a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Oberholtzer, 345 Melita street, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Juliase Barrand, 1825 Parnell avenue, a girl.

Building Permits.

Firemen on Vacation.

Firemen who started their two-week vacation on Sunday are Fred Ludemann, No. 1 station; John Hoober, No. 8, and Edgar Hollis, No. 3.

THINKS TRAFFIC MAPS MIGHT HELP THE CASE

Louisville, Nov. 13.—To the various measures advocated by railroad operatives for the prevention of car shortages such as now exist in various parts of the country a suggestion for the issuance of traffic maps by the interstate commerce commission was made this morning by J. T. Bougher, chief clerk of the car record department of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad. Bougher, testifying in connection with an investigation by the interstate commerce commission into the problems, suggested the exchange and return of freight cars by the railroads of the country.

Proposals made Saturday by railroad representatives present at the hearings and approved by Commissioner McChord that all railroads begin immediately the return of foreign coal cars to the owning lines it was indicated this morning would be complied with as rapidly as it was possible for the equipment to be moved. The return of coal car equipment to the owning roads is expected to result in the lifting of embargees by roads on which much of the country's coal supply originates. Embargees by such railroads against the movement of their coal cars beyond their own lines, witnesses at the hearing declared, has resulted in an acute shortage of fuel is many sections.

BOURKE COCKRAN RETAINED.

Will Defend Five Indicted for Murder at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Bourke Cockran, New York attorney and former congressman, will defend without charge the five persons indicted here for the murder of ten victims of the preparedness day bomb explosion of July 22. February 16, it was announced here today.

FRIARS WIN IN HANDY FASHION

"You see, it was just like this"—that's the way we expected to begin this historical account when word came in late Saturday afternoon that Dorias was laid up and could not play. With all due apologies to Checkeye, it certainly did look gloomy for Friar fans when the dope came in. But the team didn't lose any nerve and Coony insisted that he could get by, and believe us, he did.

Because of the way in which the North Ends came up from behind and won at Wabash a few weeks ago that fourteen marker didn't look so big until the final whistle blew and then we were mighty proud of it. A pair of the most brilliant ends who ever played the game around these parts did a great deal in stopping Evanston's scoring plays. The defensive play of the entire team yesterday was the kind that makes you set up and take notice. If Elward and Hunter play any better when using their own names than when working under aliases we sure would like to see them do it. When Pliska punted yesterday, the Evanston back might as well have signaled for fair catches and saved themselves bumps for they didn't have a chance to shake a foot. The two wing men were down under the kicks and had the man before he was sure he had the ball.

The backs delivered in faultless style as usual and the gains through the line which they ripped off were almost uncanny considering the class of team they were up against. Chris Chambers and Joe Pliska went through the line time and again for the full distance and Johnson was right there with his full line of long end runs. This boy Johnson did some brilliant work in breaking up passes, too.

That forward line played faultless football yesterday and were certainly whales. Butch Wilkins played the whole game and looked great. Edwards, Jones, Feeney and Daley, the big four, worked as they never worked before, and any fan will say that they have done some work this year. Feeney goes better in every game and the interference he forms after passing the ball makes him one of the most valuable men on the team.

The locals took the long end of the score early and after the backs had torn through the visitors' line till the ball was on the two yard line. Coony then ducked through the line for the first counter. Feeney kicked a pretty goal.

Johnson's toe came in for some good work during the afternoon and he made some pretty kicks. Checkeye made a feature run after receiving one of the punts, sprinting right up the side line to within ten yards of where the ball was kicked from. He was never easy to get and kept the visitors busy watching him. Not one North Ender had the honor of stopping him single-handed yesterday, and it generally took three or four of them.

At the beginning of the second period Pliska punted and Johnson of the visitors was downed in his tracks by the local end. When aerial football failed them at this point the visitors kicked, dropping Coony on the Friar twenty yard line. Four plays were necessary to get the ball in neutral territory. From there the local backs carried it to the shadow of Evanston's goal posts only to lose it on a penalty. Johnson soon punted out for the North Ends and Checkeye, receiving the ball, made a forty yard run back to the twenty yard line.

In this manner the game ran with the visitors never real dangerous. They would start down field with some brilliant plays and passes, making first down once or twice, then the locals would get next to the plays and stop them dead, many times for a loss. Only once did Johnson attempt a kick and this one was a bad miss.

Between halves, however, Friar stock dropped to below nothing. The fans were just beginning to realize the kind of game Checkeye was playing when the report came that the little quarter had broken his arm at the last of the second period. That sure was a scare and Coony was a welcome sight when he ran out for the last half. He did sprain his wrist but not enough to keep him from playing.

One more counter was made for the Friars late in the third when Pliska took the pill over on an end run. He made a pretty punt out and Al Feeney kicked the goal. By this time Chambers could hardly stand up any longer and he was taken out and Young went in. He played a hard game while he was in. Toward the end Smith was put in for Johnson. The tow-head got a poor start on his first run, but he made up for it before the end by intercepting a pass and taking it close to the center of the field.

Not until there were only about two minutes left to play did the fans breathe easy. By that time they figured that it would be hard for the visitors to come up from behind and they sat back and enjoyed the game. The final whistle left the ball in the center of the field and everybody happy.

The score:

EVANSTON (0).		FRIARS (14).

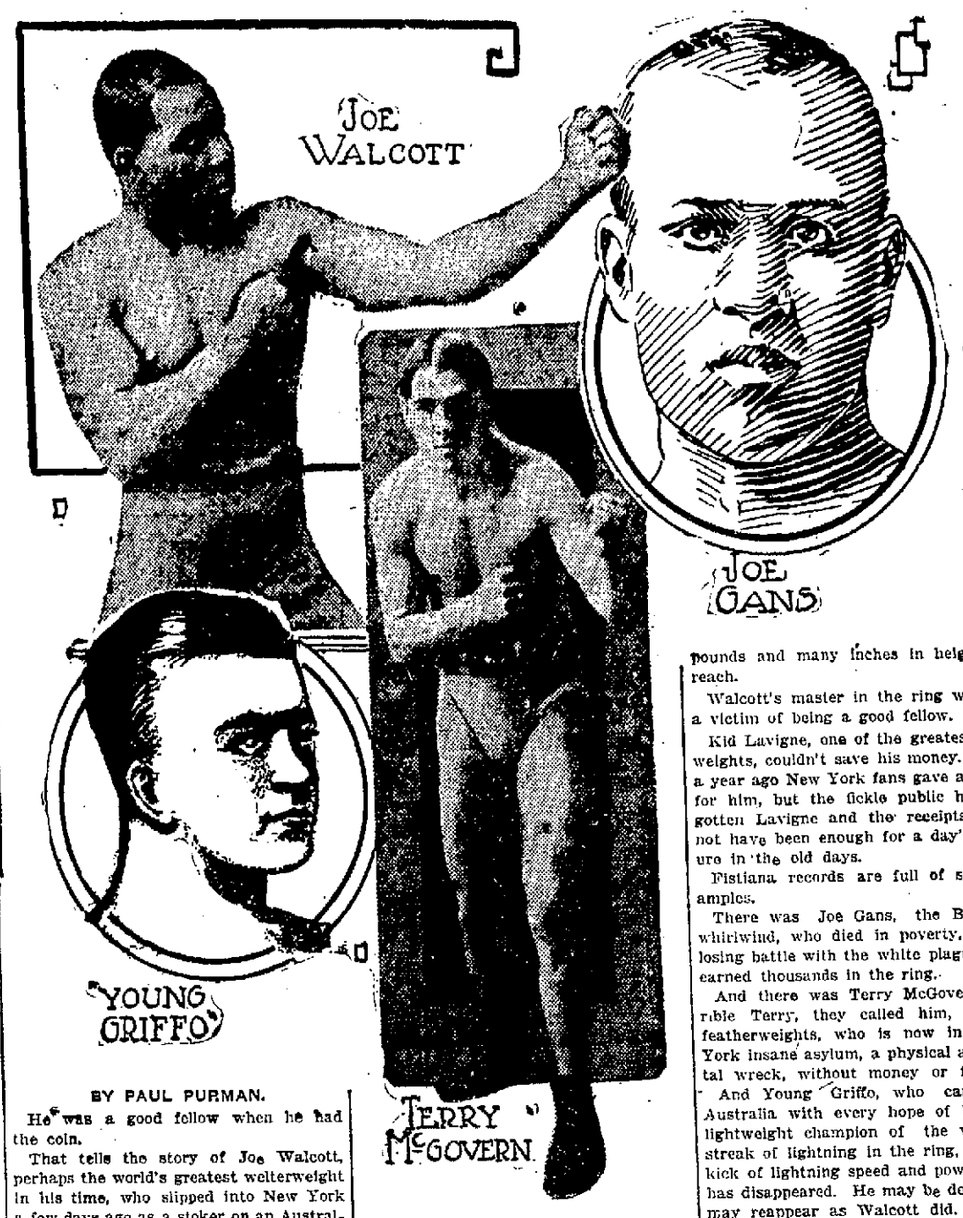
They Where Good Fellows When They Had The Coin!



BY PAUL PURMAN.

He was a good fellow when he had the coin.

That tells the story of Joe Walcott, perhaps the world's greatest welterweight in his time, who slipped into New York a few days ago as a stoker on an Australian liner.

Penniless, down and out, ragged, a pitiful figure he made as he crossed the gang plank and made his way to the places he used to haunt as a popular hero.

Walcott, the "Barbados Demon," made thousands of dollars in his years in the ring back in the nineties, but he couldn't stand prosperity.

Drink, women, dice—they draw the picture of his downfall. He had scores of friends, until his earning capacity was ended one night in a brawl when he accidentally shot himself in the hand.

Walcott's career in the ring was sensational. He reached the height of his prominence when he stopped Joe Choynski in seven rounds, giving away many pounds and many inches in height and reach.

Kid Lavigne, one of the greatest lightweights, couldn't save his money. About a year ago New York fans gave a benefit for him, but the fickle public had forgotten Lavigne and the receipts would not have been enough for a day's pleasure in the old days.

Fistiana records are full of such examples.

There was Joe Gans, the Baltimore whirlwind, who died in poverty, after a losing battle with the white plague. Gans earned thousands in the ring.

And there was Terry McGovern, Terrible Terry, they called him, king of featherweights, who is now in a New York insane asylum, a physical and mental wreck, without money or friends.

And Young Griffo, who came from Australia with every hope of becoming lightweight champion of the world, a streak of lightning in the ring, with the kick of lightning speed and power. Griffo has disappeared. He may be dead, or he may reappear as Walcott did. Walcott had been long thought dead.

And George Dixon, the greatest featherweight of them all, who died in poverty, and Stanley Ketchell and a score of others.

Joe Walcott and the others should be a moral to the young man who would be a good fellow.

They were the best fellows in the world—but look at them now.

WABASH LOSES IN TIGHT GRID GAME

Pine Village Comes Back After Splitting Even in First Contest.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 13.—After losing two games in succession the Pine Village team defeated the Wabash A. A.'s at League park here yesterday by a score of 7 to 0. Five thousand people witnessed the game.

Pine Village made its touchdown near the close of the first quarter, and, although the Villagers repeatedly punctured the Wabash line for big gains, the latter aggregation always stiffened when its goal line was in danger.

King was the real star of the game. Once he plunged through center for twenty-five yards, leaving a string of would-be tacklers in his wake. Again he hit the line for seventeen yards and made many others of less denomination. Eli Fenters followed King closely and Wabash found him a slippery man. Milligan, Davis, Winter and Keefe starred in the line for Pine Village, and Ofstie, Krause and Helvie broke up interference. Kenneth Yarnelle was the only Wabash back who could do much on the offensive, while McHale and Routh were strongest in the line.

Wabash kicked off and Pine Village carried the ball steadily down the field to the thirteen-yard line, where Wabash held. G. Yarnelle punted and Pine Village plowed down the field, but again was halted, and Yarnelle punted to Wabash's forty-five-yard line. E. Fenters gained eight yards and King went through for twenty-five, then adding six yards. R. Fenters made two yards and King placed the ball an inch from the line. R. Fenters went over on the fourth down and E. Fenters kicked goal. Line-up:

Krause	L. E.	Reno
Winter	L. T.	Routh
Walker	L. G.	McHale

Time of quarters—15 minutes each.

BACK TO CENTRAL LEAGUE NEXT YEAR

According to the latest baseball gossip Fort Wayne will be represented in the Central circuit next season by Gibert and his Terre Haute team. In case this deal is put across the team will be the joint property of local and Terre Haute capital.

The down staters want to get in the Three-I league again because of the way in which the city is situated with reference to the other clubs. They plan for that reason to put the Central league team here and another team in the Three-I.

One of the plans of the baseball magnates of that city is to break into the major leagues. In case that is accomplished Fort Wayne and Terre Haute will furnish the farms for the big leaguers.

PINE VILLAGE AFTER MACOMBER.

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 13.—"Cap" Squier, assistant coach at Illinois, was offered $75 to play football yesterday with the Pine Village (Ind.) professional team, but refused the offer. Tempting offers were also made to Bart Macomber to play with the team after the regular college schedule is concluded.

Aztec corn 1,000 years old was recently planted in Kansas. It grows much faster than modern corn and the grains will be of premium.

BACHELORS COP FROM BADGERS IN PRELIM

In a close and well played game the Bachelors won from the Badgers yesterday afternoon in a preliminary to the Friar game. The only count was made when Berghoff, playing right end for the ex-champs, scooped up a fumble made by the Badgers and sprinted seventy yards for a count. The try for goal was missed.

This leaves the Bachelors and the West Ends in the play for the 1916 title. The final game will be played Thanksgiving day as a preliminary to the Friar-Panhandle game. Several new men appeared in the Bachelor line-up yesterday and the coach, Baker, a former Butler star, may have a team which is almost entirely new to present on Turkey day. The line-up:

BACHELORS (6).		BADGERS (0).

Bachelors Secure League for November 26 and Will Stage Game.

The managers of the Bachelor football team have secured the use of League park for November 26, the date on which the Friars go to Wabash, and will play the Walsh hall team of Notre Dame. After considering the proposition made by the Bachelors, the Friar managers decided that a game played here on that date would in no way interfere with the Wabash contest and decided to let the Bachelors have the field.

The game should prove a great attraction to fans who are unable to attend the contest at Wabash. Notre Dame hall teams have always been popular here and the chances are that the Bachelors will have a good crowd. Two Fort Wayne men play on the Walsh hall team and it is possible that a crew of students will accompany the team to this city. Father Farley, who has always brought the teams here when they played the Friars, will probably be with them this year.

This game will mark a forward stride for the amateurs of this city, for although several of the teams have stacked up against high class performers in other cities, they have never tried it at home before. A great deal of interest is already being taken in the game, although it is still nearly two weeks away and the chances are that the interest will increase as the time shortens.

DIES AT HOME OF HER DAUGHTER IN WYOMING

Following a very brief illness due to cerebral hemorrhages, Mrs. George M. Naylor, a prominent former resident of Fort Wayne, died Sunday morning at Casper, Wyo., where she had gone a year ago to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Donald A. McQueen, a former society reporter of a local paper. Her death comes as a great shock to hundreds of Fort Wayne people who were personally acquainted with her.

The deceased was born in Logansport, where she resided until after marriage, when she moved to Minneapolis. Later she came to Fort Wayne and had resided here many years. She was president of the Fortnightly club and was a director of the Fort Wayne Art school, a member of the Women's Reading club, chairman of the state press committee of the Indiana State Federation of Women's Clubs and the women's suffrage movement in Indiana. She was very popular in social circles.

Besides her husband, George M. Naylor, of Santa Cruz, Cal., she is survived by four children—Mrs. Donald A. McQueen, at whose home she died; Mrs. H. W. Penniman, of Santa Cruz; Louise Hall Naylor, of San Francisco, and A. F. H. Naylor, of Fort Wayne; and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Hannah Hall Ellison, of Fort Wayne; W. H. and H. L. Hall, of Topeka, Kas., and Mrs. Walter L. Johnson, of Santa Cruz

Washington, Nov. 13.—Establishment of a system of exchanging letters between American and foreign school children earnestly advanced by Ambassador Naon and other diplomatists was submitted today by the American Peace society here in a letter to the school division.

Under the plan, high school pupils would be encouraged as part of their course to prepare a regular letter at stated intervals to another high school pupil in some South American or European country. The letters would be all co-ordinated and in some cases where essential, translated and then delivered through the schools of the foreign country. Correspondence would be between individuals so that the personal element would be encouraged as much as possible.

The proposition is believed to have very great possibilities in favoring international intercourse.

Ambassador Naon has written that he would be "most pleased to co-operate" and has agreed to translate as many letters as possible for transmission to Argentina. If the plan works out as expected the society will extend it just as far as possible. Co-operation of American teachers and foreign diplomats will be sought with possibly the creation of a central distributing and overseeing bureau. The results so far are said to be most satisfactory.

T. R. DECLINES TO TALK ON PIPE DREAM

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Put out by the political significance attached by various politicians and newspapers to the visit of George W. Perkins to Sagamore Hill yesterday, Col. Theodore Roosevelt today expressed himself definitely in regard to the 1920 sentiment. He characterized such talk as "pipe dreams."

"I want it clearly understood," he said, "that no amount of visits or talk can induce me to speak of the 1920 nomination. I won't discuss pipe dreams."

HYPNOTISM PLAYS LEAD IN GREAT MURDER MYSTERY—EITHER FAKE OR BRUTAL CRIME.

Santa Monica, Cal., Nov. 13.—Is Benton L. Barrett, retired Indian farmer, aged 65, a hypnotized dupe or perpetrator of a double murder hideous in its inception?

Did a plot to secure his $25,000 life insurance, coupled with a family wrangle over property, send him with deluded mind to confess a crime he had not committed?

The foregoing is involved in an amazing state of affairs centering on an alleged crime to which Barrett has "confessed." That conspirators, including two hypnotists, have endeavored to make a victim of Barrett is the theory of detectives working on the case.

Barrett walked into the district attorney's office recently and declared that he had murdered his wife and stepson in the back yard of their home, afterward burning their bodies in a brush fire. He said that in self-defense he had beat them to death with a club.

Investigation by the authorities left them suspicious as to the truthfulness of Barrett. No evidence was found in the yard of a scuffle. In the barn were found bloodstains. In a cesspool were found larger bones than the few discovered in the brush pile remains.

Confronted with this evidence, Barrett varied his former statements and said he must have killed them in the barn and put the bones in the cesspool. About the time of the slaying a skeleton was stolen from a medical college. Anatomy experts say the bones found were not conformant with the age of the alleged victims.

Barrett asserted the crime was committed Wednesday, October 18. Three people testified that they saw the alleged victims after they were supposed to be dead.

Did Barrett commit any crime? Are his supposed victims dead? An attorney for the defense, Earl Rogers, says that there was much family dissension over the Barrett property. Barrett's $25,000 insurance also is deeply considered.

Clues are being followed which are expected to result in the arrest of at least one of the conspirators whom detectives claim include a physician, a medical student and two hypnotists.

Another interesting feature of the hypnotic theory is the assertion by psycho-pathologists that the "influence" is due to dispel itself in a few weeks.

The theory advanced as to the motive for the possible duping of Barrett is as follows:

Under the strain of accusation it was hoped Barrett would commit suicide, thus making it possible to collect insurance on his life, also to shield the real criminal if the crime confessed to by Barrett was actually committed.

HERO APPEARS FROM THE SEWERS OF PARIS

Underworld Being Responds to the Call of His Country.

London, Nov. 13.—A helmeted captain of sappers just back from the French front tells this story:

"The indispensable man is he who can do ONE thing superlatively well; school systems turn out mere jacks-of-all-trades. Gen. Gallieni (the saviour of Paris) said that first: how well HE could tell the story of 'The Rat!'

"Our division holds the grimmest sector of the Somme. Loopholes in the parapet show as in little framed pictures vistas of shot-torn villages held by the enemy. Five hundred feet away the Germans were building a bridge-like platform for quick firers and outposts. They were so near we could hear them cough.

"Day and night our snipers stood in the fire trench with their eyes fixed on the sights of their rifles; yet that gunbridge grew, threatening our strategic salient, silencing the 75's.

"One evening a stocky, smileless soldier came to me warily, the position being a hushed place of danger.

"'Captain,' he whispered, 'command me to blow up that erection!'

"I knew the lad—a gamin named by his comrades, 'The Rat,' called by the officers 'Mon Enfant!' There is 'swank' in the French army; we fellow-republicans are brothers-in-arms, neither shy nor ashamed to confess our love for France.

"'To destroy that gunbridge requires a picked man,' I told him.

"'Monsieur, I was mobilized by Gen. Gallieni for Les Morts' (the Dead Ones), he returned.

"Now France has not forgotten that suicide squad. When German armies swept through France, Gallieni, determined to defend Paris, called up a corps who knew the underground city. He asked from them no character reference; he confided to them an ultimate plan. When the tocsin tolled they—without further orders—must blow up certain subterranean salients. The plan might save the capital; but it afforded no escape for the sappers.

"'My post was beneath the Gare du Nord sector,' observed the Rat.

"Ten minutes later our commanding colonel gave him instructions for dynamiting the German outposts. Orders for the approach were minute; no arrangements were made for the Rat's return. To reach the enemy would be wonderful; to get away would be incredible.

"'You are my only friends,' he explained.

"Then, oiling his body with wheel grease, he belted on a bag of explosives and crawled through our wire entanglements like a thief in the night.

"Beyond lay a marsh saturated with rotten water. Noiseless as a weasel, the Rat and his heavy burden sank beneath the slime. Once we saw him hauling across a humoc; but two hours' progress was terribly slow; for he ran a gauntlet of mines and electrified wires and sunken man-traps.

"Ears trained to every acuteness, eyes able to see through the dark, the gamin from the sewers of Paris avoided squeaking vermin and swinging searchlights. Hawk-eyed comrades, bearded like cavemen, lined our parapet to listen. The colonel commanding stood beside them.

"'Poor Rat,' said he to me, 'Gallieni told me about him. Arrested at seven years old for a folly, locked up at ten for being an orphan, set aside for 'reformation'—at thirteen, made bitter, and desperate, and shameless, according to law. His every talent ignored: a citizen spoiled in the training; only Gallieni could have called out his best instinct.

"'The state has much to learn after the war!'

"Five hundred feet across the dark the furtive Rat, gauging distances to an inch, rose through the slime beneath the German gunbridge. Sentinels and star shells failed to find him, a shadow motionless amidst the shadows.

"A minute to clear his eyes of muck, to loose the sodden strap confining the explosive, to press a bomb knob which would explode the charge in 20 seconds—then drawing a deep breath, he dived and swam furiously under water.

"A thunderous roar as gunbridge and outpost sprayed skyward told that his work was done. The sharp, barking click! click! click; of French 75's gave response to that clangor.

"An hour later some of the grimmest fighters in Europe disputed which should wrap a shivering comrade in blue great coats. The gray colonel commanding greeted the daring sapper with grim satisfaction.

"'Bravo, mon enfant, I salute a soldier of France. Judgment and skill proved perfect. Your training before the war was——?'

The sum of $15,000 is yet needed to pay for the two park sites and those making subscriptions are asked to pay them as quickly as possible.

RAPID PROGRESS MADE ON HUGE WORLD MAPS

Washington, Nov. 13.—Rapid progress is being made by the United States in preparing its portion of the huge world map which was agreed upon in 1909 by nearly all the principal countries. By international agreement the authorities began preparing maps of the entire surface of the earth to be published on a scale one-millionth of actual size, or about one inch to every sixteen miles. All the maps are to be of uniform shape and general appearance and are to have the same conventional signs.

To meet the popular demand in this country for State maps, the United States Geological Survey, which has charge of the making of the American section of the world map, is preparing and publishing maps of each state on a larger scale than the world map sections. These state maps are twice the size or about one inch to every eight miles. A map of the entire United States on that scale would cover a sheet measuring twenty feet by thirty-one feet.

The survey already has issued such maps for thirty-three states, the latest being that of Florida, which is one of the largest of the series. In compiling the maps every available source of information has been ransacked for material, and many data never before available to the public in any form have been produced, so that the maps exceed in accuracy any heretofore published. The new Florida map measures 44½ inches by 61 inches.

Show How Work Could Be Speeded Up Greatly in Emergency.

New York, Nov. 13.—Recommendations calculated to facilitate the movement of troops throughout the United States in time of national emergency are given in a report made public here last night by the special committee of the American Railway association appointed to co-operate with the government in connection with the transportation of the national guard to the Mexican border. Chief among the recommendations are:

That at least semi-annually railways file with the general secretary of the American association a statement of their passenger equipment, subdivided into classes, particularly with relation to the character of the coaches available and their seating capacity.

That the committee on relations between railroads prepare a system of passing reports for movement of troop trains, which can be put in service upon short notice, ciphered, if possible, in order to save telegraphing.

Also that the committee on relations be directed to prepare a passing report for empty passenger equipment, ciphered, if possible.

That under similar conditions in the future the Pullman company and the American Railway association combine their offices, so that all information as to car and troop movements will be available to both.

That the railroads having access to each mobilization camp designate a representative at each camp, whose name will be filed with the general secretary of the American Railway association, with any changes which may be necessary from time to time, in order that no time may be lost in such a representative undertaking his duties in case of emergency.

BARGE CANAL WILL BE HEARING TOPIC

The thirteenth annual meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which will be held at the New Willard hotel, Washington, Dec. 6, 7 and 8, is announced in the official call received by S. F. Bowser, president of the Erie & Michigan Deep Waterways association. Invitation to Fort Wayne and Huntington to send delegates to the meeting has been extended by S. A. Thompson, the secretary.

Boosters for the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal are much interested in this meeting as the rivers and harbors board will hear the appeal taken from the report of the army engineers on the deep waterway. Hon. Thomas E. Ellison, of Fort Wayne, is preparing a brief to be presented to the board and favorable action, either in the time extension grant or reconsideration of the army board's report, may be obtained. Mr. Bowser, A. M. Groves, of Fort Wayne, and C. B. Williams, of Huntington, will attend the sessions of the rivers and harbors board.

Congress to Welcome Woman, Though It Could Be Forbidden.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Party leaders here do not believe Miss Jeanette Rankin, of Montana, will be barred from the house, to which she was duly elected by voters of her state, because of the word "he" in the constitution.

The house could arbitrarily throw her out, but that is not likely to happen. Miss Rankin is well known and liked by the members of the house.

She was a popular lobbyist for woman suffrage for the National Woman Suffrage association for two years, and while acting in that capacity she met many of the members of the present house.

Miss Rankin is a republican. She ran in the primaries of Montana and defeated a republican for the nomination. She came out boldly for prohibition and outdistanced her party opponent.

WOMAN IS HELD FOR KIDNAPING HER SON

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mrs. Estella Briggs, of this city, is being held in the St. Joseph county jail charged with kidnaping her 2-year-old son from the home of her former husband, J. H. Bellard, at Greencastle. The alleged kidnaping took place two weeks ago. Bellard, learning that his former wife was in South Bend, came here Friday and after the officers had located the woman swore out a warrant for her arrest. She will be taken to Greencastle to face trial. The custody of the child was awarded to the father when the couple was divorced. A daughter 4 years old was placed in the custody of the mother. Mrs. Briggs insisted that it was not proper to separate the two children.

In an old fairy-tale, the imprisoned princess possessed a magic dial; and gazing into its crystal depths, she could see pictures of all that was to pass in the years to come.

She could see the children in a well- furnished home—contented, growing up into high-minded men and women.

She could see Mother, taking great care to keep the home always cheerful, attractive, livable.

She could see Father, working, fighting to keep his family in beautiful and comfortable surroundings.

She could see a contented, companionable family with high ideals.

Everybody is more interested in good furniture than they were a few years ago—and in this store they'll find a splendid collection of beautifully designed, splendidly constructed furniture, in which they'll take great pride for years to come, at prices to fit every purse.

Dining Room

The right up-to-the-last-minute in dining room furniture styles are Period Designs. We have all the new and artistic creations which American makers have copied from the old masters: Sheraton — William and Mary — Jacobean — Queen Ann, etc., etc., in a wealth of display seldom offered in a city of this size. Mahogany prevails in both rich dark finish and the natural finish. This line represents the final achievements of the finest makers of quality furniture. From it you are sure of pleasing satisfaction.

Bedroom

There was a day when almost any old furniture would do for the bed room. Nobody saw it but the occupants. Nowadays it is different. Style in bed room furniture has been carried to the highest attainments of the cabinet maker's art. Nothing is more convincing of this fact than the new lines we have to offer in all bed room articles. Quite the correct style of the moment is the dainty, yet sturdy Ivory finish bed room suites of which we have a beautiful line.

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Advertisement.

DEMAND THAT ENGLAND ASSUME MORE BURDEN

French Military Critic Believes France Entitled to Some Relief.

London, Nov. 13.—The Express features an article in today's issue by a French military writer, Captain Philippe Millet, calling on Great Britain to take over more of the western front and relieve the French.

Captain Millet says it is necessary to speak plainly that the alliance of Great Britain and France cannot be based on a mere exchange of compliments and that all Frenchmen are wondering whether the English fully realize what is happening in France. He says the French recognize gratefully what Great Britain has already done, but feels that the time has come for the British army to relieve the French more effectually. The writer quotes utterances of the French deputies to support his claim and remarks that the British are holding only 150 kilometers of the front compared to the French 580 kilometers. He adds: "There is not one village in France where the people do not expect our friends to enable us after twenty-seven months of hard struggle, to have some rest during the third winter and prepare for an advance next year without having to exhaust ourselves. This is what our people feel. They have put their trust in Great Britain and they all expect the relief of a good bit of the French line to be made soon."

GETS JAIL SENTENCE FOR CHICKEN DINNER

Mental status of Fred Kline, 40, 1022 Hayden street, refused to revert to his stealthy entrance into the wired cage of a chicken park Saturday night, when he was questioned in police court Monday morning. He could not remember carrying the fowls home and preparing them for a roast for his friends.

But Henry Lahmer, 1005 Hayden street, had reported loss of the four birds and suspicion fell on Kline. Detective Sergeants Junk and Spillner arrived at Kline's apartments Sunday just as the quartet of Kline and his three friends were ready to be seated at the festal board.

Kline was locked up. He pleaded guilty to having stolen the chickens on Sunday. Monday he could remember nothing about the affair, he said. He was fined $20 and sentenced to ninety days at the penal farm.

Collected No Damages.

Shimmering mirrors and polished barorom fixtures overwhelmed the senses of Benjamin Depew, Noble county farmer, who came to Fort Wayne on Saturday to collect damages. Every passing hour found Depew less of a business man. He was disturbing people on the street when arrested at nightfall.

The rig in which Depew was riding was wrecked and the mule attached to the buggy injured by collision with an automobile driven by Bert Spitler, Columbia street, during the Kendallville fair. Depew thinks his property was damaged to extent of $100. He came to collect the money Saturday. He will come back again some other day, as he promised Judge Kerr to go right home from police court Monday morning.

Charged with Coupon Theft.

Harry Leonard, employe of the Grand Union Tea company, 115 West Wayne street, will be tried Tuesday morning on a charge of petit larceny. He entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of stealing coupons from the tea company in police court. He will be represented by an attorney.

Leonard, who drove one of the wagons for the company, is charged with having used certificates placed in his keeping for obtaining gifts from the tea company. He is said to have procured several pieces of china and a handbag.

Stole Brass Fixtures.

John A. Pratt, 1445 Eureka street, pleaded guilty to theft of brass fixtures and small tools from the General Electric company, where he has been employed. He is held in jail under $200 bond for disposition of the case Tuesday morning.

Pratt is a married man. He said he left the articles in his pockets and then forgot and kept them at home, where Sergeant Detectives Spillner and Junk found them Sunday.

Will Take Out License.

Judge S. M. Hench, who appeared for the defendant, said he had known Manford Hensiel, farmer, living on the Huntington road, since the spring of 1866. Hensiel was charged with peddling milk in Fort Wayne without a license. If Hensiel takes out a license before Tuesday morning, and he says he will, the case will end.

Other Police Court Cases.

Huston Hines (colored), who hoisted a row in the rooming house at 119 Eureka street Saturday night, was fined $1 and costs on a disorderly charge.

Cases of public intoxication were: Brisco Holmes (colored), $20 and thirty days in jail; Edward Green, $5; George Boyer, $1; Fred Polte, Henry Sandford, Fred Roop, Cyrus Wright, James Davis, Frank Sullivan, Patrick Doyle, John Delvelin, Arthur Smith were released.

Following were released after pleading guilty to loitering charges: George Reick, Curtis Karoh, Edward Tracy, John Rollins (negro) and George Ward. Christ Seidell and John Keifer are held until Tuesday under $50 bond.

ROANOKE NEWS.

Roanoke, Ind., Nov. 13.—James Blee, who was injured while alighting from a street car at Fort Wayne, has so far recovered that he was able to be removed to the home of his daughter at the above place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hefner left Wednesday for near Danville, Ill., where they will attend the wedding of the latter's brother, Tunis Young.

J. H. York made a business trip to Huntington Monday.

The revival services, which were to begin at Wesley chapel this week, start on next Monday evening.

D. A. McGinnis was the victim of paralysis last Saturday afternoon, while at his tie barn. He had been talking and joking with his wife and all of a sudden fell from his chair on which he was sitting. He was removed to his home, where his condition has been critical.

The Library club will meet in regular services on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Etha Eddingfield, with Mrs. Eva Chenneour and Misses Eva Roberts and Glenna Kemp hostesses. There will be an address on "State Laws With Which We Should Be Familiar," by S. M. Sayler, of Huntington, and an Indiana story by Mrs. Martha Olds. Every member is invited to attend.

Beulah Alice, the little seven months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raife Hummer, died Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, on Posey Hill. The funeral and interment were held Friday at Lancaster.

Samuel Grim has left for Muncie, where he will spend several weeks with his daughter, Mrs. M. L. Dague, of that place.

The North Main street road will in all probability be finished this week. The dirt covering over the concrete has been removed and if work is not retarded by inclement weather, the stone portion will be all in and rolled ready for traffic. This will be a great help for this vicinity, as the road has been closed practically all summer and it has been necessary to detour by Aboite or Seminary street, to get to Fort Wayne or north from here, but we can now have a good thoroughfare all the way through. Whitley county is also putting their roads in first class condition and this vicinity will not be an eyesore to the public any longer on the road question.

WILL MAKE REPORT TO LEGISLATURE

Governor Ralston Names Legislative Visiting Committee.

Indianapolis, Nov. 13.—Governor Ralston has named the three members of the legislative visiting committee, who will visit all state institutions, commissions, boards, offices, etc., between now and the time for the convening of the legislature, and make report on the needs of each institution, and recommendations to the legislature concerning these needs.

Two of the men appointed on the committee have had wide experience in this work. They are Representative Joseph M. Cravens, of Madison, democrat, and Representative Charles A. McConagle, of Muncie, republican. The other man appointed, Senator Walter S. Chambers, of Newcastle, is a new member of the board. The financial needs of the state units are usually set out by the committee in a report, which is used by the ways and means committee of the house of representatives and the finance committee of the state senate, as a guide in drawing the appropriation bills.

The members of the visiting committee practically always are members of each of these financial committees in the general assembly. McConagle served on the committee in the 1915 session, and Cravens has been a member of the committee four times prior to that session.

GARRETT NEWS.

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 13.—Mrs. D. M. Landrith, of Gladstone, Mich., has arrived in this city and will make arrangements to conduct a piano contest.

Dr. Rodebaugh has lifted the diphtheria quarantine from several homes of this city and placed quarantine cards on the Ed Miller and Paul Seifert homes.

The Garrett football team won the bacon from the Central High School team of Fort Wayne in a game on the local grounds. The score was 33 to 3. The same teams played last Saturday and the Garrett boys won the game then.

Miss Alma Elam, who is attending school at Bryan, Ohio, is spending the week-end with her parents in this city.

The West Side Sewing circle of the Catholic church, gave a card party at the school hall. Mrs. Steimetz won the first prize for ladies and Miss Helen Loffi, second, while Frank Seifert won gentleman's first prize and Adam Trapp second.

Charles E. Fitzgerald went to Newark, Ohio, Saturday, for a few days' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ulery and daughter visited relatives in Chicago over Sunday.

Miss Loretta Mager was hostess to the Dolores Girls, Friday evening, at the Mager home on South Gowan street.

Mrs. Cris Sherman spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Cromwell.

Ray Tibbles, a private soldier who has been doing duty on the Mexican border, returned to his home in this city Saturday, owing to the expiration of his enlistment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop were over Sunday guests of the latter's parents in Auburn.

Henderson Ritchie spent the week-end with Miss Helen Holsinger. Mr. Ritchie is city reporter on a Munroe, Michigan, daily paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Cohn Metzler, of Chicago Junction, were called here by the death of the former's mother, Mrs. John Metzler, sr. The funeral of Mrs. Metzler was held Monday morning at Sts. Peter and Paul's Catholic church, the Rev. Father Young officiating, and burial was in Calvary.

The seniors of the Garrett high school enjoyed a delightful party Friday evening, when they were guests of Darewood Mitchell and Paul Grim at the former's home on Walsh street. Thirty members of the class were present.

Mrs. Lucy Van Curen went to Fort Madison, Iowa, Saturday, where she will spend several months with her son, C. H. Van Curen.

Mrs. D. Clouse, of Albion, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Summers, of East King street.

The telephone girls of the local office were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. William Boren. Mrs. Boren will be remembered as Miss Freda Zeek, and until her marriage a short time ago, was employed at the "hello" office.

MERCHANTS MEET TONIGHT.

James W. Fisk, of Associated Advertising Clubs, to Speak.

Much interest is being manifested in the meeting of the Retail Merchants' association of Fort Wayne, to be held Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Commercial club, at which time James W. Fisk, manager of the retail service and business system department of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, will be the principal speaker. To use Mr. Fisk's own expression, this department in brief is "to help the retailers of this country make more money; first, by showing them how to have the facts concerning their business at their fingers' ends, and then how to utilize these facts to the best advantage."

The meeting is an open one to which all retailers in the city are urged to attend. A fifty-cent luncheon will be served.

SHE LIKES IT!

ASK any housewife who has changed the family table drink from harmful coffee to helpful INSTANT POSTUM whether the change has been a success.

The answer may well induce you to make the change yourself.

Less "nerves," better temper, clearer complexion, improved digestion and steadier heart after a trial, demonstrate conclusively that the change from coffee to POSTUM is a wise move for the whole family.

"There's a Reason"

Holders of Fraternal Insurance

The new rates published by some of the fraternal insurance societies are surprisingly high and disappointing to many members who have heretofore been led to believe that they had good reliable life insurance. For twenty-five years I have been claiming that all fraternal rates were too low and inadequate. The new rates in some instances are higher than the cost of old-line, legal-reserve insurance.

In the interest of your wife and children are you sure that your fraternal membership will provide the absolute protection that you expected it to? If you are still in good health see me at once.

BOWSER INSTALLING PRODUCTION SYSTEM

Expert from Buffalo Has Taken Up the Work—Shop and Rail.

F. I. W. Young, recently from Buffalo, N. Y., has taken up the work of organizing and installing a production system department at the plant of S. F. Bowser & Co., a work which started some months ago and which Don Mangen would have carried to a consummation had he remained with the company. Mr. Young will work under the direction of H. J. Grosvenor, factory manager. Mr. Young was formerly connected in a responsible way with the Curtis Air Brake company, of Buffalo, and is said to be eminently fitted for the work he has in hand at the Bowser plant.

IS THE WHOLE THING.

Idaho Man Owns and Operates Alone a Railway.

A new use has been found for an abandoned railroad, the Idaho Southern railway, built between Gooding and Jerome a number of years ago for use while the great irrigating projects of the Twin Falls country were being constructed.

An enterprising Idaho man saw an opportunity, so he leased the track, ordered built for him a sixteen passenger high-power automobile, fitted with flange wheels, put it on the track with two light trailers for freight and express and announced that he was ready to do business. It is the only one-man railroad in existence, so far as known.

He is the conductor, engineer, fireman, brakeman, switchman, porter, flagman, station agent, president, vice-president, general manager, section boss and everything that there is on the whole road, including the ticket agent.

ESTABLISH NEW OFFICES.

Material Chaser is the Name of an Important Factory Agent.

Sherwood Hinds and H. M. Bowser have just returned from a successful "material chasing" trip in the interest of S. F. Bowser & Co. Their experience has demonstrated the fact that in these days of freight congestion and shipment delays, it pays to send out "chasers" after material needed in building the various products of the Bowser plant. One of the officials of the company said that it was the intention of the company to maintain an office of this kind. "It is impossible to get material promptly unless some one gets out and follows up the shipments, pushing them along by personal appeal to the railway men over whose lines they are shipped," continued the official.

WILL HAVE CELEBRATION.

Grand Officers Coming to Visit the Painters.

Painters' union No. 469 will be honored by a visit from one of the grand officers Thanksgiving eve, when the union will give a banquet and a social. This announcement was made at the last meeting of the local by E. T. Drew. The union is in a most prosperous condition and is growing rapidly. At the last meeting three applicants were initiated and three new applications were received.

FIXED HOELTJE'S CELLAR.

As an expression of gratitude to H. C. Hoeltje for the work he did for them, the Cement Workers union sent a delegation to the Hoeltje residence to install a cement floor in the cellar, and right well they did the work. The delegation was composed of President Wm. Meltz, Secretary Wm. Stapleton, Business Agent O. A. Hoover, Sergeant-at-arms George Japp and James Hoover. Mr. Hoeltje resides at 1220 Michigan avenue and he had assembled the material for the cellar floor when the cement workers heard of it and sent the committee to do the work. Recently Mr. Hoeltje organized the cement workers at considerable expense of time and work on his part, and the incident mentioned was a fitting expression of appreciation for the services.

TO RUN MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.

The Building Trades council, affiliated with which are the carpenters, painters, sheet metal workers, cement finishers, plumbers and steam fitters, electrical workers, lathers and plasterers, building laborers, hod carriers and hoisting engineers, will inaugurate a membership campaign Nov. 20. By a concerted movement it is expected to bring into the order all eligible men not already members of the unions. Invitations have been extended to the national heads of the various unions to come or send representatives to assist in the campaign and some will accept. W. J. Spencer, national secretary of the building trades department of the Federation of Labor, will be here sure.

TO WINTER IN CALIFORNIA.

G. R. Schultz, a draftsman at the General Electric works, has obtained a three months' leave of absence from Foreman William Crighton, and will leave next Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal. It is possible that he may accept employment there and remain permanently. Mr. Schultz has been employed at the General Electric works about six months. He formerly worked at the trade in the Pennsylvania drafting department, being employed there three and a half years. He is regarded as a most capable draftsman. He spent a winter in California five or six years ago.

GETTING MORE MEN.

The situation affecting laborers and helpers at the Pennsylvania shops is beginning to improve and Master Mechanic E. E. Griest is hoping the improvement will continue until the shortage of labor has disappeared. New men at the shops this morning were H. F. Hess, late of Avilla, assigned to the blacksmith shop; V. G. Piepenbrink, R. H. Meehan and C. L. Mousbey, in the machine shop, and Ed Sterling, W. Thompson, Thomas Jackson and Harry A Taylor, in the erecting shop. The four last named are colored men.

NEW FACTORY LUNCH ROOM.

The employes of S. F. Bowser & Co., who do not carry their lunch nor go home to dinner, now find a recently established lunch room in the brick building north of the offices, in charge of Mrs. Viola Zirkle, quite a convenience. Provisions have been made for 125 people, but at present only about sixty are taking their noon-day lunch there. This is a new feature at the Bowser plant, which is destined to be quite popular with the employes.

IMPROVING IN THE WEST.

Chief Shop Clerk J. H. Hobrock, of the Pennsylvania, received a letter from R. G. Diemer, one of his clerks, who is temporarily located in Wyoming, on account of poor health. He went into the mountainous regions of that state three months ago and in his letter to Mr. Hobrock, he says he is gaining strength and weight and is feeling first rate. "I will be back at the desk in your office January 1 in good shape," said Mr. Diemer.

AUXILIARY MEETS EARLY.

Because the work to be handled will consume considerable time, Friendship division, No. 18, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive engineers, will open the Wednesday afternoon meeting at 1:30 o'clock instead of 2:30. Mrs. Castle, of Cleveland, one of the grand officers, will be here and will inspect the ritual work of the division. All members are requested to be present.

HAD WRIST BONE BROKEN.

Engineer H. L. Kennedy, of the Van Wert work train of the Pennsylvania, sustained a most painful injury Saturday when he stuck his right hand out of the window of the cab as the locomotive was moving along rapidly, his arm came in contact with a mail crane and some of the bones of the wrist were broken. The accident will put Engineer Kennedy out of commission for several weeks.

MINISTERS TO LAFAYETTE.

Tomorrow the Northern Indiana Lutheran conference opens at Lafayette and the greater portion of the ministers of the territory are assembling there to take part in the three days' session. No. 5 on the Wabash carried a party of thirty-five ministers today and it is likely the early morning train will have another party. A special coach was provided for the Fort Wayne party.

BEN HOSTETLER AT WORK.

After an absence of over three months, Benjamin F. Hostetler resumed work at the Pennsylvania round house this morning. He is foreman of the labor department at that place and three months ago, while at work one day, a wheel rolled over one of his feet and broke some of the ankle bones. The injury has nearly fully recovered and Mr. Hostetler gets around quite actively again.

Y. M. C. A. ANNUAL ELECTION.

The central board of the city and Railroad Y. M. C. A. will hold its annual meeting and election tonight. Four representatives of the city and railroad department each will be elected. According to precedent, a railroad man will be elected president this year to succeed A. H. Perfect, who belongs to the city department.

LEAVES ON BIG TRIP.

R. J. Fisher, of the Bass Foundry and Machine works, left today on a business trip which will take him to Indianapolis, Richmond, Va.; Cleveland, New York, Baltimore, and other eastern cities. He will not return until the early part of next week. Mr. Fisher just returned from a business trip to Pittsburg yesterday.

REPAIRS COMPLETED TONIGHT.

The men engaged in repairing the air compressor at the Bass foundry did not complete the work last night as expected and are still at it. They will finish tonight, however, and foundry rooms 1 and 7, which have been closed on account of the compressor being out of commission, will resume operations tomorrow morning.

IN A NEW OFFICE.

Ed S. Hurlbut, who had headquarters in the factory office at S. F. Bowser & Co., for some time, is now working out of offices in the new store house building. Mr. Hurlbut is the "order chaser" at the plant and his duties are to keep tab on orders and see that they are not unavoidably delayed.

SHOPMEN BACK AT WORK.

Henry Dieckmann, the doormaker at the Pennsylvania planing mills, who had a finger crushed a month ago; H. H. Hoppe, a cabbuilder who was taken ill September 22, and H. Gumbert, an upholsterer who was sick a week, were able to resume their duties this morning.

PUSHING CONCOURSE WORK.

The men engaged in the improvements in the concourse at the Pennsylvania passenger station will complete the west end of the concourse the latter part of the week and will probably complete the eastern portion next week. The work has been delayed by late and irregular receipts of material.

BACK FROM WESTERN TRIP.

Operator L. C. Foster and Chief Clerk Ralph Marker, of the Pennsylvania division operator's office, resumed their respective duties this morning, after a two weeks' trip in the west. They visited Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City and other points and had a most pleasant time.

VISITED SON IN DETROIT.

Gang Foreman E. W. Koehn, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, and Mrs. Koehn have returned from Detroit, where they spent two days with their son, Marvin Koehn. The young man is employed as lost shipment tracer by the New York Central road.

TO ENTERTAIN DIVISION 513.

Mrs. H. L. Reed, of 715 West Superior street, will entertain Nickel Plate division, No. 513, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Tuesday.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pennsylvania Engineers M. O'Brien and M. H. Durnell are off duty on account of sickness.

Peter Goda, motive power inspector of the Pennsylvania, is at Cleveland, Ohio, today on business for the department.

J. H. Sievers and C. F. Brown, who were sick four or five days, resumed work in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

W. G. Zart, treasurer and assistant general manager of S. F. Bowser & Company, left yesterday for the east on a business trip for the company.

D. E. McCaskey, who recently returned from the south, has taken employment with S. F. Bowser & Company. He is a son of Dr. George W. McCaskey.

Hammersmith Ed Szink, sick one week, and C. McConnell, a helper in the blacksmith shop, sick two weeks, resumed work this morning.

L. J. and H. I. Mann, father and son, are at Plymouth, Ind., to attend the funeral of a relative. The Manns work in the Pennsylvania shops.

J. M. Bowman, the boilermaker's helper who had his eyes burned by the rays of the electric welder several days ago, was able to resume work this morning.

Harry Ertle is acting foreman of the wheel department of the Pennsylvania machine shop during the absence of Foreman M. J. Shea, who is out on a two weeks' vacation.

The Peru Journal announces that C. J. Williams and family have taken up an abode on Ewing street in that city. He is a Wabash employe and formerly resided in Fort Wayne.

At the meeting of the Federation of Labor tonight nominations for office will be made. Considerable interest centers in the election and the attendance tonight will be large.

General Foreman F. W. Opatz has returned from Crooked Lake, where he spent Sunday with his son, Ora, who is staying at the lake on account of poor health. Ora is improving.

W. D. Korte, a carpenter at the Pennsylvania shops, and his wife are entertaining Mrs. Brice and Mrs. John Warnock, of Pittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Korte reside at 2114 Drexel avenue.

William Mennewisch, clerk in the Pennsylvania division storekeeper's room, is out today and tomorrow on a rabbit hunting expedition in the country round and about Grovertown.

We don't only remove spots but take out the dust. Peerless Dry Cleaning Co. Phone 6095.

Charles W. Kronmiller, foreman of the Pennsylvania planing mills, is taking his annual two weeks' vacation. Most of the time will be devoted to work at his home, though he has a short pleasure trip in contemplation. During Mr. Kronmiller's absence, the planing mills will be in charge of William Wehrs, assistant foreman.

It is difficult finding 9x15 foot Rugs for the across-the-front rooms in New Fort Wayne houses. They have them at Foster's.

Because of heavy travel, Nickel Plate train No. 1 was split here Sunday, the first section, with through passengers, making the trip to Chicago, without many stops. It carried a number of passengers who were destined to points west and were anxious to make connections in Chicago.

RAINY WEATHER PUTS CRIMP IN THE MARKETS

Receipts Very Light in Every Department—Prices Unchanged.

Rainy weather on Monday morning had its effect on the Fort Wayne markets and receipts were light in every department. All prices of last Saturday held good and dealers made no changes. The wheat market is the only one which seemed to be stirring. There were indications that another rise in price would be effected locally very soon, although no change was made. In some of the large centers, millers say wheat sold for $2.05 a bushel Monday morning.

The grain market is strong. Oats and corn prices are holding up very high and it is possible that an advance may be made in these departments in Fort Wayne within the next few days.

The hog market is steady with receipts very light. Local dealers and packers state that on account of the steady advance in corn prices the price on hogs is bound to rise.

Poultry prices also show a tendency to advance. Egg prices remained the same as that of Saturday.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—There was a fresh upward swing in the wheat market here today. Furthermore damage to the Argentine crop continued owing to frost, drought and locusts. Opening prices, which ranged from 2c to 2¾c higher with December at $1.91@1.92¼ and May at $1.94@1.95⅛, were followed by a reaction but then a rise higher than before. Unfavorable Argentine conditions tended to lift corn as well as wheat. After opening ⅛c to 1⅝c up, the market sagged a little and then scored decided additional gains.

Oats, like corn and wheat, ascended to new high price records for 1916.

Toledo Closing Prices.

Toledo, O., Nov. 13.—Close: Wheat—Cash, $1.94; December, $1.95; May, $2.01.

Corn—Cash, $1.07; December, $1.03¼; May $1.01.

Oats—Cash, 59c; December, 61c; May, 65c.

Rye—Cash, $1.50.

New York Grain and Provisions.

New York, Nov. 13.—Flour market was unsettled; spring patents, $9.60@9.85; winter patents, $8.85@9.10; winter straights, $8.50@8.65; Kansas straights, $9.60@9.85.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Buffalo Market.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 13.—Highly irregular conditions prevailed at the opening of today's market in consequence of a renewal of pressure against some of the prominent specialties. Central Leather was again singled out, making an initial decline of 3⅝ to 110, with more moderat recessions in motors, marine preferred and some of the equipments and rails. Marked strength was shown by the metals with new records for Utah and Ray Coppers. United States Steel was firm with independent industrials of the same class. But the movement in other parts of the list became more confusing with the progress of trading.

Coppers derived greater strength from the increased dividend and reports of the early closing of a large contract for the metal with the French government. Chino was added to the list of new copper issues and Granby rose 5 points. There was a brisk inquiry for Republic Iron, New York Air Brake and Industrial Alcohol at gains of 3 to 5 points. Gulf states steel issues augmented last week's sensational advances with gains of 2 to 3 points. Central Leather made no appreciable recovery and rails continued heavy aside from temporary activity and strength of Rock Island. Bonds were firm.

New York Sugar Market.

New York, Nov. 13.—Raw sugar was steady; refined, steadp, unchanged to 15 points higher.

CHOLERA CONTINUES TO SPREAD AT OSAKA

But Cool Weather Brings a Decrease in Plague at Tokio.

Tokio, Oct. 10.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Although cool weather has brought a decrease of cholera at Tokio the malady continues to spread at Osaka. Up to October 10 the cases at Tokio had reached 548; at Osaka the total was 2,001, with an increase of twenty daily.

At Tokio there have been 151 deaths. The authorities believe that by the end of the month the epidemic will be entirely wiped out here. No foreigner has been attacked by the disease, so far as is known.

The spread of cholera to Korea has had a serious economic effect there, as the authorities have prohibited fishing in a zone extending along 200 miles of coast. Cholera is believed by many physicians to be easily circulated from fish tissue and the fishermen of Korea are said to have failed to comply with sanitary measures ordered by the health department. Some 270,000 fishermen, commanding 40,000 boats, are thus thrown out of work at the most fruitful fishing period of the year. Fear of fish as a microbe carrier has reduced the consumption of fish throughout the Japanese empire and as fish, next to rice, is the chief food of the people the ban placed upon it has caused misery among both fisherman and distributor.

TWO STATES IN TRADE WAR.

New York and New Jersey Struggle for Commercial Supremacy.

New York, Nov. 13.—A battle for commercial supremacy between New York and New Jersey opened today with arguments before the interstate commerce commission for and against New Jersey's plea to divide the port of New York into separate parts. The busiest part of New Jersey's water front is a part of the port of New York and freight rates to the nearby Jersey cities are the same as those into the greater city. New Jersey in the present application seeks to have her water front cut off from the port of New York, thereby giving an advantage in freight rates amounting to approximately the lighterage charges of those goods which have to be transported to the New York side of the harbor.

The chief American article sold in China is kerosene. The value of this single product exceeds all other American imports combined.

Automobiles and Sundries

A $361 car, plus $15 freight, plus $100 for electric starter, plus $3.70 for changing from 3-inch to 3½ inch tires, and, if you want demountable rims add about $20 more. Shock absorbers would cost another $10 to $20; a mohair top costs $25 to $30. Oh, yes, a ventilating wind shield is $10. Change your lamps for lamps with dimmers is another outlay of $6 or more. Now you have parted with about $550 and still have a $361 car, without a speedometer. So, why not buy a

CHEVROLET

The Chevrolet has electric lights, electric starter, all 30x3½ non-skid tires, has a mohair top and ventilating wind shield. Yes, it has dimmers in the headlights. The Chevrolet, too, has a long wheel base and costs only $515, with a speedometer, delivered in your city—a saving of $35 over the 490 car. The Chevrolet has four cantilever springs and does not need shock absorbers. The $40 charge made by some Dealers for doing business with them, not made by us.

BABY BONDS IDEAL FOR SMALL INVESTORS

The rate of interest paid upon any security naturally depends upon the element of speculation which enters into the investment. Smaller investors should always be exceedingly careful not to be tempted by the possibility of high returns, for as the rate of interest mounts higher, the degree of safety descends lower. In Baby Bonds the small investor finds a security with a rate of return that is as high as he can expect to receive without losing some of the elements of safety which he should look for in an investment. Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, bear six per cent interest and are secured by first mortgages on local real estate. There are also a few $500 bonds of the same issue which have the same security and bear the same rate of interest. For other particulars see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

RESULTS SUNDAY.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 13.—Jim Thorpe and his all-star Canton professional football team defeated the Cleveland Indians here Sunday 14 to 7.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 13.—The Heralds, of Detroit, defeated the Pitcairn football eleven, of Pittsburg, 15 to 0 here Sunday. Captain Shields, quarterback for the locals, starred with two touchdowns.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 13.—The Clabby A. A. football team defeated the Ann Arbor (Mich.) eleven here Sunday afternoon 30 to 0. The Clabbys play Davenport, Ia., here next Sunday.

Toledo, O., Nov. 13.—The Triangles, of Dayton, O., formerly Dayton Cadets, defeated Toledo Maroons yesterday, 12 to 0. Two field goals by Williams and a touchdown by Partlow constituted the scoring.

AFTER THOUGHTS ON SUNDAY'S BIG GAME

Our masked marvels whom we are forced to call Elward and Hunter, of course, created a sensation, partially because of the novelty of assumed names, but mostly because they put up a great game at ends. Evanston's back had a hard time making gains around the end. Well, in fact they had a hard time doing anything at all.

Cap Johnson, of the visitors, is a dangerous man and when Evanston had the ball the fans were watching him all the time. When he was about to kick the crowd kept calling to Checkeye and Pliska to back up. This man sure can kick, but his attempt at a drop kick in the fourth period was a fluke. Everybody liked him until after the game when he told the Friars that Wabash would beat them next Sunday. We're going to make him swallow those words. See if we don't.

Anyone who was at the game knows that there is nothing to say about the clever little quarter, but words of praise. He had his opponents figured all the time and knew where the ball had to go to make big gains. In the first quarter he started off like a house on fire and made two big gains by carrying the ball himself. Thanks be to him, too, for a shutout. He was the only man between Johnson and the goal line when the latter made the sensational end run. Coony sure did spill the big man.

There wasn't a player on the local team Sunday who does not deserve bushels of credit. It was a real-for-sure game. The Friar line was a hard one to buck and Evanston soon found it out, too. After seeing that line plunges were for naught and end runs did not bring them much they started a series of forward passes. But we broke that up, too. So there you are. What were the poor boys to do?

When the fans saw "something" shoot through the opponents' line like a twelve-inch shell, without waiting to see who it was after the referee untangled the mass, they all knew it was Chambers. His plunges sure do send up an awful noise from the grandstand and bleachers. When Cap Byroade took him out of the line-up everybody thought he was injured. But Chris says he is tough and is ready for next Sunday's scrimmage.

In his old-time supreme form, Pliska was there again Sunday and established himself deeper in the hearts of his thousands of admirers. He made a long end run for a touchdown in the third period, but it didn't count because the referee called him back and penalized the Friars for holding.

Al Feeney was there, too. He played a great game and his kicking was next to perfect.

Referee Magidsohn is the best official that has been here this season. The fans liked him, too, and although he penalized the Friars several times there was no hissing and howling in the stands.

Halfback Johnson is awful big. This was demonstrated yesterday when he made the holes for Pliska to go through. The Evanston boys were flying thick and fast when he started ploughing through their lines. He carried the ball several times for big gains.

Cap Edwards likes to mix it and when he hits the line something must give way.

Let's see. Pine Village beat Wabash yesterday. And by brushing our memory a little, we believe that we beat Pine Village. Therefore, Theorem.

"Hail, hail the Friar team." The howlin' hosts of the Friars will be prepared to meet any attempt at rooting that Wabash may have to offer. Charles Pask is going to officiate as yell leader and he will have ten assistants. The gang will have a special section reserved for them and something is expected. After all the Wabash game is always the big game in Fort Wayne, and there will sure be some time Sunday.

POPE PREPARES TO PROTEST.

Will Object to German Deportation of the Belgians.

Paris, Nov. 13.—Dispatches from Rome say the pope is about to send a note to Germany protesting strongly against the reported wholesale deportation of Belgians. The dispatches say that this decision of the pontiff has become known semi-officially in vatican circles.

CALENDAR YEAR IS URGED.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Substitution of the calendar year for the fiscal year in interstate railway accounting methods was urged before the interstate commerce commission at a hearing today of a committee of railway accounting officers. Approximately 85 per cent of the railways are said to have advocated the change in letters to the committee. It is urged that the calendar year basis would be much more convenient and would enable the roads to concentrate more attention to maintenance work during the summer months.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication — which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge that is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.—Advertisement.
